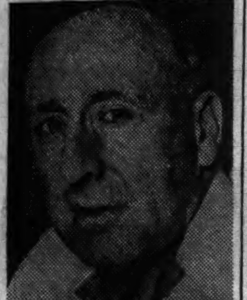
COURTS FORCE BOARD TO HALT LABOR COERCION

Demands for Fair Law Spurred.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 1.—[Special.]—The retreat of the National labor relations board under fire from the federal courts gave new impetus today to the demands for amendment of the Wagner act to remove the discriminations against employers and impose the same responsibility upon labor as upon capital. Senator Elbert D. Thomas [D., Utah] and other administration leaders have refused to consider any changes in the law.



Sen. Thomas, who delays Wagner act changes.

The action of the labor board in moving to rescind its decisions against the Ford Motor company and the Republic Steel corporation in order to extend to the employers the hitherto denied right of a fair hearing was hailed by the Republicans and conservative Democrats as vindicating their charges that labor legislation and its administration under the Roosevelt régime have been unfair to employers and are one of the major causes of the current depression.

Courts Deal Staggering Blows.

Not since the Supreme court knocked out the NRA and the first AAA has the administration sustained so staggering a series of blows at the hands of the courts as it has during the last week. Monday the Supreme court rebuked Secretary of Agriculture Wallace for failing to give live stock exchange traders a fair hearing in the fixing of rates.

This was the decision that gave the labor board its first jolt, for it had pursued the same procedure as Secretary Wallace in denying a fair hearing to employers. The board realized that its decisions based on such unfair hearings were doomed to invalidation by the Supreme court for the same reasons as in the Wallace case. Consequently, the board hastened to undo what it had done and start over again in the cases against Ford and the Republic corporation with a fair hearing extended to the employers.

Jolted in Indiana Case.

The next jolt sustained by the board was the decision of the federal Circuit Court of Appeals knocking out an order by the board to the Columbian Enameling and Stamping company of Terre Haute, Ind., to reinstate former employés who struck in violation of an agreement to arbitrate disputes. Critics of the Wagner act and of the board pronounced this decision a complete substantiation of their charge of the discrimination against employers in favor of labor unions.

According to some authorities the validity of most of the decisions and orders of the labor board are jeopardized by the Supreme court decision in the Wallace case.

One fatal legal defect found in the board's procedure is due to a "short-cut" method by which the board has drafted and promulgated rulings without giving employers a chance to make protests on factual and legal findings. This is held illegal because it deprives a party to the action of his rights without due process of law.

Coal Rulings Upset.

In any event, the board now finds itself in much the same position as the national bituminous coal commission, which was hit amidships by court decisions that it had failed to hold fair hearings on the fixing of coal prices under the Guffey-Vinson coal control act.

In order to avert chaos in the soft coal industry, the board was compelled to rescind the several thousand coal prices it had fixed and to start all over with fair hearings provided for.

Those who think they perceive in the procedure of the Roosevelt administration a constant tendency toward dictatorship cite in illustration thereof the arbitrary and high handed

3 INDIANA MEN FACE TRIAL FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL

Action of Executive Stirs Vincennes.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Vincennes, Ind., May 1.—[Special.]—The primary campaign reached fever heat here today as the result of a raid on a printing plant last night. The raiders seized the type in the plant and three men were arrested on charges of criminal libel by order of Mayor Joseph W. Kimmel whose administration had been criticized by pamphlets printed in the plant.

J. W. Kimmel.

The three were scheduled to appear before the mayor, as judge of the police court for preliminary hearings on the libel charge tomorrow.

Candidate for State Senate.

The mayor, a candidate for state senator in the Democratic primary Tuesday, announced today that he had ordered the raid and the arrests. He said he acted under a new law defining election offenses which was passed by the legislature last year. However, citizens looked up the law but could find nothing in it about raids and confiscation.

One of the men arrested is Walter A. Ewing, owner of the printing shop. The other two are Paul Ferguson and William Massey, employed by the anti-Kimmel faction to distribute campaign literature. These two were held in jail without booking for nearly 24 hours.

Chief Leads Raiders.

"Chief of Police Noel Swayze and two of his men, all armed, came through the front door of my place of business," said Ewing today in describing the raid. "I asked them where they were going and they started toward the presses at the back.

"I asked Chief Swayze whether he had a search warrant or any other kind of legal power.

"'I don't need any warant,' the chief told me, 'whatever I see is evidence and I'm going to have it. Get out of the way.'

"I warned him that it was illegal to interfere with the printing of ballots, that I had the ballot contract for seven counties. But the three raiders took type right out of the forms and left."

Calls Charges Untrue.

A few of the four-page pamphlets assailing Mayor Kimmel's administration also were picked up in the shop. This campaign literature, signed by the "Kimmel Machine Busters," accuses Kimmel of using his office for his own glorification, of boosting city tax rates, and of maintaining the "most poorly lighted streets between Chicago and Florida." Kimmel has said all this is untrue.

The printer, backed by many citizens, is ready to continue the fight. He said he will have more than one

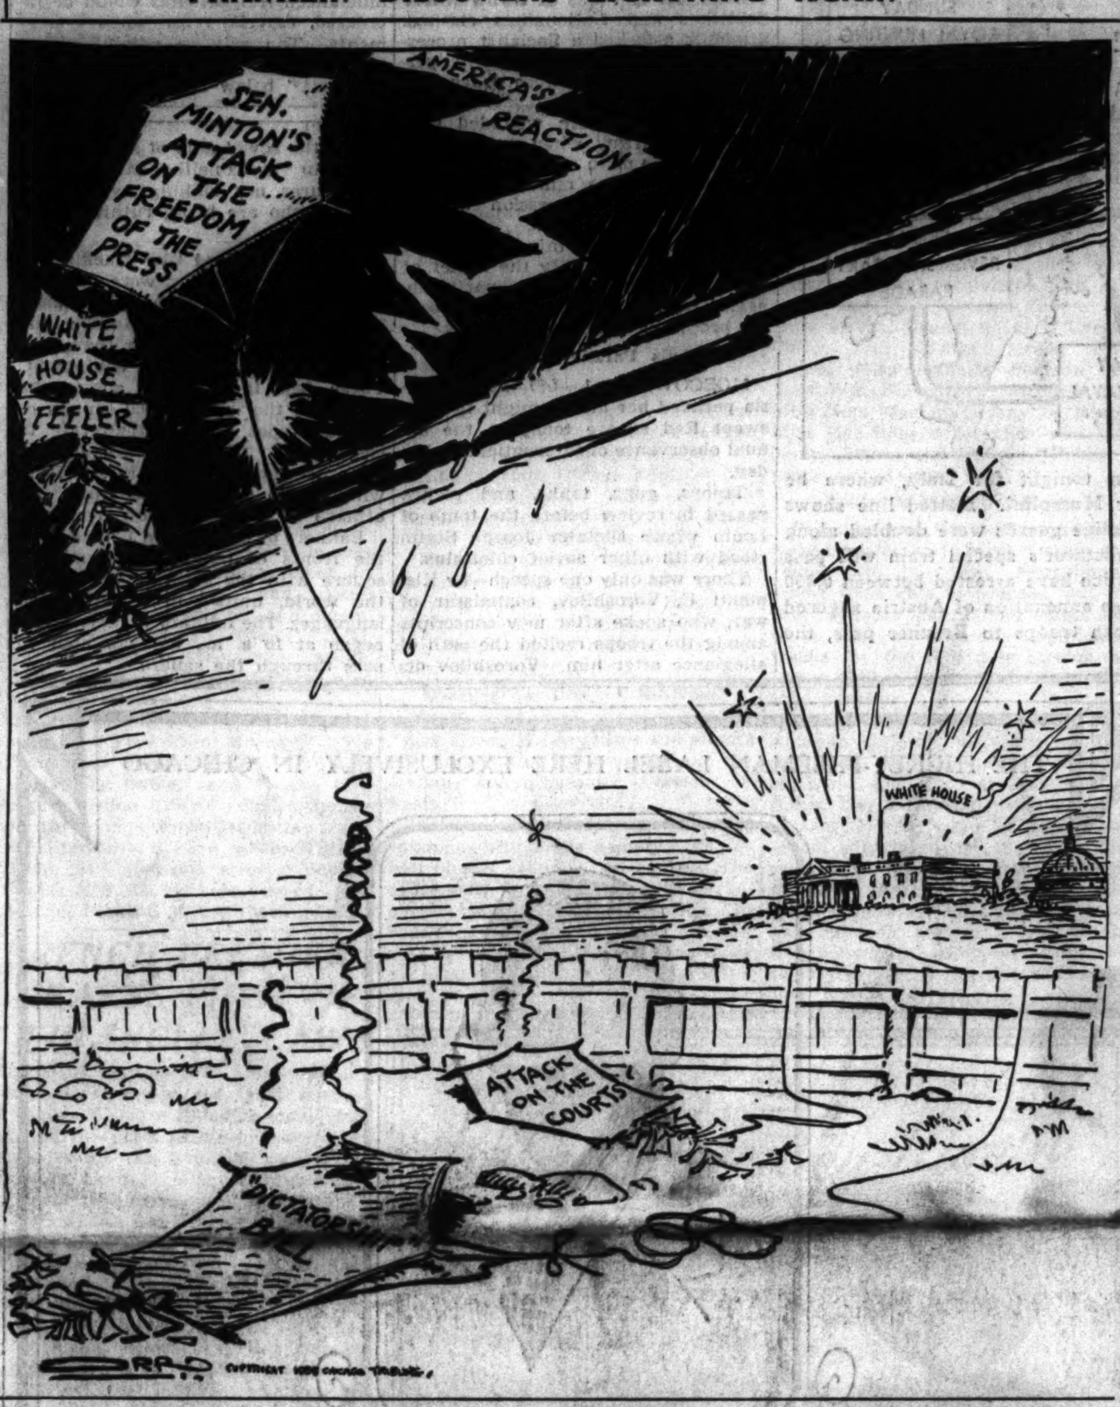
FRANKLIN DISCOVERS LIGHTNING AGAIN



Parole Agents Easy to Fool, Says Slayer

Raymond Morgan, a young gunman who shot and killed a street car conductor in a robbery while on parole from Pontiac reformatory, explained at the detective bureau yesterday that wise parolees don't have much trouble fooling parole agents.

Morgan not only killed a man, but he committed twenty-five robberies—all while on parole, and presumably during good behavior. In relating how he outwitted agents whose duty it was to see that he didn't get into mischief, Morgan disclosed that he polished the automobile of one agent the night before he was arrested.

"I got paid for that job, though," insisted Morgan. "I didn't do it in the hopes of getting any special favors. The agent paid me $2."

Admits Killing Conductor.

Morgan, who is 23 years old, confessed Saturday night that he killed Truman H. Hanmer, conductor on a 47th street surface lines car, last Jan 23. That was only ten months after his parole from Pontiac where he had served nearly three years for robbery.

Since Morgan was on parole at the time of the killing, and is still on parole, police expressed interest in how he managed to fool parole agents. They pointed out that the ordinary rules require a parolee to be home at certain hours at night, to be employed if possible, to keep away from criminal associates, and otherwise to deport himself commendably.

"Well, the parole officer did see me three times a month," said Morgan, "but then there was plenty of time between visits to go out and pull stickups."

Gets More Privileges.

Sergt. Jack Hanrahan, who was questioning him, wanted to know how Morgan abided by the rules requiring him to be home at nights.

"When I first went on parole," answered Morgan, "I was required to be home no later than 9:30 p. m. every night. I always managed to be in by then. Later I was given more privileges, and lately I had been allowed to stay out as late as 11:30 o'clock three nights a week. I always got in under that deadline, too, whether I was out on a job or not."

The parolee then disclosed that

LITTLE GIRL DECIDES TO GO HOME, SO SHE DOES; WALKS 6 MILES

Joan Rodgers, 8 years old, had a grand time in her grandmother's house at 6851 Wabash avenue last week while her mother was spring cleaning. But yesterday she became homesick.

At 8 a. m. Joan packed her dresses and shoes, put on her pert little blue coat with the yellow collar, and started out for home. Her grandmother, Mrs. George Rodgers, found her missing, telephoned her mother, Mrs. James Rodgers, and the Woodlawn police.

Police squads searched the neighborhood. But no Joan. Finally at 11:30 a. m. Joan, lugging a heavy handbag, walked up the front steps of her home at 10348 South Wood street. Tired and hungry, Joan told her mother she had walked the distance, more than six miles.

NO JOSHING, JOSH NEEDS HIS NOTES FOR FINAL EXAMS

For the attention of the burglar who broke into a parked automobile in Wabash avenue near Randolph street yesterday, Joseph Josh, who owns the car, doesn't mind so much the loss of his shirt and textbook but he may fail his June examinations if he doesn't get back his two notebooks, containing the gist of his last year's studies. Josh, who is 25 years old and lives at 5311 Congress street, is a student at the Loyola university dentistry school.

It's Trout Fishing Time; Preacher Gets Substitute

Springfield, Vt., May 1.—(AP)—Some of his congregation objected, but the Rev. Lawrence Larrowe, a young Methodist minister, today observed the opening of the trout season by leaving a substitute minister in his place—and catching eight fish. Then he attended services at another church and later remarked: "When I look back over the day, I feel that I have spent a Christian Sunday."

Lilac Days Set for This Week; Joy to Shut-Ins

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Wednesday and Friday of this week will be share your lilacs days in Chicagoland. Every lilac grower in this region will have an opportunity to share his blossoms on those days with the sick and shut-ins in hospitals, settlement houses, old people's homes, and other institutions.

The campaign is conducted jointly by the Chicago Plant, Flower, and Fruit guild and THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

Because lilac buds are opening two weeks earlier than usual, those in charge of distributing the blooms have rushed through with final plans for gathering the flowers. In spite of forecasts that the late frost would prove damaging to the early buds, a survey shows that nature is almost as bounteous as ever this year with lilac blossoms, and growers are urged to be generous to the unfortunate shut-ins.

Railroads to Coöperate.

Steam and electric railroads will cooperate again in bringing the flowers in from the gardening areas. The following railroads again will haul the lilacs in from the suburbs free: Burlington, Illinois Central, Rock Island, North Western, Aurora and Elgin, and North Shore.

These roads will have fifty-eight trains that will pick up lilacs at the various suburban stations on Wednesday and Friday.

Distribution Plans Laid.

Guild committees from eighty-five community garden clubs will be at the suburban stations to receive the lilacs and see that they are carefully loaded onto the trains. Receiving committees also will be at the downtown terminal stations to supervise the handling of the lilacs. The blossoms will be loaded quickly into Tribune trucks and hauled to the hospitals and other institutions.

School children and Boy and Girl Scouts will aid in taking the lilacs to the suburban stations.

In encouraging gardeners to give all the lilacs they can spare guild officials quote horticultural authorities as saying that cutting the bushes does not injure them but actually is helpful in stimulating growth and increasing the number of blossoms in following seasons.

Parks, private clubs, schools, and estates are among the contributors every year. But most come from bushes in the dooryards of homes.

Bror Dahlberg Party Loses $20,000 Gems

Bror G. Dahlberg, president of the Celotex company, his wife, and two well known lawyers and their wives were kidnaped in a taxicab in front of the Drake Tower apartments, 179 Lake Shore drive, by two masked bandits last night, driven at gunpoint through Gold Coast streets, and finally robbed of more than $20,000 in jewelry and some cash.

Cursing and threatening, the gunmen kept the three couples terrified prisoners for ten minutes. One slapped one of the women on the face because she was too slow in removing a diamond bracelet.

Here Are the Victims.

The other victims with the Dahlbergs were Leonard B. Ettelson and his wife, Luella, and Andrew J. Dallstream and his wife, Dorothy. Mr. Ettelson specializes in corporation law and is a brother of former Corporation Counsel Samuel A. Ettelson. He lives at the Drake Towers. Mr. Dallstream is attorney for various manufacturing, mining, and insurance companies. His home is in Barrington. The Dahlbergs live at 999 Lake Shore drive. Mrs. Dahlberg is the former Gilda Krieger Lichtie of New York.

The three couples had attended the opening of the play, "You Never Know," at the Grand Opera house and were returning home in a Checker cab driven by Jack Finklestein, 1334 Estes avenue. Their first stop was in front of the Drake Tower apartments. Mr. Ettelson alighted first.

At that moment a small sedan braked to a sharp stop in back of the cab, two men wearing handkerchief masks jumped out and ran up. A third man remained at the wheel of the car.

"Wonderful Time" Changes.

Mr. Ettelson was just uttering to the Dahlbergs and Dallstreams, "We've had a wonderful time," when one of the masked men pushed him roughly back into the cab. The other man ran around to the other side.

"All quiet, now," the men shouted. They shoved revolvers into the faces of the startled Dahlbergs, Ettelsons, and Dallstreams. Then they climbed into the taxicab, which was already overcrowded, sprawling on the laps of their men and women victims. One of the robbers jabbed Finklestein, the cab chauffeur, on the neck with his gun.

"Follow that car ahead and don't make any mistakes," he warned.

At that moment the bandit car, driven by the third man, was just pulling ahead of the taxicab. The car moved east in Lake Shore drive. Finklestein obediently followed.

Route of the Robbers.

The bandit leader turned south in the drive, west in Walton street to De Witt place, south in De Witt to Chestnut street, west to Seneca street, south in Seneca to Pearson street, east in Pearson to De Witt, and south across Chicago avenue into Fairbanks court.

The ride was slow, the bandit leader apparently seeking a dark place at

All Autos Entering Rome Stopped.

ROME, May 1.—(AP)—Unofficial estimates tonight said between 6,000 and 7,000 persons have fallen into the Italian police net spread in stringent precautions for Adolf Hitler's visit to Italy starting on Tuesday.

Many of those apprehended were jailed for the period the Fuehrer will be in Italy and the rest were ordered out of Rome, Florence, and Naples for the duration of Hitler's stay in those cities.

Vigilance tightened on all fronts as Hitler prepared to start for Brenner pass tomorrow and spend a week as a guest of Premier Mussolini.

Soldiers Stop Automobiles.

All automobiles entering or leaving Rome were stopped by soldiers who scrutinized the occupants' identification papers. Police guards were doubled along the railway line from Brenner pass to Rome, which Hitler's special train will traverse.

Police questioning of all train passengers throughout Italy has become more severe while shipments of small parcels into Rome have been halted completely until Hitler leaves Rome to continue his visit in Naples.

The Fuehrer and his large retinue of aids come to Italy under slightly different circumstances than existed when Mussolini was given a great welcome in Germany last September.

Resent Seizure of Austria.

Italians of the rank and file and on up into official circles have expressed themselves freely against the Nazi absorption of Austria which brought German troops to Brenner pass, the historic mountain gateway into Italy from the north.

Several demonstrations of sentiment against Austro-German union have occurred in theaters where newsreels depicting the event have been shown and also among university students.

Officially, however, the Rome-Berlin axis still is praised as the cornerstone of European peace. Mussolini has shown himself determined to surpass the splendor in which Hitler cloaked his visit in Germany.

Walls Hide Ancient Rome.

Hundreds of millions of lira have been expended to transform the timeworn faces of Rome, Florence and Naples in honor of a single visitor from the reich. New buildings, new streets, huge lighted flagpoles, urns spouting fire and gigantic candelabra combine to give Rome the aspect of a world's fair. Many of the ancient ruins are hidden behind lattice work and high wooden walls.

Thousands of soldiers drilled tonight for their part in the spectacle.

Dispatches from Berlin said that no meeting between Hitler and Pope Pius was contemplated. The pope left Vatican City yesterday for Castel Gandolfo to spend the summer.

DOWN WITH WAR—HITLER

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, May 1.—"No nation has been treated by nature in a more stepmotherly fashion than Germany," Reichsfuehrer Hitler complained today to the German people at a great May day demonstration in Berlin.

"Restricted in area, rich in population and surrounded by many jealous enemies, our struggle for existence is more difficult than elsewhere," he said in an address near a towering May pole in the Lustgarten. "Yet we can confidently match our achievements with those of the nations about us."

Extoling the achievements of Nazi Germany, Hitler pointed scornfully to critical nations in Europe—"except that one, Italy, which I shall have the honor of visiting shortly."

"Those nations arrogantly looked down on us and criticized us," he said. "Now they are wrestling with problems which bring millions of unemployed in their wake while we only are worried about the lack of labor.

Help Yourself: Hitler's Motto.

"Germany's economic policy is based on the principle of the Nazi doctrin: Help yourself. We have acted accordingly in economic and political matters. Help yourself and then the Almighty will help you."

He assured Germans they need fear no depreciation of the German currency which, he said, is not backed by gold or foreign currency "but by a great industrious and toiling nation."

The Fuehrer said it is as foolish for persons to say they support a community of nations but reject the Nazi party as it is to say they support peace but reject the army.

"There formerly were people who said 'down with war' while permitting internal war to rage. This slogan, 'down with war,' is also mine. For this reason I am making Germany strong and placing her on her own feet. But to be strong it is necessary to wipe out anything which would prevent disclosing our strength to the outside world. Therefore, I say not only down with war, but also down with civil war, down with class warfare, and down with disputes and wranglings."

Many men and women in the huge crowd fainted while Hitler, Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, and Robert Ley, leader of the Labor Front, spoke.

Elsewhere in Germany millions of workers marched to city squares to hear Hitler's words over radio loudspeakers.

Actress Gets $5,000 Prize.

At an early morning ceremony in the Olympic stadium, Hitler told 150,000 boys and girls that his unshakable confidence in Germany's future was based on them.

Baldur von Schirach, Hitler Youth leader, told the boys he did not wish "exemplary youth," and warned the girls they must not be "meek prigs."

This year's national film prize of $5,000 was awarded to Leni Riefenstahl, movie actress and director, for her sound pictures of the 1936 Olympic games by Goebbels at a festive session of the National Chamber of Culture in the German Opera house.

The author's prize was awarded for a book of poems with the title "Song of the Faithful." The verses were written by anonymous members of the Austrian Hitler Youth. Goebbels said the volume was so remarkable that the value of the prize had been increased from $40,800 to $80,000 which would be used to build a Hitler Youth hotel in Austria.

Reviews Military Units.

Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, second in command of the German nation, tonight delivered a May day warning to the world.

"When Germans come to Germans that is not an international problem, but only a German problem," he said.

He spoke after detachments of the army, air force, Schutz Staffel [hand picked Hitler guards] paraded before him in the square in front of the former imperial palace.

"We must continue to arm," Goering said. "When we see how nations around us arm, purchase airplanes, and materials for war, then we ask, 'Why?' Germany is sufficient unto herself and desires only to work to live and to be certain that the values she creates will benefit her own people. It is the duty of every German to be prepared to sacrifice everything for his country."

HITLER PROTECTS YOUTH WITH LAW ON CHILD LABOR

BERLIN, May 1.—(AP)—A new German law, effective Jan. 1, 1939, was enacted today "for the protection of youth." It regulates child labor, barring persons under the age of 16, with few exceptions, from all-night work, overtime, and from being kept at work between 2 p. m. on Sunday and 6 a. m. on Mondays.

Time spent in attending professional classes will count as work time and the youngsters will be entitled to 16 days of vacation a year.

Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler proclaimed a general amnesty for persons charged with minor common offenses committed before today. The proclamation was issued to commemorate Austrian-German union, effected March 13.

VIENNA PAPER DEMANDS SEIZURE OF PRINCE'S LAND

VIENNA, May 1.—(AP)—The Voelkischer Beobachter today demands expropriation of 13 castles with 18,000 acres of land from Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg which it said had been taken from Protestants and peasants hundreds of years ago.

The paper argued that part of the property adjoins Czechoslovakia and therefore "we cannot tolerate possession of huge forests on a dangerous border by a notorious enemy," adding that Von Starhemberg's mother, Princess Fanny, and his brothers were unfit and unworthy to take over the management of the estates.

The prince, former vice chancellor and once leader of a private army, the Fascist Heimwehr, was reported to have taken refuge in Switzerland after the March 13 Austro-German anschluss.

Swedish Minister Praises Spirit of Anglo-Irish Pact

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 1.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Richard Sandler in a May day speech today held up the Anglo-Irish agreement of last Monday as an example of the superiority of negotiation over force in settling diplomatic differences. He recommended that other nations take note "of the surprisingly complete way in which causes of irritation and discomfort have been removed."

VIOLENCE FLARES AMONG POLISH MAY DAY CROWDS

1 Killed, 12 Injured in One Street Fight.

BY DONALD DAY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

RIGA, Latvia, May 1.—Serious riots occurred in a number of Polish cities during May day demonstrations today. Police used guns and clubs against parading Socialist organizations. It was reported officially that one person was killed and upwards of a hundred injured during the fighting. There were more than 100 arrests.

In Kielce hecklers goaded paraders into a street battle in which a man was killed and twelve were injured. The largest riot was at Lwow where Socialists and Nationalists clashed. Students attacked a Socialist procession, throwing petards. Fifty persons were injured before order was restored.

Two persons were wounded seriously in Warsaw when a bomb exploded in the main square in the Jewish quarter a few minutes before a Jewish Socialist procession was to pass.

Ten persons were injured in fights at Poznan. In that city the leader of the Young Nazi German party appealed for unity to all German speaking people in Poland.

Reds Parade in Rain.

MOSCOW, May 1.—(AP)—Soviet Russia paraded her armed might in rain-swept Red square today in the annual observance of international labor day.

Troops, guns, tanks, and planes passed in review before the tomb of Lenin where Dictator Joseph Stalin stood with other soviet chieftains.

There was only one speech—by Klementi E. Voroshilov, commissar of war, who spoke after new conscripts among the troops recited the oath of allegiance after him. Voroshilov declared the soviet ship of state piloted by Stalin "seeks neither international adventures nor sinking by enemies within, who are being ruthlessly exterminated."

Show Mechanized War Machines.

Thousands of troops were followed by a mass of perhaps a million men, women and children. Besides the army display of manpower there was a show of mechanized equipment. Three fast tanks raced across the square in the wake of 200 cannon of various types from anti-aircraft to siege guns. They were followed by 245 other tanks, ranging in size from whippets to land dreadnaughts. An armada of 417 planes flew overhead.

Banners of flaming red floated from the fronts of buildings around the square with the slogan "workers of the world, unite" in a half dozen languages. The military parade, which began at 10 a. m., took an hour to pass through the square.

DOUBLE PAY REWARDS MEXICANS WHO MARCH IN MAY DAY PARADES

MEXICO CITY, May 1.—(AP)—A military motif replaced last year's sports theme in today's May day celebration by the Mexican Confederation of Workers.

An estimated 100,000 persons marched in the annual parade, at least 30,000 of whom wore army-like uniforms. One detachment of 1,000 carried wooden guns. Overall blue was the favored color for the uniforms, with a sprinkling of khaki and white. The spectators gave greatest attention to trimly garbed units of feminine militia.

Spirits were high among parading workers because they knew they would get double wages for today. The labor department had ruled that the coincidence of Sunday and the legal holiday required employers to pay double. The department overruled a protest of the Employers' association. The Railway Workers' union, starting at midnight tonight to operate the Mexican National Railways system, expropriated from semi-private ownership last June, announced freight rates would be increased, especially for mineral shipments. The railway administration said rates charged to mines were "100 per cent" below operating costs.

VIENNA MAY DAY RECONSTRUCTED IN HITLER STYLE

VIENNA, May 1.—(AP)—Nazi organizations, favored by bright sunshine, today celebrated their first Hitler May day.

Parading through the decorated Ringstrasse, Vienna's big circular boulevard, hundreds of thousands of Nazis shouted "Sieg Heil!" [Hail victory] and listened to Reichsfuehrer Hitler's broadcast from Berlin. Of 4,000 May trees in the city, 130 were thick pines shipped from Bavaria. These stood in Hero square to symbolize Austro-German unity.

The Nazis said today's was the first May day parade in Vienna since the world war without machine guns hidden in barbed wire in the side streets to suppress possible outbreaks.

AID FOR CZECHS MEANS WAR, NAZI LEADER WARNS

We Will Fight to Retain Liberty, Patriots Cry.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, May 1.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia's German minority today made renewed demands for concessions while Czechoslovaks were pledged to "fight to the last drop of blood" to retain liberty as both used May day to demonstrate their national unity. Anti-Nazi Germans promised to join the Czechs in defending the nation.

Konrad Henlein.

Konrad Henlein, Nazi leader of the nation's 3,500,000 Germans, called for a plebiscite on the minority issue and announced demands he made a week ago "represent not the maximum but the minimum of what is necessary to solve our national problems." He spoke to 40,000 persons in Gablonz, in northwest Czechoslovakia, and then delivered speeches in four other towns.

[Addressing a congress of the Sudeten German party, of which he is the head, Henlein last Sunday in Carlsbad submitted an eight point program in which he called for revision of the nation's foreign policy, self-government with Nazi principles for the German minority, and other concessions.]

Warns "Hands Off!"

He warned other nations not to support the Czechoslovaks, as such support could lead only to conflict.

"I suggest the Czech people be asked in a plebiscite whether they are forever to live on terms of strife with us Germans," Henlein said.

"Nobody has the right to regard my Carlsbad demands as a declaration of war unless he desires war rather than peace."

"Fight to Last Drop of Blood."

"Every Czech man and woman," he declared, "will fight to the last drop of blood for the retention of liberty."

At Carlsbad Wenzel Jaksch, a Socialist deputy, told his audience that "Nazilsm means war." After his speech 12,000 anti-Nazis milled in the streets shouting "Down with Henlein; down with Fascism."

At Podmokly, near the German border, Maj. Josef Kessler, a Social Democrat, declared "German Democrats in the border region will defend the state, together with Czechs, with their blood."

MAY DAY PARADE PASSES WITHOUT ANY DISTURBANCE

Nearly 30,000 men, women and children, carrying banners and singing, marched in their annual May day parade yesterday. There was no disturbance. More than 300 policemen lined the march. The parade started in Union park and moved east to Grant park, where a mass-meeting was held. The parade was grouped into four sections—labor organizations, language and racial groups, political groups, and unemployed associations. The C. I. O. was heaviest in the labor ranks. Communists and Socialists were also well represented.

Some of the banners carried slogans such as "Free Tom Mooney," "We Remember Memorial Day," "Wages Up, Hours Down," and "Make Chicago a Union Town." Police arrested three men for distributing radical literature. They were William Todd, 949 Madison street; Bobelis Jepil, 1408 Jackson boulevard, and Marion Perkins, 3606 Wabash avenue.

FRENCH PREMIER DRAFTS FIRST OF FINANCIAL LAWS

PARIS, May 1.—(AP)—Amid May day demonstrations of the labor masses, Premier Edouard Daladier today completed the draft of his first series of decrees for the financial reconstruction of France. The "strong man" premier, conferring with financial advisers at the war ministry, put finishing touches on the most pressing reforms to be submitted to the cabinet tomorrow. The decrees are designed to stimulate domestic production and reduce the budget deficit.

Workers, whose May day celebrations have been marked by rioting, observed the holiday with solemn processions in the rain in Paris and amid snow flurries in some sections of the nation. Labor unions held quiet demonstrations of strength in principal cities.

Hawkers of lilies of the valley, traditional good luck emblem of the French, added a holiday touch to the Paris demonstration.

LABORITES CLASH WITH FASCISTS IN LONDON PARADES

Hyde Park Crowds Hear Speakers by Dozen.

LONDON, May 1.—(AP)—Thousands of extra police curbed street fighting today between Fascists and Laborites in the largest May day demonstrations in the history of London.

Herbert Morrison Lashes British Policy.

Two hundred thousand persons went to Hyde park for a Labor party rally. Leaders of trade union groups spoke from sixteen platforms.

Sir Oswald Mosley's Fascist British union members marched by the thousands in another area of London. There were a number of fist fights during the Fascist parade and police arrested nine persons.

Chant "Chamberlain Must Go."

A dangerous situation developed when lines of Laborites, marching to Hyde Park, and of Fascists converged in Westminster outside the houses of parliament.

Exchanges of insults and taunts brought several isolated scuffles, but police, swarming about all the danger areas, prevented serious fighting.

"Chamberlain [Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain] must go" and "arms for Spain" were the most popular slogans in Hyde park.

Herbert Morrison, Laborite member of the house of commons, speaking in the park on the eve of parliamentary debate on Britain's accord with Italy, bitterly assailed the government's foreign policy.

Charges Sacrifice of Ethiopia.

He charged that the government "now cynically recognizes and almost encourages the continuance of the Italian and German invasion of Spain."

Morrison tomorrow in the house of commons will make a motion on behalf of the Labor party opposing the agreement "with a state actively engaged in wanton aggression in Spain. . . ." The motion also charges that the Anglo-Italian pact "sacrifices the people of Ethiopia and violates the spirit of the league of nations."

CAR AND 2 TRAINS CRASH; ONE DEAD, EIGHT ARE HURT

Highway trafic was snarled and service on the North Shore railroad was impaired for several hours late yesterday by an unusual accident involving an automobile and two trains of the North Shore line in North Chicago. The driver of the car, a woman, was killed and eight passengers on the train were injured slightly in the accident.

The accident occurred when the woman drove her automobile westward across the tracks at 15th street into the path of a southbound two-car North Shore train and was crushed to death under the onrushing train. The train was derailed and bounced along the ties a block south to 16th street, where it glanced off the west side of a northbound two coach train which was traveling at high speed.

Windows and Roof Smashed.

The windows and a section of roof of the northbound train were smashed and passengers were cut by flying glass. The northbound train was brought to a halt but the southbound train was thrown off the rails and half into a ditch. None of the passengers on the southbound train was hurt.

The injured on the northbound train were taken to St. Therese's hospital in Waukegan where they were released after receiving first aid. They were Mrs. Florence Givens, 112 Lake street, Evanston; Mrs. Cecelia Colby, 1015 Yeoman street, Waukegan; Miss Jeanette Pearson and Miss Ella Fultenberg, Antioch, Ill.; Miss Irma Warren, Ortonville, Minn.; Miss Mae Pope, Milwaukee, and Mrs. James Bruno and her son, Bobby, 3 years old, Racine, Wis.

Victim Is Mother of Seven.

Passengers on the southbound train were transferred to a relief train and taken into the loop. Northbound trains were able to proceed, but for several hours southbound trains had to be shuttled onto the northbound tracks for the five mile stretch between Edison court and North Chicago junction.

The driver of the car was Mrs. Amanda Oglesby, 45 years old, colored, who was the mother of seven children. She lived at 1940 Wallace street, North Chicago.

Jacob Novak, chief of police and school superintendent of North Chicago, said the 15th street crossing is one of the most dangerous in the town. There are no signals or gates and children attending the nearby Commonwealth school are imperiled as they cross the railroad tracks several times a day, he said.

DECREE FOR MINIMUM WAGES IN BRAZIL IS SIGNED BY PRESIDENT

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 1.—(AP)—President Getulio Vargas marked international Labor day today by signing a decree creating regional commissions charged with establishing minimum wages for all workers.

There will be a commission of not less than five nor more than eleven members in each of Brazil's twenty states, the far west territory of Acre and the federal district of Rio de Janeiro.

The decree defined a minimum wage as the remuneration for an adult worker of either sex for a normal day's service which would permit at a given time in a given region "the satisfaction of normal needs."

COURTS FORCE BOARD TO HALT LABOR COERCION

Retreat Spurs Demands for Fair Law.

acts to which both the coal control board and the labor board have now confessed.

Squelch Moves for Changes.

Despite the demands for overhauling the Wagner act to make it fair to employers, the Roosevelt administration remains adamant in opposition to any amendment. As a result the administration leaders in congress have squelched the movement for modification. They also have buried the resolution by Senator Edward R. Burke [D., Neb.] providing for an investigation of the labor board.

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg [R., Mich.] introduced in the senate ten months ago a series of amendments designed to make the Wagner act a two-sided instead of a one-sided law. He has been unable to procure even a hearing on his proposals by the senate committee on education and labor.

"We think it wiser to postpone consideration of such legislation until the Supreme court shall pass finally on the scope of the powers conferred on the labor board by the Wagner act," said Senator Thomas, chairman of the committee. "For that reason, there will be no consideration at the present session of proposed amendments to the Wagner act."

Senator Vandenberg retorted that the amendments he has proposed, had they been adopted, would have made the Wagner act as fair for employers as for labor and spared the labor board the humiliation it has suffered at the hands of the courts.

"If the administration," he tartly remarked, "wants to get away from legislation by the courts it must not prevent legislation by the legislature."

Decision Termed Significant.

Vandenberg attached the utmost significance to the Circuit court decision, quoting this passage therefrom:

"Respect for and support of the cause of labor follows labor's respect for its contract. The same bill of rights which through one section gives the just protection of labor, through another section protects the just rights of others. Overriding one will result in the overthrow of the entire bill of rights.

"From the labor point of view," the senator commented, "that is the meat in the coconut. Overriding the right of employers will result in the overthrow of the rights of others, including labor. To protect the right of collective bargaining it is necessary to mutualize the Wagner act. Otherwise the present trend inevitably will culminate in the complete federal control of labor relationships. That is the beginning of Fascism and the end of labor unionism.

"There is no doubt in the world that one of the major causes of the depression is the factor of uncertainty contributed by labor excesses under the Wagner act as validated first by the department of labor itself and then by the labor board in its one-sided conception of its responsibilities."

EXPECT RULING TODAY

Washington, D. C., May 1.—(AP)—The Supreme court, whose recent criticism of a governmental "short cut" has led the national labor relations board to reopen some of its major cases for further hearings, may rule tomorrow on a vital point of labor board policy.

The question before the court is whether workers who go on strike voluntarily sever their employment and hence are not entitled to the protection of the Wagner labor relations act.

This issue is posed in the Mackay Radio and Telegraph company case, brought before the high tribunal on the labor board's appeal from a ruling by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Springtime Note: Police Put on Light Uniforms

Penn G. O. P. Battles

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Mrs. Cornelia Pinchot, whose C. I. O. activities have made her useless to her husband's campaign for the Republican nomination as governor of Pennsylvania. Picture was taken in Flint, Mich., last year just before she spoke at C. I. O. hall during auto strike.

G. O. P. CAMPAIGN SHADED BY PENN DEMOCRATS' ROW

Comeback Is Attempted by Gifford Pinchot.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Harrisburg, Pa., May 1.—[Special.]—A Republican primary campaign is under way in Pennsylvania, but the bitter war between factions in the Democratic party that is piling up scandals against the administration of Gov. George H. Earle, has taken the spotlight.

Because of this scrap the Republicans believe they will be returned to power at the general election next November.

On the Republican side, Gifford Pinchot, twice governor, with a long, stormy political career behind him, is tilting for the gubernatorial nomination with Judge Arthur H. James, a widely known member of the Superior bench.

Davis Seeks Reëlection.

Seeking the Republican nomination and reëlection as senator is James J. Davis, known as Puddler Jim from his early days in the steel mills. Opposing him is G. Mason Owlett, state senator and Republican national committeeman. Little interest has developed in this campaign and a majority of the county leaders have not decided which way to jump.

Here in Harrisburg, Dauphin county's district attorney, Carl B. Shelley, worked overtime on the preparation of evidence of graft and corruption for a special grand jury that will meet May 11.

The jury will investigate charges that Gov. Earle took $30,000 [he has admitted receiving $26,500] in loans from Matthew H. McCloskey, political contractor, who later received 10 million dollars worth of the public works contracts, and that Senator Joseph F. Guffey is coercing WPA workers. Earle, who is running for the senatorial nomination, is heading a slate against a Guffey-C. I. O. ticket.

Earle Regime Discredited.

Republican strategists are convinced that the charges made by the Democrats have discredited the régime in power thoroughly and that Pennsylvania will be happy to swing back to its traditional Republicanism.

Pinchot who is 72 years old, entered the race early and started a vigorous campaign. He is enjoying support all over the state from former office holders in his administrations.

Bucking the early Pinchot start, Judge James recalls that, early in the Roosevelt administration, Pinchot congratulated the President on his various measures. In addition, the judge charges that Pinchot is backed secretly by John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O.

Farmers Dislike C. I. O.

The C. I. O. accusation is making the Pinchot forces squirm because the C. I. O. is extremely unpopular in farm areas where the former governor has drawn his greatest strength in the past.

Of no help to Pinchot these campaigning days is the fact that his wife, Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, has marched in C. I. O. picket lines. Mrs. Pinchot has been keeping quiet in recent months.

Public Service Co. Starts Electric Rate Reduction

A $720,000 annual reduction in electric light bills went into effect yesterday for 237,500 residential customers of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois in 345 communities and fourteen counties in northeastern Illinois. The company does not serve Chicago. The reduction ranges from 5.5 to 15 per cent on individual bills.

INDIANA MAYOR RAIDS PRINTERY; ARRESTS CRITICS

Three Face Trial on Libel Charges.

lawyer with him in court tomorrow. He believes Chief Swayze's bondsman is liable for the invasion.

"I don't think the people or the courts will stand for such tactics," Ewing said. "This will result in the defeat at the polls of Kimmel and his candidate for the mayoral nomination, Claude Hill."

The law passed last year prohibits the publication of false material which would expose any political candidate to ridicule. Penalties provided are a fine of from $300 to $1,000, up to one year imprisonment, or both, plus disqualification for public office or public employment for four years.

What Law Provides.

This law, citizens found, makes it a criminal offense to publish any matter which "would expose any person to hatred, contempt, or ridicule . . . for the purpose of intimidating, influencing, inducing, or procuring any person to vote or refrain from voting for any person at any election or primary election."

Mayor Kimmel in defending the raid said the published matter was false and therefore libelous under this law. Kimmel is nearing the end of his second four year term. Previously he was Vincennes city attorney and prosecuting attorney of Knox county.

TWO OFFICIALS FLEE

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Jeffersonville, Ind., May 1.—[Special.]—Two Clark county officials are fugitives from Sherif Hal K. Hughes who has been on their trail since Thursday on charges they sought to coerce WPA workers to vote an organization county slate in next Tuesday's Indiana primaries.

The men accused of intimidating WPA and county employes with threats of loss of bread and meat unless they voted right are Ernest Davis, county highway supervisor, and Hurst Jolly, chief clerk in the WPA office.

The case has evoked wide interest in its possible influence upon the fight in November between Senator Frederick Van Nuys and the McNutt-Minton-Townsend Democratic state machine which seeks to cast him into outer darkness for opposing the Roosevelt court packing bill.

Penalties for Threats.

Davis and Jolly are accused of violating a law passed to protect the purity of elections. It provides penalties for violence, threats or restraints. In next Tuesday's primaries the senatorship is not directly involved, as nominations for state-wide offices are made in state conventions, delegates to which are elected Tuesday. But if the action here brings punishment for WPA coercion, friends of Van Nuys surmise it may open the way for similar action later on if the squeeze is put on WPA workers in the senatorship election next fall.

Van Nuys has announced he will run as an independent candidate, it being impossible for him to buck the McNutt-Minton-Townsend machine in the state convention.

The fight here is over a ticket of Clark county officers. The explosion over WPA pressure was touched off by James L. Bottorff, former Clark county prosecuting attorney, now a candidate for nomination for judge of the Circuit court.

Workers informed him that Davis, described as a machine politician, and Jolly had been approaching WPA workers. The pair were pushing a slate of seven candidates headed by the name of Judge George C. Kopp of the Circuit court, who is running for a third term. PWA workers said the two politicians visited two WPA crews in Oregon township and another at Charleston Landing, and had the men copy the seven names on cards, intimating that unless they voted right their names would go off pay rolls.

Affidavits were filed charging Davis and Jolly with violating the law concerning slates, which says they must be filed over the names of ten legal voters.

Attorney Quotes Law.

Mr. Bottorff in a radio speech, without mentioning names, told what was happening, and read the election law passages. These provide a fine of $20 to $1,000, imprisonment for one to five years, and disfranchisement and incapability to hold office, for any one threatening to injure the trade or business of a voter.

Directly to the point, Bottorff said, was a clause providing these penalties for any one who "if an employer of laborers or an agent of such employer, threatens to withhold the wages of or to dismiss from service any laborer in his employment."

Next day with a WPA worker, Harry Hollkamp, as complaining witness, warants were taken out against Davis and Jolly. They were charged with circulating a slate to intimidate voters of Clark county. Sherif Hughes went out to make the arrests, but the two had fled.

Today Sherif Hughes, in his office in this sleepy river town, not far from the spot where George Rogers Clark spent his final years and some six miles from New Albany, home of Senator Sherman Minton, proposer of a press muzzler bill, said he was still searching.

"Been looking for Davis and Jolly since Thursday," he said. "Looks like they ducked out. Jolly's home's been dark since Thursday night, and I can't find Davis at Hamburg, his home."

It has been variously reported that the two men are in Louisville or Chicago or Cincinnati or Tennessee.

33 MASSIVE GATES ARE LOWERED; ALTON DAM IS PUT IN OPERATION

Alton, Ill., May 1.—(AP)—Thirty-three masive gates were lowered at the $8,800,000 Alton dam today. Behind the dam Alton lake will be formed as the water in the upper river rises sufficiently to provide a constant nine foot channel for navigation—the reason for the dam's construction. Col. Malcolm Elliott of the army engineers corps pressed electrical switches which lowered the gates.

BUILDING CODE IN SHAPE TO BE PASSED QUICKLY

Depends on Limiting of Council Hearings.

Chicago's new building code, now in draft form, can be enacted by the city council in short order if the aldermen continue their announced policy of cutting short arguments of interests seeking special privileges under the code.

This view was expressed yesterday by F. J. Thielbar, architect and chairman of the committee of sixty-eight experts appointed two years ago by Mayor Kelly to draft the new code. The committee was composed also of engineers, technicians, and representatives of a number of scientific and engineering societies.

Materials Men Slow It.

Hearings on chapters of the code already approved have been protracted by lengthy arguments by representatives of numerous manufacturers of building materials, who sought either the approval of their materials for specific uses or the inclusion of permitted specifications favorable to such materials.

"A building code is written for the protection of the public," said Thielbar. "That means the people who are to occupy buildings and the people who are to invest their money in them.

"The material people have their rights, too, but they have already had twenty times the consideration they are entitled to, in some instances. The facts about these materials are not obscure. There is a vast fund of information, based on tests by independent engineering societies and laboratories, as to the suitability of different materials for different building uses. There is little room for difference of opinion on these tests, and no excuse for arguing against them."

To Be National Model.

Inasmuch as most other large cities in the United States are in the same position as Chicago, having neglected to revise their building codes for years, the Chicago code, when completed, will be a model for the nation, Thielbar predicted.

The code was last revised in 1911. There has been so much engineering progress in the last quarter century, he said, that it would not have been worth while to have attempted a revision of the old code. So much knowledge has been gained on building materials and methods that it was easier to write a new code.

As an example of progress in building methods since the last code revision, Thielbar cited elevators. There is not a single type of elevator in use when the 1911 revision was made which is now put into new buildings. To fit the code to new elevator types it was necessary to prepare a new chapter on the subject.

Saving on Concrete Costs.

Engineering information on reënforced concrete was fragmentary twenty-five years ago. The chapter on use of this material has already been approved by the city council, and in the first building in which the new specifications were applied there was a saving of 20 per cent on concrete costs, he said.

Another advantage of writing a new code instead of rewriting an old one was that it was possible to collect and organize material formerly scattered through different chapters of the code. An example of this organization is the new chapter on means of exit.

Location of stairways has always been a vexing problem to architects. The proposed code provides a set of simple rules, based on certain maximum distances of travel necessary to reach a stairway. In a fireproof building this distance may be up to 100 feet, in combustible types as low as 25 feet. Results of the new rules, Mr. Thielbar said, will be greater safety for occupants of buildings and lower insurance costs to owners.

REBUILT CHURCH IS DEDICATED BY MUNDELEIN

The Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Central Park avenue and 22d street, which has been rebuilt at a cost of more than $200,000, was dedicated with solemn ceremonies yesterday by Cardinal Mundelein. The cardinal was met in procession at the door of the church by the pastor, the Rev. R. J. O'Brien, and other ceremonial dignitaries and escorted into the edifice.

Assisting the cardinal in the dedication were the Revs. Joseph Heldmann, Donald Carroll, and Patrick J. Hayes. At the solemn mass which followed the dedication, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard S. Kelly was celebrant. The sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis A. Purcell, pastor of St. Mel's church.

ELOISE SPANN.

Hollywood, Cal., May 1.—[Special.]—Counsel for pretty Eloise Spann, 21 years old, a singer and dancer, who charges she was attacked by Milton Beecher, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer dance director, tomorrow will seek a court order to force a deposition from Beecher.

Miss Spann has sued Beecher, M.-G.-M., and fifty unidentified codefendants for $5,000,000 as a result of the alleged attack, which she said took place when she was lured to Beecher's apartment on promise that she would be given an audition for a singing part in a movie.

A second set of depositions will be asked by Brown from doctors who purportedly performed an operation on Miss Spann after the alleged attack, the attorney said. Miss Spann charged yesterday that she was forced to undergo the operation and that her health had been wrecked as a result.

RUSSIAN DUCHESS TO WED KAISER'S GRANDSON THRICE

Two Ceremonies to Be Held Today.

POTSDAM, Germany, May 1.—(AP)—If broken china means luck, Grand Duchess Kira of the Romanoffs and Prince Ferdinand of the Hohenzollerns should have plenty in their wedded life.

As festivities began in honor of their marriage tomorrow, they received word that an airplane carrying a present of china out of Spain was disabled by Spanish government warcraft.

The china had been dispatched by Col. L. Ruiz de Valdivia, formerly a chamberlain in former King Alfonso's court and one time Spanish military attaché in Berlin.

The grand duchess is a daughter of the Grand Duke Cyril, pretender to the lost throne of the czar and Prince Louis Ferdinand is a son of the former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm of Germany. The prince once was a mechanic in a Ford factory in Detroit.

They will be married twice tomorrow, first in a civil ceremony to be performed by the marriage clerk of Potsdam, and then in Cecilienhof castle according to the rites of the Russian Orthodox church.

A Protestant ceremony will be performed Wednesday in the home of the prince's grandfather, former Kaiser Wilhelm, at Doorn, the Netherlands.

ONE HAYMARKET VETERAN HOLDS REUNION ALONE

Other Remaining Survivor Too Ill to Attend.

Since 1908, when he was elected president of the Haymarket Riot Veterans' association, former Police Captain Frank P. Tyrrell of Oak Park has missed only two reunions.

Yesterday, for the group's annual meeting prior to the 52d anniversary Wednesday of the historic riot, Capt. Tyrrell, now nearly 80, appeared as usual. But he was alone.

For the last two years Capt. Tyrrell has had a comrade at his reunion. But George W. Roycraft, the only other surviving member of the association, was ill yesterday in his home at 323 Diversey parkway. Now 91, he had attended the reunions diligently since a stalwart of 39.

Sent to Quell Uprising.

The two veterans, with 175 fellow policemen, were sent to quell the anarchist uprising in old Haymarket square on May 4, 1886. At anniversary reunions the surviving comrades have compared memories of the subsequent horror of that night, of how a bomb whirred through the crowded square, killing eight policemen and wounding seventy-four.

Yesterday the captain reminisced alone. Standing on the rickety old steps of the Des Plaines street police station, from which he marched forth 52 years ago with a rifle he did not know how to use, he pointed north.

Hit in Back of Head.

"It was right up there, in the alley where that big brick building is," he indicated. "The bomb dropped right behind my company. I was hit in the back of the head and the base of the spine. The man standing to my left was killed.

"All during the day of the fourth of May they had handbills circulated, headed 'Revenge—to arms, brothers, to arms.' That night—it was a warm, spring one just like this—the trouble came.

"Well," and the old captain, his white hair shining in the sun, sighed. "We used to send out 100 postcards every month telling the boys about the meeting. Now we send them just once a year. Last week we just sent out one. And he, George, couldn't come."

CONDUCT CHURCH SERVICES AT SEA FOR ROOSEVELT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Charleston, S. C., May 1.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt sat under a hot sun on the aft deck of the cruiser Philadelphia in the Caribbean sea this morning to attend religious service, while officers of the ship and members of the crew stood in rows behind him. Services were conducted by Commander John W. Moore, the ship's chaplain.

The new 10,000 ton warship, making its first cruise, left this port yesterday and headed in the general direction of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, but the President is not expected to stop there. Mr. Roosevelt probably will toss a line overside tomorrow from one of the Philadelphia's small boats to try his luck with his fishing tackle in the vicinity of Silver bank.

Nominally the cruise is under command of Capt. Jules James, but the President, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, can send the vessel wherever he pleases to travel. The captain set his course today toward the West Indies and tonight was 700 miles from Charleston, making 21 knots in a calm sea.

A PERFECT DAY IS PROVIDED FOR MAY 1 MOVERS

Thousands of householders thanked the weather man for a perfect spring day yesterday, because it was May 1. To many folks May 1 means moving day. Often the bare mention of May 1 is enough to fill the sky with rain clouds.

Moving vans were seen in almost every section of the city. The annual spring moving rush is expected to continue today. Forecaster C. A. Donnel said the weather would be cloudy and warmer, with showers by afternoon or night.

MIDDLE AGE

By CALEB

IN APPRAISING the importance of youth to the nation and the world, sometimes the folks just on the far side of youth are overlooked. Youth, of course, is important—its training, protection, and establishment in the economic system are vital. High school, college, business, a new home and family—these things are important. But if we leave our thought and planning there, we pause too soon.

Not all of life's problems are solved by the time a thirty-fifth birthday comes, nor do all the troubles that beset old age begin precisely at sixty years. Ofttimes that period loosely described as "middle age" is more difficult and critical for the individual than any other.

It is the period in which youthful idealism and enthusiasm begin to wane. Therein one discovers that the white charger upon which he rode out to challenge the world needs oats. The suit of shining armor is heavy, and a bit rusty from storms encountered. The thirty-five year old is learning that education delivered to him in neatly bound, clearly labeled packages may not have contained everything the formula said it did.

With all respect for youth, and for full maturity, middle-aged men and women carry the bulk of life's burdens—some of them cruelly exacting and many of them disagreeable. There is an added sharpness of demand for achievement here, too. With youth there is always time; with maturity the record has been written. But middle age is on the battlefield—daily, with little time for dreams—and no quarter asked or given.

It is a dangerous age intellectually, with a vital decision to be made between stagnation and further mental growth. It is the period when hardening of the ideas often sets in. A careful mental diet and calisthenics are strongly indicated.

These same middle-aged people have the most direct and sustained contact with youth. Their ideas and concepts inevitably tincture the outlook of the coming generation. In large measure they provide the education and economic security youth requires for fullest development.

And so, when society counts its assets, the men and women on the other side of youth stand high in the list. If they do their job and do it well, the present—and the future—are secure.

ILLINOIS RELIEF BILL FOR 7 YEARS OVER A BILLION

Survey Is Prompted by Demand for Reform.

Funds spent in Illinois for relief purposes since Jan. 1, 1932, will amount to more than a billion dollars by the end of this year, it is estimated. This figure was arrived at by a survey yesterday of expenditures of the Illinois Emergency Relief commission [IERC], the Works Progress administration, and its predecessor, the Civil Works administration. Omitted were the semi-relief agencies such as the Public Works administration and Civilian Conservation corps.

The survey was prompted by the new plan to place the spending of $8,000,000 a month on a more business-like basis. Gov. Horner is considering recommendations to create a state division of public assistance which would absorb the IERC and other state agencies handling old age assistance, and pensions for dependent children, mothers, and the blind. The changes are urged in a report by a council of eleven leaders of Illinois business and industry which was submitted to Gov. Horner Saturday.

Relief Becomes Big Business.

For the seven year period since relief became big business in the size of expenditures if not in efficiency, the total by the end of this year will be $1,055,034,058. Spending in 1938 is estimated on the basis of the first quarter; this figure may be high, but even if there is a substantial decline during the summer the seven year total will top the billion mark.

It means that relief alone has cost twice as much as the annual farm income of Illinois or Iowa, three times as much as the annual farm income of Wisconsin or Indiana, and four times the farm income of Michigan. Although three-fourths of this sum came from the federal government, it represents taxes paid—and yet to be paid—in full measure by Illinoisans.

Where Money Is Raised.

Illinois' direct payments toward relief came from bond issues founded upon the state gasoline tax, the 2 per cent and later the 3 per cent sales taxes, and local pauper taxes on property.

A tabulation of the expenditures follows, last three ciphers omitted:

Year.	Direct Relief.	Civil Works Administration.	Works Progress Administration.	Total.
1932..	$ 42,570	....	....	$ 42,570
1933..	79,132	$10,631	....	89,763
1934..	108,115	46,731	....	154,846
1935..	121,396	....	$ 26,414	147,811
1936..	52,578	....	136,640	189,218
1937..	59,361	....	101,755	161,117
1938..	71,602	....	198,107	269,710
	$534,755	$57,362	$462,917	$1,055,034

Relief has become a chronic rather than an acute ailment of government in a short time, as history is measured.

The Cook county joint emergency relief fund set out in October, 1931, to raise $8,800,000 by private subscription. Needs increased so rapidly that midway in the campaign the goal was changed to $10,000,000, and $10,600,000 was actually subscribed—the largest amount ever realized in any charity campaign.

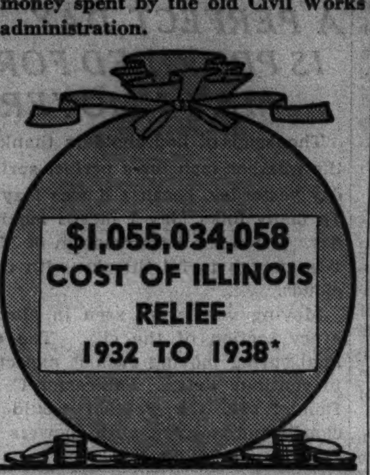
It was seen that private endeavor could not cope with the situation. The IERC was created by act of legislature Feb. 6, 1932, and a $20,000,000 bond issue was provided for. That was the start of the present status of relief as big business.

Old age assistance, a joint federal-state enterprise, arrived late in Illinois, getting under way here in 1936. It is frankly a permanent fixture. For this reason the OAA expenditures of about $50,000,000 from the beginning through 1938 were not included in the table, although aid is given on the basis of need.

Relief Told in Corn

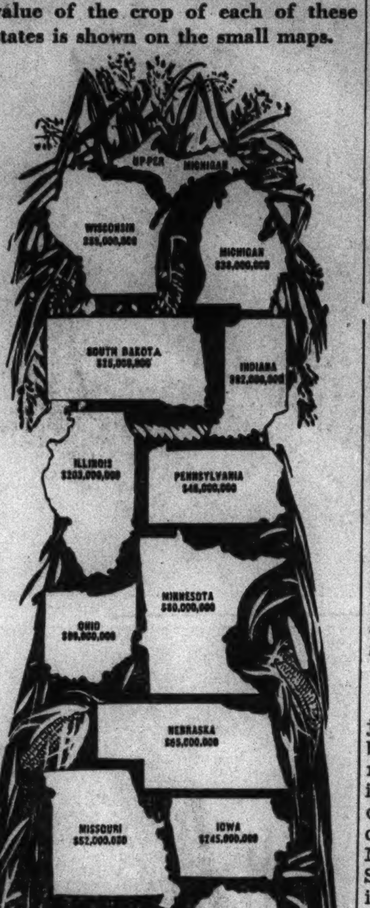
(Story in adjoining column.)

Bag of money representing seven years' cost of relief in Illinois, including direct relief, Works Progress administration expenditures, and money spent by the old Civil Works administration.



*The total includes a 1938 estimate based on actual expenditures during the first three months of the year.

These relief expenditures almost exactly equal the value of the corn crop in twelve states in 1935. The value of the crop of each of these states is shown on the small maps.



BOY OF 10 RIDES TO HIS DEATH ON A RUNNING BOARD

Coupe Upsets in Ditch; Pins Him Underneath.

A small boy riding on the running board of a coupé was killed yesterday when the automobile overturned in a ditch and pinned him underneath at Central avenue and 102d street, Oak Lawn. He was David Kennedy, 10 years old, 10738 Langley avenue. The car driver was Miss Dorothy Forsell, 16 years old, 6229 South Talman avenue. With her were the Kennedy boy's sister Margaret, 16, and Norman Mautner, 18, of 2600 Garfield boulevard, all of whom were bruised.

Daniel Mahaffey, 33 years old, 610 Mason street, Joliet, was fatally injured yesterday when he was thrown out of an automobile which went out of control on a curve on U. S. route 20, five miles east of Elgin. Mahaffey was an attendant at the Elgin State hospital. The driver of the car, Lloyd Irish, 25, of Elgir, was bruised.

Held in Auto Death Inquiry.

Louis Gamache, secretary and vice president of Service Printers, Inc., 701 South La Salle street, was held last night for investigation into the death yesterday of Thomas Smith.

Smith, 70 years old, was struck and killed at Madison and Des Plaines streets after he had left his room in the Ironside hotel at 661 Madison street. Two cavalrymen from Fort Sheridan gave police the license number of the car, which was traced to Gamache. Gamache and his wife said he had not left the house since early Saturday evening.

Samuel Green, 36 years old, colored, 3621 South Park avenue, died in the County hospital last night of injuries suffered Friday when he was struck by an automobile as he was walking across South Park avenue at 33d street. The driver was Vincent Saunders, 49, of 6725 Evans avenue.

Four Injured in Collision.

Two men and two women were injured last night when their automobiles collided at Skokie boulevard and route 173, west of Libertyville. The injured are Edward Anderson, 56 years old, head of the Lake county relief office in Waukegan, and his assistant, Miss Claire Effinger, 52, of 145 South Sheridan road, Waukegan, who were in one car, and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Young of Milwaukee in the other machine. The Youngs were on their honeymoon. All were taken to Waukegan hospitals.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 288 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these, 228 were killed in Chicago, where 5,644 were injured in the same period.

City Joins Restaurant Week Observance Today

National Restaurant week, promoted each year in an effort to induce more husbands to take their wives out for dinner occasionally, opens today. Chicago restaurateurs are coöperating with 50,000 others in the United States and Canada to acquaint the public with advancements made in scientific and sanitary preparation of wholesome meals.

HERE'S TALE OF 2 BOYS, ONE A HERO AND ONE A THIEF

Fleeing Robber Caught as He Slugs Pursuer.

This is the story of two boys who graduated from grade school about a year ago. Both boys started to high school, and then stopped after a few months.

One of them, James Laden, 17 years old, went to work in a neighborhood grocery to help his family. The other, Oscar Suhr Jr., 16, joined other idlers near his home at 2234 Geneva terrace.

Suhr's father thought he was still attending school until the police arrested him a few months ago for trying to sell some coins stolen in a north side burglary. Then the father learned his son was a truant, and agreed to making him a ward of the juvenile court.

Sees Thief Under Car.

Early yesterday, returning from a corner store, young Laden saw someone lying under an automobile in front of his uncle's home at 2478 Orchard street, removing two flood lights from the front bumper. In the last two weeks thieves on three occasions had stolen accessories from the car.

Running into the house Laden told his uncle, Leo C. Moran, a private investigator. They reached the street just as the thief crawled from under the car and sprinted into an alley, with Laden close behind him.

About 150 feet from the alley entrance Laden brought his quarry to earth with a flying tackle. The thief struck at him with a heavy wrench, momentarily breaking Laden's grasp.

Hit on Head with Wrench.

But as he started to flee again Laden brought him down with another tackle. Again the robber swung his heavy wrench, hitting Laden's head, but the injured boy held on until his uncle arrived and subdued the battling robber.

Taken to the Sheffield avenue station the young robber identified himself as Suhr. He was turned over to the juvenile authorities.

Laden, who lives at 632 Deming place, was taken to the Alexian Brothers hospital. Physicians found he had a 3 inch skull fracture, but said he probably would recover.

Des Moines Mayor, Elected for 3d Term, Dies Suddenly

Des Moines, Ia., May 1.—(AP)—Dwight N. Lewis, 68 years old, who began his third term as the city's mayor only a month ago, died unexpectedly of a heart attack early today. He complained of feeling ill last evening after attending the Drake relays in the afternoon.

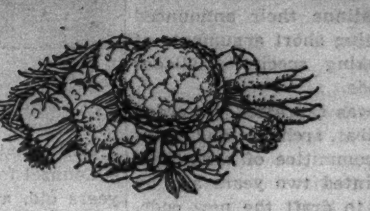
CURED INSANITY PATIENTS TO JOIN SELF-HELP GROUP

Edward F. Dombrowski, managing officer of the Chicago State hospital, said yesterday that patients of the hospital who have been cured by shock treatment soon will be organized into a group to aid their rehabilitation and to combat public prejudice.

Mr. Dombrowski spoke at a meeting in the Illinois Research hospital of seventy-five former patients of the psychiatric institute of the University of Illinois. The group organized a month ago and will serve as a pattern for the Chicago State hospital group. All seventy-five were successfully treated for dementia praecox or manic-depression by insulin or metrazol shock.

Leaders of the group will meet within a week to adopt bylaws and elect officers, according to Dr. Abraham A. Low, assistant director of the institute, who presided.

VEGETABLES



Nature's greatest source of essential food-minerals is choice, crisp, fresh vegetables. Thompson's recognize this and provide, all year 'round, the most delicious fresh vegetables the market affords. We get them locally, in season—and from the Coast and Gulf States, out of season. We prepare them skillfully and price them modestly.

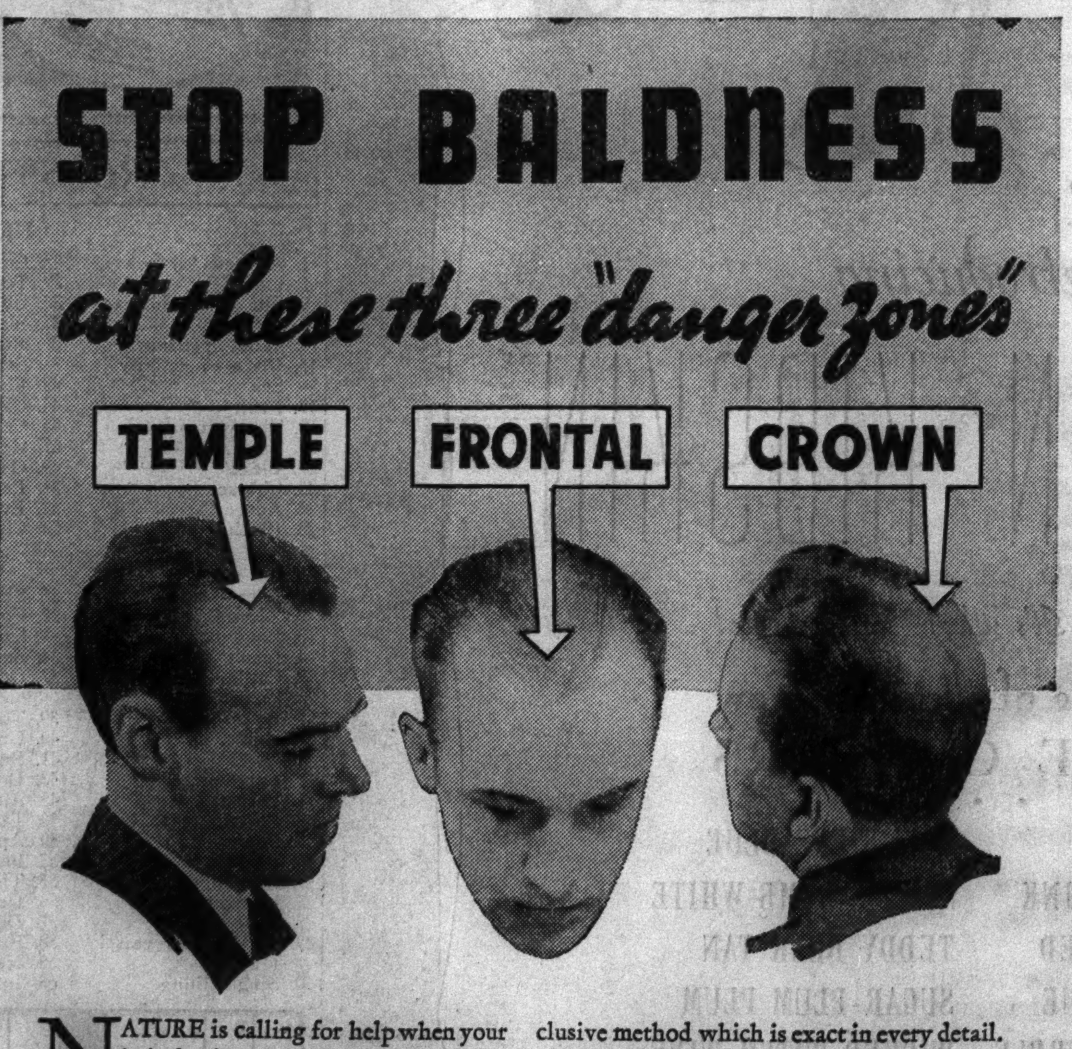
STOP BALDNESS
at these three "danger zones"



NATURE is calling for help when your hair begins to thin at the temples, frontal points or crown. Thinning hair at these points, or dandruff-infected, itchy scalp should warn you that your scalp needs immediate attention to prevent further hair loss. Heed these positive warnings and have The Thomas' correct the scalp disorder that is causing your abnormal hair loss.

Thomas' scalp treatment ends dandruff, stops falling hair, and promotes normal hair growth—not by old fashioned hit or miss means—but by an exclusive method which is exact in every detail. The treatment is basically sound in that it supplies the functioning stimuli of which the scalp has been deprived through modern living conditions. It thus results in healthy, growing hair.

The Thomas' will not accept you for treatment unless they feel reasonably sure that you will obtain satisfactory results. Call at the nearest Thomas' office today, where a skilled trichologist will gladly examine your hair and scalp without charge. He will frankly tell you what Thomas' treatment can do to help you retain or regain your hair. Remember—the examination is free.

SLUM DWELLER CAN'T PAY U. S. HOUSING RENTS

Building Cost Is Higher than Private Projects.

BY JOSEPH ATOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 1.—[Special.]—If Nathan Straus, administrator of the United States Housing authority, ever has nightmares, an indiscreet rarebit may sometime conjure up before him a recording angel who will require him to take both sides of a debate between Nathan Straus, the private housing developer, and Nathan Straus, the federal housing spender.

The issue in that debate would be that for every dollar which Mr. Straus spent privately to house one self-supporting family in the Bronx, New York, he now plans to spend $1.57 to house one family subsidized by federal and local taxpayers in his new USHA projects—projects so costly that there is little chance that any real slum dweller, even with the subsidies, can afford to live in them.

Operated to Make Profit.

A principal reason why Mr. Straus received his present appointment from President Roosevelt was his success in building Hillside Homes, a limited dividend housing project in the Bronx. Except that it was able to borrow money at 4 per cent from the Public Works administration, the Hillside Housing corporation was unsubsidized, and was financed and is operated as a profitmaking venture.

It was not a slum clearance project, nor was it intended for slum dwellers. Its rents average $11 a room, and its tenants come from the middle income classes.

The standards at Hillside Homes are higher, in a number of respects, than the more expensive Public Works administration housing projects which Mr. Straus inherited from Administrator Harold L. Ickes and now is managing. Room sizes are appreciably larger. Bedrooms, as an example, are 14 or 15 by 12 feet, as against 10 by 10 or 11 by 11 in most PWA projects.

Wading Pools for Children.

Abundant recreation and other community facilities are provided, including a nursery school, community auditorium, playgrounds, and wading pools for smaller children, and basement workshops where tenants may tinker and carry on their hobbies.

All of these features add to building costs. Nevertheless, at Hillside Mr. Straus built an average family dwelling unit at an overall cost of $3,876. Rooms average about 3.7 to the dwelling unit, making the overall room cost $1,109.

Then Mr. Straus came to Washington. His first five USHA projects were announced March 17. They will cost $18,798,722, his staf estimates, and will house 3,077 families, making the average overall cost per dwelling unit $6,109, or 157 per cent of the Hillside cost.

Make Room Cost $1,570.

The number of rooms to be built has not been announced, but they will average about 3.9 to the dwelling unit, USHA authorities say. This would make the overall room cost an average of $1,570, or 141 per cent of the Hillside room cost.

Whereas the Hillside tenants are self-supporting and expect to pay for what they get, the tenants in the new federal projects will be heavily subsidized. Annual federal subsidies and local tax exemptions, on the first projects announced, will amount to 148 per cent of carrying and amortizing the entire cost of building them.

In so far as construction costs go, every comparative advantage lies with the USHA projects. Three of them are to be built in the south, and the other two in Syracuse, N. Y., and Youngstown, O., where material and labor costs are lower than in New York City.

Held for Future Development.

Cost of land does not explain the wide spread in costs. Hillside Homes were built on vacant land, but it cost 70 cents a square foot. In the five USHA projects 81 per cent of the dwelling units will be on slum sites, and 19 per cent on vacant sites. Land costs will average between 71 and 73 cents a square foot, depending on a choice between two sites of slightly different area in Syracuse and the inclusion in the cost total of vacant land held for future development in Austin.

One advantage which Private Builder Straus enjoyed over Public Spender Straus was that in the former capacity he was able to pick his own staf. As USHA administrator he inherited not only the extravagantly constructed projects of the PWA, but the staf which, under Administrator Ickes, was responsible for that extravagance. When USHA opened its doors, 1,404 PWA housing division employés were transferred to it.

That the PWA gospel of disregard for construction costs has been carried to USHA by this staf is indicated in part by the fact that the estimated average dwelling unit cost for the first five USHA projects, $6,109, is within a few dollars of the average for all PWA projects, $6,189.

Two Flyers Killed Trying to Avert Crash in Midair

An airplane pilot and his passenger were killed yesterday afternoon when their private ship crashed into a prairie north of 79th street, a block east of Cicero avenue, while maneuvering to avoid colliding with another plane in the air. The force of the plunge, from an altitude of 300 feet, imbedded the motor of the wrecked ship three feet in the marshy field.

Donald Dutt [top] and William Hillman.

The victims were Donald Dutt, 36 years old, of 2356 East 70th street, an private pilot for ten years, and William V. Hillman, 23, of 126 South Central avenue. They were still alive when police extricated them from the wreckage but died soon after they were taken to the Little Company of Mary hospital.

Dutt's plane was a two seater Rearwin Sportster which he had purchased a few weeks ago and kept in a hangar at the Ashburn airport, 8401 South Cicero avenue. He and Hillman took off from the airport early in the afternoon and after an hour's flying started to land at the airport.

About 400 yards ahead of them, at the same height, was a plane piloted by Manny Rosen, member of a flying club, who was also about to land.

Dutt apparently decided to give Rosen the right of way into the field. Dutt is believed to have throttled his motor and banked in a steep turn to avoid Rosen's ship. Apparently, according to observers, he had cut his power too low and his engine stopped. This sent his plane into a spin and into the ground nose first.

There was no fire when Dutt's ship crashed. All the fuselage except the tail assembly was wrecked, fabric was torn fron the wings, and the gasoline tanks, split open, were forced from their supports. Rosen made a safe landing.

Dutt's wife, Edith, was at his bedside in the hospital when he died. He was employed by the National Decorating service, 4037 South Michigan avenue. Hillman, who was a student pilot, operated a currency exchange at Madison street and Western avenue.

FIND EX-CONVICT SHOT; ESTRANGED WIFE ARRESTED

Frank Kohler, 43 years old, 2536 North Sacramento avenue, an ex-convict, was shot twice early today and perhaps fatally wounded in a myterious attack in the 1700 block North Ashland avenue. North Racine avenue police seized his estranged wife, Mrs. Adelaide Chesney, 38 years old, who runs a tavern at 1708 North Ashland avenue. She uses her maiden name.

Kohler was found wounded in front of the tavern and taken to the North Avenue hospital. A passerby found a revolver in front of the tavern. He later told police it was picked up by Mrs. Chesney. She admitted this, but said she gave it to some man.

Police arrested her and her son Raymond, 17. In an effort to force his release she said she had shot Kohler. Then she denied the shooting. She told police Kohler has beaten her recently.

Kohler was sent to Joliet penitentiary on Feb. 26, 1931, for grand larceny. He escaped in 1933, but was recaptured on Feb. 24, that year. He was discharged last July.

SAILBOAT FOUND IN SAGINAW BAY; 3 STILL MISSING

Coast guard headquarters was notified yesterday that Michigan state police had found a small sailboat at Point au Gres in Saginaw bay, believed to be the one in which three young men set out on a fishing trip Thursday from Bay City, Mich.

In the boat were three pairs of shoes and three sweaters. No trace of the men was found, and coast guardsmen from the Tawas, Mich., station began a search of the islands in the eastern part of the bay.

The missing men are Allan Duranso, Stewart Schiattilly, and Clifford Harris, all residents of Saginaw. They went to Bay City by automobile, taking the boat with them.

The advertising effectiveness of a newspaper

STARTS HERE!

Because the Chicago Tribune has been most successful in selling its own product in the Chicago market, it is the advertising medium best able to help you sell yours!

What the advertiser gets out of a newspaper in the way of advertising effectiveness depends upon what the editor puts into it in the way of editorial effectiveness

THE TRIBUNE BUILT its circulation, holds its circulation, and continues to increase its circulation because it plays a vital and intimate part in the lives and thinking of the people of Chicago.

Day in and day out, readers turn to the Tribune for its accurate, comprehensive news reports. They like the vivid way news is written and illustrated in the Tribune. And they know that no other medium can match the Tribune's aggressive action in advancing their interests.

For ninety-one years the Tribune has been an inseparable part of Chicago's family and civic life. It is welcomed into the home as a familiar friend by young and old. Its special features and departments appeal to men and women alike. Its forthright publication of the news attracts readers in every income group.

Reader interest starts on page one and carries right through. News, cartoons, comic strips, photographs, features—the finest that money can buy—are distributed throughout the Tribune so as to get high trafic for every page. Makeup invites and steps up attention.

As a result, the Tribune is Chicago's first newspaper . . . and, measured by volume of circulation and intensity of reader interest, it is the dominant selling force in this market.

It is the only newspaper with majority coverage of the families in metropolitan Chicago. It has practically as much city and suburban net paid circulation as any two other Chicago newspapers combined.

Retail merchants in Chicago recognize the power of the Tribune by placing in it 53.6% more linage than in the second Chicago newspaper. General advertisers place in it 68.2% more linage than in the second paper.

Regardless of the product you sell . . . to whom it sells . . . for what it sells . . . the Tribune is the logical medium around which to build your advertising program for Chicago. Advertising rates per 100,000 circulation are among the lowest in America.

HIGH WATER MARK!

In Net Paid Total Daily Circulation

☆ 872,512 ☆

During March, Tribune total daily circulation registered a new all-time high for any month on record—872,512 net paid—a gain of 39,370 over March, 1937.

And an all-time high also in net paid city and suburban daily circulation

☆ 703,334 ☆

City and suburban daily circulation also broke all previous records—703,334—a gain of 29,147 over March, 1937.

TIME AND COST OF TRAVEL CUT BY AIR AND RAIL

Many Improvements Made in Last Ten Years.

BY PHILIP HAMPSON.

New streamlined passenger trains and improved airplanes in the last ten years have brought Chicago much closer to other American cities, a study of time schedules made yesterday shows. At the same time the cost of travel has been reduced sharply by both air lines and railroads.

The air lines have reduced the flying time from Chicago to New York by 50 per cent and the cost by 75 per cent; the time from Chicago to San Francisco by 44 per cent and the cost by 47½ per cent; the time from Newark, the terminal for New York City, to San Francisco by 50 per cent and the cost by 62½ per cent.

Railroads have reduced the cost of a first class ticket by about 16 per cent. After June 15 the New York Central and the Pennsylvania railroads will put their Twentieth Century and Broadway Limited, respectively, into service on a 16 hour schedule between Chicago and New York.

Save 20 Per Cent in Time.

Compared with train times of ten years ago, these trains will effect a 20 per cent reduction in time between these two cities and a 35½ per cent reduction in time between New York and San Francisco. The time saved from Chicago to Los Angeles, compared with ten years ago, also is 35½ per cent.

After June 15 the traveler from Chicago will be able to reach New York in the same number of hours that, in 1928, would have been sufficient to allow him to go only as far as Johnsville, N. Y., about 30 miles east of Utica.

Ten years ago the fastest train to Los Angeles covered the distance in 63 hours. Now high speed streamliners make the same trip in 39 hours 45 minutes. Ten years ago the traveler would have traveled only as far west as Laguna, N. M., 70 miles west of Albuquerque, in a like number of hours.

Schedules Are Faster.

From New York to Los Angeles by train in 1928 took 90 hours; now the trip can be made by train in 58 hours 25 minutes. This means that a traveler can now get from New York to Los Angeles in about the same time as it took in 1928 to get from New York to Kansas City.

The record of the air lines in time saving is even better. In 1928 it took 8 hours 15 minutes to fly from Chicago to New York. Now the trip can be made in 3 hours 59 minutes, or in about the same length of time it took to fly to Cleveland in 1928.

The present flying time to San Francisco is 13 hours. In 1928 it was 23 hours 30 minutes. In 1928, the air voyagers would have gone only about as far as Rock Springs, Wyo., in 13 hours.

Ten years ago it took 30 hours 45 minutes to fly from Newark to San Francisco. Now the trip can be made in 15 hours 46 minutes, about the same time required to fly to Grand Island, Neb., in 1928.

Fares Greatly Reduced.

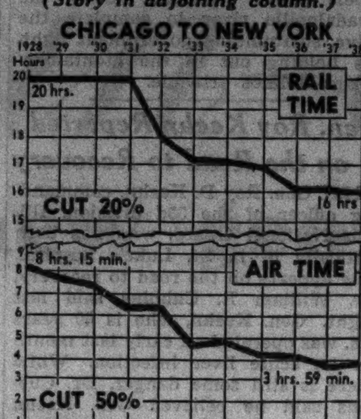
Along with the savings in time, the train passenger has had a saving in expense. It now costs $5.45 less to travel first class from Chicago to New York than it did in 1928, when the basic fare was $32.70; $13.31 less than the old fare of $79.84 from Chicago to Los Angeles, and $18.55 less from New York to Los Angeles than the old fare of $111.40.

Savings in flying fares are even greater. It costs $95 less now than it did in 1928 to fly from Chicago to San Francisco, when the fare was $200. In the same period the fare from Chicago to New York has been reduced $155.05 from $200, and the fare from Newark to San Francisco has been cut $250.05 from the old figure of $400.

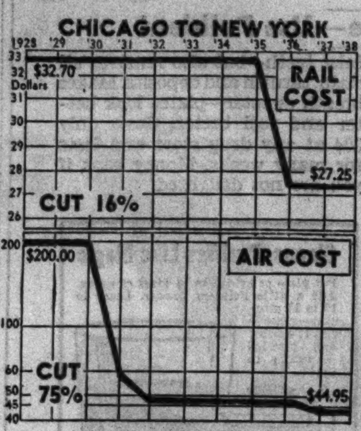
The great improvement in rail and air service in the last ten years is even more noteworthy, because most of it was accomplished during the depression periods. Both the railroads and the air lines found that improving and speeding up their facilities and reducing their fares added to the number of passengers carried.

Ten Years Boost Rail, Air Speed; Fares Cut

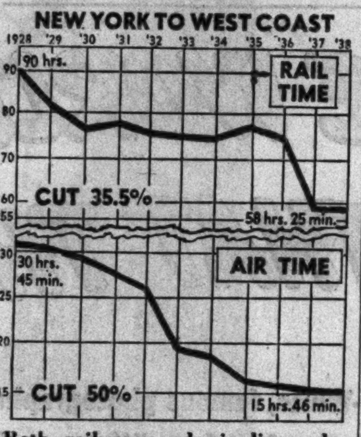
(Story in adjoining column.)



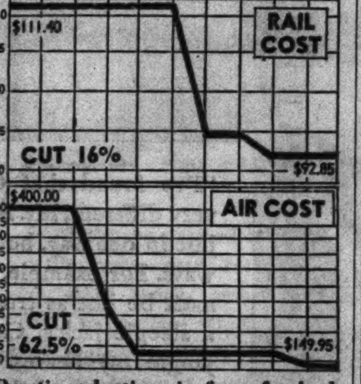
When new trains go into use June 15, running time between Chicago and New York will have been reduced from 20 hours to 16 in ten years. Flying time has been reduced more than 50 per cent in the same period.



Passenger fares between New York and Chicago have also been reduced in the ten years—the rail cost cut more than 16 per cent and the plane cost more than 75 per cent.



Both railways and air lines also have made great reductions in the time required for journeys between New York and the Pacific coast.



Drastic reductions in fares for both train trips and flights across the continent have also been made.

10 Die, 32 Hurt as Truck Hits Bridge in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, May 1.—(AP)—Ten persons were reported killed and 32 injured today when a crowded truck hit the side of a bridge between Atlixco and Cacaloxuchil, about 100 miles southwest of Mexico City.

YOUTH KNOCKED OUT OF HARM'S WAY BY TRAIN

George Maun, 19 years old, escaped death by inches early yesterday when he fell from the station platform at Gunderson avenue, Oak Park, to the Chicago, Aurora, and Elgin suburban railroad tracks into the path of a train. As the train approached Maun apparently rolled to one side and the step of one of the cars struck him on the head and flung him off the tracks against the side of the platform. At the Oak Park hospital, Maun, a shipping clerk who lives at 928 Elgin avenue, Forest Park, said he became dizzy while standing on the platform. He had attended a party in the suburb, he said.

Dispatches His 50,000th Plane at Chicago Airport

T. G. Williams, local flight superintendent of American Airlines, yesterday cleared or dispatched his 50,000th regularly scheduled airliner at the Chicago airport. Williams, a world war bomber, began dispatching planes in 1929.

FARMER-SKIPPER SAILS BACK FROM SEA ADVENTURE

Gloucester, Mass., May 1.—(AP)—Loaded with curios and tales of danger and adventure on the high seas, the schooner Yankee, a former Dutch pilot boat, sailed into this old fishing port today from an 18 month, 35,000 mile cruise of the world.

The skipper, Irving Johnson, who left a farm at Hadley to go to sea, told of his baby's first steps, taken while the Yankee sailed the Indian ocean. He said virtually all the 20 persons aboard were poisoned seriously last year after eating fish they caught 180 miles from Pitcairn Island.

Visit Mutineers' Kinsmen.

They managed to make the island and recovered while visiting descendants of the Bounty mutineers.

The travelers repaid kindnesses of the Pitcairn Islanders by ferrying 20 tons of hard wood 100 miles from another island for them.

Capt. Johnson said he did not find Baroness von Wagner and her followers on a visit to the Galapagos Islands. He declared he believed she was dead. On a previous trip Johnson had spent a New Year's holiday with the baroness.

All Aboard Are Healthy.

Every one aboard the Yankee was healthy at the voyage's end—particularly Arthur Cook Johnson, 2 years old. Mrs. Johnson is the former Miss Electa Search of Rochester, N. Y.

After a dinner at a Gloucester tavern the travelers left for their homes. Included in the party were Mrs. William Donovan, her daughter Pat and her son David, of New York; Miss Nancy Holdsworth of Boston, and Helen Shumacher of Buffalo, who was ship's lamp trimmer on the cruise.

STATE APPROVES PAVING PROJECT IN GRAND AVENUE

The Illinois highway department, it was learned yesterday, has given its approval to a city council plan to spend $261,000 of Chicago's gasoline tax revenue for a new 56 foot pavement in Grand avenue between Dearborn street and Lake Shore drive. The state also has approved plans so that work can proceed in laying a 51 foot pavement in Elston avenue between Milwaukee and Armitage avenues. This project, costing approximately $427,000, also will be paid from the city's motor fuel revenue.

FIGHTING SURGES AROUND WALLED CITY IN SHANTUNG

Held by Japs and Chinese Within 12 Hours.

SHANGHAI, May 1.—(AP)—A Japanese military spokesman admitted tonight that the Nipponese war machine had made "but meager gains" in the last 24 hours of struggle with a vast Chinese army on the southern Shantung front.

He said heavy attacks continued against Tancheng, important walled city of southeastern Shantung province. Tancheng is about 20 miles north of the east-west Lunghai railway, which is the backbone of the Chinese central front and key to the Chinese interior.

Tancheng was reported to have changed hands twice yesterday in 12 hours of murderous combat which billowed back and forth across the fertile fields along the Shantung-Kiangsu provincial border 350 miles northwest of Shanghai.

Navy Flyers Make Raids.

The Japanese captured Tancheng in their formidable southward push to wipe out the shame of the early April defeat at Taierchwang. The Chinese took it back but held on for only a few hours, it was reported.

To aid a land offensive which recent reports indicated was developing into a stalemate, Japanese naval airmen made large scale raids. They bombed strategic points of the Lunghai corridor and the Yangtze river valley to the south and the railway linking Hankow, provisional Chinese capital, with Canton, the South China gateway for Chinese war supplies. Naval authorities said the airmen inflicted heavy damage.

Bomb Hurled at Troop Truck.

Japanese troops invaded the center of Shanghai's international settlement tonight when an unidentified person hurled a bomb at a truck loaded with Japanese soldiers. The troops were withdrawn before midnight, however.

The bomb missed the truck, but exploded among passersby, injuring 10 persons. The incident occurred in Nanking road in front of the Sincere and Wing On department stores.

R. O. T. C. CADETS TO GET MEDALS AT 27 SCHOOLS

Outstanding R. O. T. C. cadets of twenty-seven Chicago high schools will receive 499 medals for their accomplishments of the semester during federal inspection ceremonies of the units this week and next. Presentations will begin today with programs at 9 o'clock for Crane, at 11 o'clock for Marshall, and at 2 o'clock for Harrison, and will continue each school day.

Philip Maxwell of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE; Col. William F. Morrison, head of the R. O. T. C., and representatives of the veterans' associations will award the medals. Maj. William B. Yancey, University of Wisconsin, representing the war department, will inspect each of the units. Those chosen as first and second in the city will receive stands of colors, supplied by THE TRIBUNE, during the annual review and dress parade of the 9,630 cadets, May 20, in Soldiers' field Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Drum, commander of the 6th corps area, will present the colors.

British Warships Ready to Rescue Consuls at Valencia

MARSEILLES, France, May 1.—(AP)—British gunboats have anchored off Valencia, Spain, to take on foreign consuls and other foreigners if Castellon de la Plana falls to the rebels. An American destroyer in touch with the situation may call at Valencia for United States Vice Consul Lee Worley. The rebels have been hammering for days at Castellon, which is an important seaport 45 miles up the Mediterranean coast from Valencia.

Parolee Confesses Killing Street Car Conductor.

sometimes the parole agents are lenient. His agent caught him in a handbook, and he shouldn't have been in one. Morgan got a scolding, in which the agent threatened to send him back to Pontiac. Morgan made it a point, he said, to see the parole people or let them see him. The last time he saw the agent was last Tuesday.

Shooting Leads to Arrest.

That was the day he polished the agent's car, and also the day that Serafino Lannutti, 24 years old, was wounded and captured by Policeman Fred Euting in an attempted robbery. The shooting led to the arrest of Morgan the next day, and to the arrest of several other persons, including Anthony Diliberti, 20.

In his confession, which he signed Saturday, but orally denied yesterday, Morgan said he shot Conductor Hanmer three times. He said Diliberti was driving an automobile behind the street car, and after the shooting he, Morgan, left the street car and escaped in Diliberti's car. When Morgan and Diliberti faced each other at the showup yesterday, Morgan blurted: "What have you to lose? I did the shooting. You only drove the car."

Morgan said he held a job for a time and returned to robbery only because of debts incurred after he was laid off. His robberies brought him only $170.

BRICE TO BE QUIZZED AGAIN TODAY ABOUT $150,000 POKER GAME

Los Angeles, Cal., May 1.—[Special.]—Lew Brice, brother of Fannie Brice, will be questioned again tomorrow on the Long Beach stud poker game in which he assertedly won $150,000 from Harry T. Clifton, member of a wealthy English family.

Lew Brice.

Brice's story, as reviewed today, differed in several details from the one told by Clifton, who said a $340,000 pot was built up on a single hand and that Brice won it with three sevens against Clifton's two pairs. Brice said his winnings were accumulated during several hours, mostly at draw poker.

Clifton has obtained a temporary court order halting payment on his checks for $150,000.

2 SPAINS OBSERVE MAY DAY AS MUD BOGS WAR DRIVES

Rebels to Mark 'Second Triumphal Year.'

HENDAYE, France [at the Spanish Frontier], May 1.—(AP)—With spring mud clogging war machinery, the two Spains today turned their attention from combat to celebration of their respective consecutive May holidays.

In Catalonia and in separate government territory of central southeastern Spain, Communists and Socialists celebrated May day, with fists clenched in the leftist salute.

In the rebel three-fourths of Spain, Generalissimo Francisco Franco's followers prepared to celebrate tomorrow a national holiday of the "second triumphal year," using the open hand rightist salute.

Day of Napoleon's Defeat.

In a decree of April 24, 1937, Franco made July 17 and May 2 national holidays as substitutes for the republican holidays April 14 and May 1. May 2 was chosen with the explanation that on May 2, 1808, the Spaniards ejected Napoleon's armies from the Peninsula.

The present Spanish Republic was proclaimed April 14, 1931, and the rebellion against it broke out July 17, 1936.

In preparation for their own holiday, rebel state and party leaders broadcast orders to branches in all provincial capitals, ordering election of obelisks in memory of "martyrs of Spanish independence of 1808."

Honor Guards at Monuments.

At sundown today local sections of the state party were ordered to take positions beside the monuments and keep guard throughout the night and tomorrow. Religious ceremonies will be celebrated at the obelisks tomorrow morning, followed by civil ceremonies.

The central rebel army, defying storms, drove northeast of Teruel today to join a northern column and isolate a government advance force. The movement closed a 20 mile line between Aliaga and Molinos. The rebels drove northeast along the Guadalopillo river to complete the drive, surrounding government fighters holding out in the Montalban-Aliaga-Molinos triangle.

Gen. Roy Keehn Reported on the Road to Recovery

Maj. Gen. Roy D. Keehn, commanding officer of the 33d division, Illinois National Guard, who has been critically ill in St. Luke's hospital, now appears on the road to recovery, Dr. William R. Does Your Breath Broadcast—"I WEAR FALSE TEETH"?

Play Safe—Be Sure—Use Polident

Most people who wear plates or bridges suffer from a special kind of bad breath. Dentists call it—"denture breath."

You won't know if you have it—but it can spoil your happiness. Friends will shudder—people avoid you! And the worst of it is that ordinary brushing cannot prevent it. Neither will mouth washes. For the odor comes from a mucin-scum that collects on plates and bridges. This scum soaks up germs and decay bacteria and causes a vile odor that you cannot detect.

One thing can stop "denture breath"—and that's Polident! This new brushless cleaner for false teeth has won the approval of thousands of dentists. Users say it is a great blessing.

Polident not only purifies false teeth—but also removes all stain, tarnish and deposits. Makes breath sweeter—plates look better and feel better. Costs only 30¢ at any drug store and lasts for many weeks. Money back if you are not delighted.

Cleans, Purifies Like Magic

Put plate or bridge in ½ glass of water. Add a little Polident powder. Leave in 10 to 15 minutes—rinse—and it's sweet and purified—ready to use!

SHE COMBS THE WORLD FOR PICTURES THAT THRILL

What Margaret Bourke-White, famous photographer, said when Ralph Martin asked if she found a difference in cigarettes

STEEL MILLS, lumber camps, dams, skyscrapers, coal mines, subways (as above)—appeal to Margaret Bourke-White. She has gone all over the United States, into far countries. And her photographs are now internationally famous for their vigor and sensational interest. They're different! And that's the same remark that Miss Bourke-White made about Camels to Ralph Martin at the New York World's Fair grounds (right).

"Cigarettes seem pretty much alike to me. Do you find some difference between Camels and the others, Miss Bourke-White?"

"I've found that Camels are very different, Mr. Martin—not just in one way, but in a lot of ways. For example, my nerves must be just as trustworthy as a steeple jack's. Camels don't jangle my nerves. They taste extra-mild and delicate too. Camels never leave an unpleasant after-taste, and they're so gentle to the throat. In fact, I can say Camels agree with me in every way! I think that's what counts most—how your cigarette agrees with you!"

Miss Bourke-White is like most attractive, alert young women in her interests. She shops, goes to the theatre, enjoys supper-dancing. "When I'm tired, I get a 'lift' with a Camel. At mealtimes, I smoke Camels 'for digestion's sake.'"

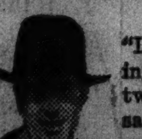
ONE SMOKER TELLS ANOTHER "CAMELS AGREE WITH ME!"

Leading growers tell their preference in cigarettes—it's Camel!

"We smoke Camels because we know tobacco," tobacco planters say



"I've been planting tobacco for twenty years," says grower Harry C. King. "The Camel people bought the choice lots of my last crop—paid more for my best tobacco. So I know they use finer, more expensive tobaccos in Camels. That's one mighty good reason why my cigarette is Camel."

"I'm a tobacco planter," says Vertner Hatton, who has grown tobacco for 25 years. "The Camel folks pay a sight more for our better tobaccos. Last crop they took my finest grades. I smoke Camels—I know there's no substitute for expensive tobaccos. Most planters favor Camels."

"It's a fact Camel uses costlier tobaccos," says Floyd Smither, who knows tobacco from the ground up. "Last year I grew a handsome crop and Camel bought the choice lots of my best tobacco. I smoke Camels—so do most local planters. I know the quality tobacco in them."

Thomas Middleton and his twin brother James have been growing tobacco for 14 years. "Camel bought my best tobacco for 12 years," Tom Middleton says. "That's why more expensive tobaccos mean Camels to me. I smoke 'em. So do most of us fellows who grow and know tobacco."

G. O. P. LEADERS CALLED TO STATE MEETING MAY 10

Harmony in Committee's Conference Forecast.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Chairman John F. Tyrrell of Chicago issued a call yesterday for the first meeting of the new Republican state central committee. The session will be held in Springfield on May 10.

John F. Tyrrell.

Tyrrell said he expects to be reelected chairman. Interviews with several downstate members by telephone tended to confirm this forecast. The downstaters said a majority of their number favor Tyrrell now and that his strength probably will be increased by the time of the meeting.

Extension of Harmony Seen.

Those expressions did much toward allaying alarms within the party caused by rumors that a serious battle over the chairmanship might shatter the Republican harmony that has been maintained so far this year. Cook county leaders have felt that if downstate united behind the old demand that a chairman be chosen from their ranks, Chicago should yield. Downstate's pronounced leaning toward Tyrrell, it is believed, will put the Cook county district committeemen solidly behind him.

One disturbing element in the situation, it was said, faded out during the party activities at Springfield last Friday. Until then, there had been an inclination among leaders of the Republican County Chairmen's association to crowd the state central committee out of its customary and statutorily based command of the state campaign next fall.

Damper Put on Campaign.

Dovetailing into this movement, according to some of the participants, was the thought that the union of county organization heads might dominate the state committee by electing one of its own members as state chairman. Reports indicate that it was largely on this account that there were rumors of a quiet campaign to replace Tyrrell with A. K. Stiles of Sycamore.

The county chairmen are said to have been slightly disappointed over the attendance at their meeting on Friday and over reports of the reception given in many counties to a proposal that their organization crowd the state committee. The result was said to have been a dampening of the enthusiasm for Stiles.

Two other downstate candidates for the chairmanship, H. I. Williamson of Springfield, another newcomer, and Richard Yates Rowe of Jacksonville, have been mentioned, but inquiry disclosed that neither has mustered the downstate strength assured Tyrrell.

HOOVER VIEWS THIRD PARTY AS HELPING G. O. P.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 1.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, in a between trains interview, said today Gov. Philip La Follette's proposed third party may be the wedge for returning the Republican party to power. The former President is en route to Oklahoma City and Chicago.

"If the Republicans continue to stand together as they have recently, and the liberal and conservative Democrats continue to widen the breach between them as they have recently, we should be able to regain leadership," he said.

Hoover said he planned to speak at Oklahoma's "Grass Roots" convention May 5 on "The Dangerous Road for Democracy," a topic based on his recent trip to Europe.

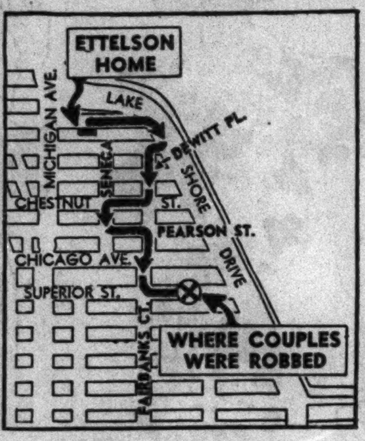
which to stop, and during this time the two gunmen inside the cab swore, threatened their prisoners, and forced them to remove their jewelry. The women remained bravely calm during the ordeal, taking off rings, wrist watches, bracelets, and other jewelry. Mrs. Dahlberg, however, was apparently too slow loosening a bracelet and one of the gunmen slapped her.



Route taken by robbers.

Get Only $100 in Cash.

The men, too, were forced to give up their watches, rings, and other jewelry and to empty their pockets of bills. The money amounted to about $100. By this time the robbery trail had led from Fairbanks court east into Superior street. There the leader car stopped and the taxicab also stopped. With a round of oaths the bandits jumped out, piled into their own car, and shot east in Superior to the drive.

The victims sped to the Chicago avenue station and reported the holdup. They were unable to place the exact value of the jewelry taken, but Mr. Ettelson, making a personal estimate, said it was probably more than $20,000 and less than $50,000.

LANDON ASSAILS NEW JERSEY BAR TO FREE SPEECH

Topeka, Kas., May 1.—(AP)—Alf M. Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee, today decried the treatment given to Norman Thomas, national chairman of the Socialist party, in Jersey City last night.

In a letter to Thomas, Landon wrote, "I am shocked at your treatment in Jersey City and at such a gross violation of our sacred right of free speech."

Thomas had charged he was kidnaped by officials and put on a ferry boat for New York, when he attempted to make a speech in Journal square without having obtained a permit.

LA FOLLETTE PLANS TO STUMP IOWA FOR PROGRESSIVE SLATE

Cedar Rapids, Ia., May 1.—(AP)—Gov. Philip La Follette of Wisconsin today said he expects personally to campaign in Iowa this year for National Progressive party congressional and state ticket candidates.

The governor returned to Madison, Wis., today after two days of speeches and conferences with liberal leaders on the question of organizing his newborn national party in the tall corn state.

"From expressions of people I have talked with it seems reasonably clear that there will be a National Progressive ticket in Iowa in 1938," he said.

La Follette added that any ticket tinkering with the present Farmer-Labor state slate would be a question for Iowans to decide.

"The Progressive party is not promoting candidates," he commented.

SLAYS CREDITOR AND WIFE; SETS FIRE TO HOME

Marion, O., May 1.—(AP)—Marion County Prosecutor Paul D. Michael announced late tonight H. L. Roush, 48 years old, had confessed he beat and shot to death Mr. and Mrs. Homer T. Myers in their farm home near here early today.

Roush was employed as a farmhand by the farm couple, whose bodies were found in their flaming home. Myers was 65 and his wife 67.

Roush said he went to the Myers home to pay his employer "about $1,400" he owed on a note.

"Myers went into his bedroom and got the note," Roush was quoted as saying, "and came out and wrote paid in full on it. Then I shot him with a gun I had with me.

"Mrs. Myers, who was in the room, started screaming and I shot her, but didn't kill her. So I went to the kitchen and got a rifle and beat her over the head with it."

Michel said Roush told him he then splashed a gallon of gasoline around the house, set it afire, and then returned to Marion, where he met his family at a movie theater and drove home.

GIRL DROWNED IN WELL.

Granite City, Ill., May 1.—(AP)—A 2 year old girl, Patricia Ann Johnson, was drowned today when she fell in a shallow well near her home. Her father is a WPA worker.

"I'VE LEARNED PLENTY ABOUT LAXATIVES"

"No one could possibly be troubled with constipation more than I was—until I started to take NR Tablets. They work like a charm. Give thorough relief. Yet, act so gently I hardly know I've taken a laxative."

Says: Mrs. E. M. of Chicago

The reason Nature's Remedy—NR Tablets—acts this amazing way is simple. They are made by an exclusive formula from vegetable laxative ingredients and act on the true basic principle of aiding nature. Give gentle, thorough relief without upsetting the stomach—without griping. Leave you clear headed, refreshed, invigorated. NR Tablets are all vegetable. Guaranteed to contain no salts, no phenol derivatives. Over 500 million NR Tablets have already brought welcome relief. Get a 25c box from your druggist. Whenever you need a laxative, get NR Tablets and get the sure, gentle, dependable relief millions enjoy.

ENGAGED!

But they can't marry if either has an unsuspected venereal disease

So that they can plan with absolute confidence, many now obtain an examination for gonorrhea and syphilis before becoming engaged

It is risky, these days, to plan on marrying without being certain that you have no venereal infection. For a state law now requires every couple to prove they are free from gonorrhea and syphilis before a marriage license can be obtained!

So, to avoid postponement and heartaches when ready to marry, many now get an examination for venereal diseases before becoming engaged! Such an examination costs very little, takes but a short time, and enables you to make your plans with absolute confidence.

Above all, do not escape the marriage law by being married in another state. For the law was enacted for your own protection and that of your children to come. To evade it is to encourage consequences of a very disastrous nature.

For example, untreated syphilis is not only the principal cause of stillborn, deformed and feeble-minded babies, but it frequently results in heart disease, blindness, deafness, paralysis and even insanity among parents. Neglected gonorrhea has long been responsible for much infantile blindness, and can readily cause sterility, crippling arthritis, and serious bladder, kidney and other troubles in adults.

Many infected innocently

When you consider that syphilis can be contracted innocently, and exist for years without the victim's knowledge, you can see the wisdom of being examined before you become engaged. But make sure you get a complete examination—one that covers gonorrhea as well as syphilis!

A complete examination for venereal diseases consists of two or more different types of blood test, a urinalysis and gonorrheal smears. Furthermore, these laboratory tests should be supplemented by a careful physical inspection. Only in this way can you be absolutely sure that you have no venereal infection!

A thorough examination of this kind can be obtained from your family physician or the Public Health Institute, which to date has examined more than a quarter of a million men, women and children for gonorrhea and syphilis. Hence, if you are thinking of marrying, why not follow the example of countless others and submit to such an examination before becoming engaged?

Examination costs $3.00

Organized by public-spirited citizens as a corporation "NOT-FOR-PROFIT" under the laws of the State of Illinois, the Public Health Institute puts specialized venereal disease attention within the reach of those with limited incomes. A thorough physical examination for syphilis and gonorrhea, including blood tests, urinalysis and smears, costs only $3.00, while some treatments for syphilis cost as little as $1.00 and some of those for gonorrhea still less!

Thus there is no need to run the risk of being unable to get a license when you are ready to marry. For not only can an examination be obtained confidentially and at very low cost, but even persons temporarily pressed for funds can arrange to be attended.

PRE-MARRIAGE EXAMINATIONS, including all necessary tests, cost $3.00 per person. Those examined before 2 P.M. can have their certificates the same afternoon!

SENATOR HARRISON AND PARTY STOOGES.

One of the marks of a statesman is a willingness to place the nation's need above party considerations. When a member of a dominant political party takes issue with the leader on an important public question, and fights to a conclusion, he raises himself above the blind partisans who are round about him. Thus the fight which Senator Pat Harrison made for the repeal of the surplus earnings tax was one of the standouts of the present session of congress.

The issue was clear. Irritated because the sequence of the adverse decisions on NRA and other New Deal measures was a brisk rise in business [whereas he had forecast that disaster would ensue], the President in a vengeful spirit had recommended and secured the passage of the surplus earnings tax. The operation of that tax produced first a little boom, and then the bad depression from which we are suffering.

The patriotic duty was to repeal the tax as soon as it could be done. Blind partisanship called for the retention of the tax to "save face." The house, after a fight, put face saving above national welfare, and retained the panic tax, only modifying its severity. The political pressure on the senate then became tremendous.

But Senator Harrison, with a resolute courage and an effectiveness rarely equaled, succeeded in obtaining the passage of a bill eliminating the tax. He did not yield from his position that the whole tax must go until it became evident that without some compromise with the house conferees there could be no action this year.

The conference tax bill is not a good bill, but it is a credit to Senator Harrison that anything at all was accomplished.

Meanwhile the house has just passed a measure which has nothing but politics to justify it. The appropriation for the Gilbertsville, Kentucky, dam was an unspeakable piece of pork, sought by the administration to help Senator Barkley in his fight for reëlection. The house had twice before turned it down. The encouragement derived from Senator Harrison's fine example of independence has been partly spoiled by the house action in appropriating for a useless dam on the Tennessee river.

IF THE CHINESE SHOULD WIN.

A Paris report, sent by Edmond Taylor of THE TRIBUNE foreign service, has it that the French and British have about agreed to cut off the supply of arms to China, which of late has been worrying the Japanese invader unexpectedly and apparently has been making good use of new war supplies.

In view of the protests made to Japan in behalf of China and of the moral fuss about broken treaties the abandonment of the struggling Chinese just when they seemed to have half a chance to make Japan regret its aggression will appear as prize entry in the category of bad faith. But it also may prove to be a case of excellent judgment.

The outcries of the Chinese government may be as pitiful as those of the Spanish government and as unavailing if the Europeans see that Japan is the better friend. It may be set down as certain that a victorious China, if such a phenomenon can be conceived as within the possibilities even of miracles, would not stop short after dealing with the Japanese. All foreign concessions and privileges would go. The British would be told to get out of Hongkong and disgorge this ancient fruit of an unjust war. The foreign troops and gunboats would get out. The little bits of Europe and America would be erased from the map.

A China which had put the Japanese in their place would soon attend to the other masters who have enjoyed privileges based on force. The French would be asked for their quo warranto in French Indo-China. The British might be asked to show cause in India.

Japan will be a difficult overlord in China where foreign interests are involved, but more concessions may be obtained from Tokio than from a high stepping China backed by Russia. These possibilities may not be without their weight in London and Paris.

REVIEW OF THE HIGH SCHOOL CADET CORPS.

We have all read of the spectacles of armed might given on every occasion by the dictators of Europe. A conspicuous feature of every such ceremony is the march of youth, girls and boys uniformed and trained, ready to take their part in war when the commissar, the duce, or the fuehrer decrees. To the American there is something terrible in the fact and the potentialities of this military regimentation of youth to be the willing and enthusiastic instrumentality of the will of a ruler. There is no denying, however, that it means power while it lasts, and the free peoples of the world must face its meaning. What is democracy to do confronting this menace of totalitarian might?

We need not doubt or fear the answer. Democracy's ways are different from the ways of dictatorship and our faith is that they are better ways representing a truer and more enduring strength. But democracy need not and must not be weak. It must develop its own strength in its own way. It must find its strength in the free will of its people. It must make its own high appeal to its youth and rely, as it can afford to do, upon their loyal and high hearted response. Americans have always hated war but they have never feared to meet it. We do not and do not need to glorify it, but every war in which the republic has engaged has shown how bravely and how triumphantly Americans could meet its duties and sacrifices.

These are the heartening thoughts which will come to the citizens who attend the annual review of the 9,630 high school Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadets, sponsored by THE TRIBUNE and the board of education, in Soldiers' field May 20. As a pageant of color and rhythm, of athletic youth, of music and banners and flashing arms, it will contain thrills enough, but its appeal is higher and deeper than any mere display could make. For as President Mayer of the Association of Commerce says of the occasion: "No youth organization typifies to such far reaching degree the qualities which must be preserved if our nation is to continue in its given course. Devotion to country, unstinted willingness for service, discipline of self for the good of the majority, adherence to the principles which are basic to our democracy, respect for authority, and an avowed allegiance to the theory that a country worth enjoying is worth preserving in peace or in war—all these commendable beliefs are lived daily by the thousands of boys who fill the ranks of our Chicago R. O. T. C."

Democracy will survive only through the strength born of the free will and unfettered intelligence of its people. The R. O. T. C. exemplifies that strength in American youth. All Chicago should do honor to its membership.

THE LA FOLLETTES AND JUST MARX.

If the La Follettes, assuming that Bob is cahooting with Phil in the National Progressives, had left the funny Marx Brothers out of the new popular front and had been wholly true to Dr. Karl they would have presented the New Deal with an ultimatum based upon the unescapable logic of its own theories and acts. If in all its fits and starts the New Deal has a purpose it is going where the La Follettes point when they are not yessing and noing at the same time.

When the La Follettes propose to use the whole authority of the nation to destroy the modern substitutes for savages they are not only talking Lenin's talk but they are saying that they will make the words of Mr. Ickes, Mr. Jackson, Mme. Perkins, and John Lewis mean something. They are telling these barrel thumpers to get off the platform and get into the shambles. And if they do not mean what they are saying, shut up.

The La Follettes say that the ownership of money shall be public and not private. That is taking Mr. Tugwell's allocation of capital and giving Mr. Morgenthau and Mr. Eccles a treasury program which means the control of investment by the commissars without monkeying with bond issues, rates of interest, reserve requirements, or punitive taxes on undistributed earnings and capital gains.

The La Follettes say that all the resources of the land shall be placed at the disposal of the people to give them the absolute security of income, the untouchable right to earn a good living by the sweat of their brow, without any governmental spoon feeding, and to sink or swim if they can't make a go of these unrestricted opportunities. They will place control of agriculture, business, and industry in the hands of public authority—the dictatorship of the proletariat. If that isn't what the La Follettes mean they are not saying anything and if that is not what the New Deal means it doesn't meant anything.

These are the Lenin preambles. Land, work, assured income, and peace constituted the slogan of the October Red revolution. It led to the conscription of labor and the labor gang, the extermination of the intellectuals and the middle class, the destruction of the prosperous farmer and the starvation of the persecuted poor peasant.

"The organized power of this nation must stop at nothing," say the La Follettes, "short of the necessary steps to restore to every American the absolute right to earn his living by the sweat of his brow."

"The organized power must stop at nothing." That is Moscow talking to the National Labor Relations board, the bituminous coal commission, the Tennessee Valley Authority, the interstate commerce commission, the treasury department, the Federal Housing Authority, and the Works Progress Administration. The New Deal has taken the blood from utilities, railroads, and the basic industries. It has the farmers collectivized by subsidies and restrictions. It has stopped private investment and destroyed the value of savings. It restricts the production of necessities, reduces the planting of crops, increases the number of unemployed, and uses taxation as a means of control and destruction.

Upon the logic of the New Deal's acts the La Follettes challenge it to come the rest of the way. As a hybrid it is ridiculous.

Editorial of the Day

FELLOW TRAVELERS.

[Baltimore Evening Sun.]

The communists continue to bellow for the revised and glorified Roosevelt spending plan. There may be doubts about it in other quarters, including the quarter of the honest New Dealers, but the Reds whoop for it without qualification. The Daily Worker, which printed a three column, first page black type editorial in favor of it the moment it was announced, has now proceeded to an eight column editorial across its whole first page, above the flagstaf of the paper.

All this support from Moscow is no doubt grateful to the wizards at Washington. They will swallow without a grimace the theory that the Reds are for them in the character of friends and guardians of democracy. They will note no disparity between the sudden Marxian concern for the middle class in this country and the brutal destruction of the middle class in Russia.

Other people, however, will be more suspicious. In the midst of all the hooey about communists sweating and panting for "democracy and the future of America," they will recall the Daily Worker's slip last week:

> Let us first make sure that the President's program is enacted as it stands. It is a fine beginning. Let's pass it, and then go on from there.

REMBRANDT, 1645.

You found her in a country orphange,
So simply dressed her clothes did not obscure
The beauty of her body. You could gauge
Her maiden suppleness, catch her allure
For all the world in blended living color,
With high light on one hand reveal the toil
Her fingers knew. You pictured her
As one stray flower growing in dry soil.
No perfumed lady, this, in satin gown,
Dissatisfied, too tired, too early wise . . .
No need to simulate a smile for frown
Nor kindly soften her half-wakened eyes.
You painted her in dim-lit atmosphere
With subtle touch illumined . . . warm . . . sincere.

THE BATTLE OF MANILA took place forty years ago yesterday. Admiral Dewey is said to have appreciated the humorous side of even the most serious matters, and John Barrett in his book on Dewey tells a story that indicates this is so. One day after the capture of Manila Dewey told his companions he had new names for the little Spanish gunboats, Callao and Leyte, that had been captured.

"You know the names of two colleges, Harvard and Yale, have been given to two merchant cruisers, 'New York' and 'Paris,' pressed into service in the navy," he said. "Here we have the 'Callao' and 'Leyte.' These names are hardly suitable in view of this new fashion. I think I shall therefore recommend to the secretary that the 'Callao' be renamed 'The Massachusetts Institute of Technology' and the 'Leyte' 'The Pennsylvania College of Physicians and Surgeons.'"

IT IS A MATTER OF RECORD that John McCutcheon in appreciation of Admiral Dewey's joke had two sailor hats decorated with ribbons bearing these long names and presented them to the admiral.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE HAYMARKET RIOT will be Wednesday. George Schilling, champion of labor, and Clarence Darrow, defender of the under dog, both died in Chicago recently, and with the passing of these two liberals passed the last surviving Chicagoans with an intimate personal knowledge of the Haymarket case and of the part played by John Peter Altgeld, Illinois governor. But Harry Barnard, author of "Eagle Forgotten," the forthcoming biography of Altgeld, is said to have made contacts with them in time to incorporate their information in his book. He obtained all Schilling's papers that had bearing on the case. Found them in Schilling's basement.

SAVE YOUR LIVER.

WHENEVER one is out-of-sorts or inclined to be unapproachable, "crochety," even snappy, and whenever these symptoms reflect the state of health, the terms "bilious" or "liverish" may be employed. In other words, bad temper has come to be associated with the condition of the largest organ of the body—the liver. Older writers ofttimes included the spleen in this category, and such expressions as "splenetic vapours" or "venting one's spleen" are common in seventeenth century literature.

Now the fact of the matter is that the one who wakens in the morning with a bad taste in the mouth, occasioned perhaps by dietary indiscretions the night before, probably is suffering from some inflammation within the bile ducts. The reason is not far to seek. Most of the material absorbed from the alimentary tract is carried by way of the portal vein to the liver, which is obliged to act as a huge filter, neutralizing toxins and permitting only the nutritive portions to pass into the general circulation. In this manner infections may find their way into the bile channels from the intestine and, as Arthur Hurst pointed out, this is far more likely to take place if the normal proportion of hydrochloric acid is not present in the stomach.

Among the many causes of impairment is alcohol. A moderate amount may be oxidized without trouble, but if too great a demand is made upon the liver cells, especially if the patient has lost sleep or has taken too much or too little food, the likelihood of deterioration is increased. It is a question of overload. In normal circumstances toxins of many sorts can be handled without injury. But if we foolishly extend the concentration beyond the power of performance, bad effects may follow.

Many medical writers observe nowadays a substantial rise in liver complaints among young adults. A dull pain high up on the right side, which is not accompanied by jaundice, may represent some beginning wear and tear.

There is a popular belief that the liver is "out of order" should one be conscious of a large amount of gas in the bowel. On the contrary, this symptom means that the assimilation of starch is not being carried out satisfactorily. If carbohydrates reach the colon and sugar is manufactured therefrom, bacteria which exist in this area will start its fermentation promptly. As a result, gases are produced, the bowel is distended, and discomfort is experienced.

This is an easily recognized form of indigestion and X-ray pictures may show great pockets of air collected in each bend of the colon, particularly in the neighborhood of the spleen [upper left side of the abdomen] where pressure may bring on pain, the patient conscious for hours of rumbling and gurgling.

A simple regulation of diet which greatly restricts the quantity of starchy food, including that derived from vegetables, is recommended. The use of lactic acid bacilli [buttermilk] may in turn lower somewhat the number of fermentative bacteria.

Occasionally, however, from long continued assaults, actual damage to the liver occurs with destruction of many busy cells. The ensuing disease is known as cirrhosis. While the affliction is found among nonalcohol using nations, nevertheless that drug is ofttimes responsible—through lowering the power of the cells to combat poisons, perhaps bacteria. In certain instances the use of highly seasoned food or too much food is a factor in the early stages. The structure may be enlarged enormously, later decreasing in size and, at the same time, becoming more firm. Such a breakdown may not be detected for many years, as the changes come on slowly.

If a patient gives a history of persistent attacks of biliousness or chronic indigestion, it is well to examine the status of the bile factory to determine its function. Modification of diet, more often than not, will abate the symptoms provided the malady has not progressed too far.

Hydrotherapy helps some patients. Whether the baths should be hot or cold is an individual matter, but cold usually is recommended as it is more stimulating.

CALLS FOR EXAMINATION.

E. S. writes: Is a slight trace of albumin serious in a man 55 years old?

REPLY.

Albuminuria may occur in healthy young adults after strenuous exertion, exposure, or a rich diet. In an older person it may be an indication of a kidney disorder and should be investigated thoroughly.

MAY AFFECT EARS.

D. O. writes: Can impaired hearing be caused by sinus trouble?

REPLY.

Yes. The infection often reaches the ears by way of the Eustachian tubes.

RIGHT TO ESTATE.

Chicago, April 29.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—A relative died eight years ago in the state of Pennsylvania, leaving a large fortune. The heirs did not file claim until this year, eight years later. Would the state of Pennsylvania outlaw their claim? M. L. M.

In general, it is not necessary for the beneficiaries in a probate estate to file claims. If there is a will, the beneficiaries would share according to its wording. If there is no will, the court would hear witnesses as to heirship and the estate would be distributed in accordance with the proof.
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

TRAVELERS' CHECKS.

Sheldon, Ia., April 28.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Please advise me if in case of death, while in possession of American travelers' checks, could one's heirs cash them? M. G.

Technically, the issuer of the checks would be in a position to insist on probate. The chances that they would be willing to waive probate would depend on the amount involved and on whether satisfactory affidavits can be presented showing who are the heirs and that all debts had been paid.

SWINGING "OLD BLACK JOE."

Chicago, April 29.—Is this swing style music ever going to cease? I'll answer that myself, along with hundreds of other readers of THE TRIBUNE, and tell you: "Not as long as these so-called swingsters can ruin all of our beautiful old melodies. They've swung "Old Black Joe" and "Annie Laurie" until they've swung them right into "Beautiful Ohio."

I'm not an old crab [God bless me for that], but I do think that our bandmasters should leave these old melodies out of the swing group and play them as they were originally composed. It's getting so now that we can't even turn on our radios and listen to a nice quiet program of those lovely old songs that grandma used to sing.

Don't misunderstand me. Swing music is perfectly all right for those who enjoy it if they would only swing the right kind of selections, but why not compose new songs to swing and quit killing the older ones that are so dear to many of us? After all, we older folks are entitled to our type of music, are we not? H. D.

HITTING THE FARMERS.

Chicago, April 29.—My wife owns a farm in central Iowa that has been in her family for 100 years or more and has always supported its occupants. However, under this new conservation act for 1938 it cannot more than carry its taxes. For as per a card just received from the government chairman of the county in which the farm is located, it is restricted to a use of only 42.7 acres out of 116 to cultivation, and the rest has to remain idle or in no-depleting acreage of planted crops, for which the government allows $4 an acre for said idleness and disuse.

Now I ask you, is this fair to either the taxpayer or the owner? The one becomes a renter without any income, and the other a landlord with only a half of a crop of his acreage. Then is it any wonder that various communities throughout this and other states are rising in mass and protesting against the injustice of such a program?

F. J. CAMPBELL.

FOR SUBWAY AND HIGHWAY.

Oak Park, Ill., April 28.—Your editorial of today stating that the west side is No. 1 on the highway list is timely. This work should be started immediately and if it is possible to get money from PWA or WPA it should be obtained to facilitate the start. Why hasn't Chicago got its proportionate share of this government money in the past?

A loan should also be obtained for the trolley subway in the loop. Surely the traction fund and the future traction payments to the city should be ample security. Why would it not be possible for both systems to use the same subway? J. LAWRENCE.

SUGGESTS A NICE, LONG CRUISE.

Kewanee, Ill., April 28.—News dispatches tell us of the visit of Mr. Ford to the White House. Also several business executives promise to do something about the present desperate situation. If the President will quiet down and take his radical pals with him for a nice long cruise, send the congress boys home, I shouldn't be surprised if business, both big and small, would do something about remedying the present lack of confidence. Mr. Roosevelt and his Charley McCarthys have certainly got things in a lovely mess.

WILLIAM WILLIAMS.

PLIGHT OF MEXICAN FARMER.

Chicago, April 27.—One of the most useless, therefore, senseless, series of reports ever printed in your paper are those on the Indian farms of Mexico. Your staf correspondent is showing as much disrespect of the privilege of traveling in Mexico as you accuse aliens of doing here.

We do not see in THE TRIBUNE anything about the intolerable miseries of the Mexican laborer in the oil fields. Why does not your staf correspondent report on that as minutely as on the Mexican Indian farmer? Why does not he send, and you publish, the truth about the utter humiliations to which the native oil workers in Mexico were subjected for generations by the alien [in that country they were aliens] managers and other executives of the Standard, the Sinclair, the Shell, and other oil interests?

The condition of the Mexican Indian, farmer or otherwise, is a sad one, yes. The undersigned had ample opportunity to observe it in the state of Jalisco. The Indian farmer thereabout was as poor, as abject, as we have kept many of our own rural people here in the southern states. And what do we do to correct conditions in our own country? At any rate, there certainly is nothing that we, as American citizens, can do to help the Mexican Indian farmer—or is there? Just what is the sense, the purpose, of those reports you are publishing? Other very un-American events have gone on in Mexico—bloody religious persecution, for instance—and THE TRIBUNE has reported little or nothing about them. Why? What is the purpose, and the spirit, behind the reports under reference?

P. F. TOWERS.

DEFENDS THE COTTONWOOD.

Chicago, April 29.—The WPA worker's observations on cottonwood vs. elm trees, published in the Voice of the People this week, is an example of half-baked thinking. I admire the elm tree very much, but that is no reason for chopping down cottonwood trees that give ample shade and for replacing them with elms that require many years if they are ever to be of service.

The cottonwoods flourish under conditions that kill elm trees. Here in Chicago, where neighborhoods build up and run down inside of 25 years, we need quick growing trees like the cottonwood.

Far better to occupy WPA workers in replacing sidewalks than in chopping down trees. As to the cotton, all cottonwoods do not produce cotton.

THINKER.

LIKES SCIENCE ARTICLES.

Downers Grove, Ill., April 26.—I wish to express my appreciation for the most interesting article in last SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE, "The Eighth Wonder of the World." Accounts such as this and others found under the Graphic laboratory of popular science I frequently find helpful in my high school classes in general science, physics, and chemistry.

May I suggest that a similar article in the near future concerning Chicago's drainage and sewage disposal system would be equally interesting? I also believe that a bound collection of some of these articles for school use would be worth while. I would be interested in having a part in such a plan if thought practicable. H. W. POWERS.

HOUSING IN MILWAUKEE.

Oak Park, Ill., April 29.—I note your dispatch of this morning on the federal housing project in Milwaukee, and I happen to know some of the conditions of private housing there. Milwaukee has had nothing decent to offer a young couple in moderate circumstances with a child. The first question asked is, are there any children? If there are, that ends it. I cite a particular case. A young couple with one child, salary $125 a month. Through the aid of interested friends they finally succeeded in securing a small apartment at $37 a month [more than their income justified] in a building where the aid of plain clothes men had to be called because the milk was being constantly stolen before it could be taken in, and where the clothes were taken from the line. In the rear coal barges empty their cargo and their little place is constantly covered with coal dirt. If they could pay $90 or $100 a month they would be all right, but even up to $45 or $50 there is nothing for people with children.

So I cannot see that there is anything in the federal housing there to offer competition with private interests. This young couple is hopeful of getting into Greendale, and they will be accepted if he is not likely to be transferred soon.

WOULD KEEP THE KIDS BUSY.

Chicago, April 27.—How to waste taxpayers' money: Give the teachers a week's rest; turn the kids out in the street for a week. Call it "cleanup week."

They are cleaning up all right. Set the neighbor's barn on fire; on Tuesday one of them threw a stone through my auto window in a gas station at 26th street and Kildare avenue. This kid needs cleaning up with a club.

The juvenile problem will never be solved with giving children more time to bum the streets, hitching trucks, starting fires, or getting in front of half-baked auto drivers with bicycles.

C. F. K.

BUT, IS IT ART?

Chicago, April 28.—Insanity in art should be the title of Doris Lee's mural which has been installed in the postoffice department at Washington, according to THE TRIBUNE article and accompanying picture. May the gods preserve us from what posterity will think of us, judged by this picture—deformity, imbecility, asininity, and land knows what else. Yes, this is an excellent picture to place on the national postoffice walls and to pay for with our own money, the taxpayers' pennies! Or is the Lee picture art? A TRIBUNE READER.

FIVE MINUTES OF "SNOW WHITE."

Chicago, April 28.—Since when do they use the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium grounds for a publicity stunt for a downtown café? Twelve hundred patients were kept from their rest, which is the cure for tuberculosis. Most of them stood up for three hours to see a performance which lasted five minutes. Something should be done to abolish such doings.

We appreciate the recreation that is given us, but if we are to witness anything like our experience on Wednesday, April 27, any more, we don't care for any recreation. GUESS WHO?

Stylist Yields to Style; Takes to Wedge Sole

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Whether you like the things or not, wedged sole footgear is getting about and on some pretty persnickity feet at that! Some people protest violently the lack of beauty or the distressing quality of clumsiness that such footwear indicates at first, but the impression doesn't last unless you're a die-hard.

The summer arrivals gaudily splashed with vivid color contrast are especially easy to take, on or off the foot.

Making the objectionable wedge less apparent, the shoe designers have done a good job of camouflage with vertical stripes of yellow, red, bright blue, and green against the lether. Bright colored materials are used as paint, applied without restraint, and the results are some highly picturesque foot covers that aren't brogues, sandals, espadrilles, oxfords, or clogs, but a cockeyed mixture of all.

No propaganda, pressure, or brute force would make us say they flatter the feet or that we'd wear them unless we wangled an early vacation [four weeks would do] and trotted them out to make conversation.

We were a trifle rabid against them when they first came to town. Now, after seeing the giddy painted striped and highly colored models, we have changed our mind and like them for and when they're worn with country, sports, and play clothes.

They're infinitely better than the clumsy 3 inch deep clogs that caused a torrent of chatter when shown in the cruise and southern resort showings last January. You certainly can't break your neck with the wedge sole models, but that stunt was quite possible with the clogs.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Beulah Wright, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Wright of 8444 South Morgan street, to Carl Berghult of Chicago took place at 4:30 o'clock Saturday in the Joseph Bond chapel of the University of Chicago.

The wedding of Miss Shirley Witkowsky, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Witkowsky of Chicago, to Dr. Walter S. Polacheck, son of Mrs. Sigmund Polacheck of Milwaukee, will take place on June 1.

Ganz Conducts Lively Concert by Orchestra

BY CECIL SMITH.

Under the direction of Rudolph Ganz, guest conductor for the day, the Illinois Symphony orchestra put in a vigorous and spirited afternoon in the interests of modern French music at the Great Northern theater yesterday. The concert was the first of a series of six attractive programs to be given this week by the Federal Music project in recognition of National Music week.

The novelty of the day was Albert Roussel's Third symphony, in G minor. Other items listed were Debussy's early "Scotch March" and three compositions of Maurice Ravel, the song cycle "Shéhérazade," revived after ten years and sung by Mary Ann Kaufman, soprano, the "Pavane for a Dead Infanta," and the "Spanish Rhapsody."

The symphony was the third work by Roussel, who died last August, to be introduced here this season to a public far too unfamiliar with his work. Earlier in the year Hans Lange conducted both the "Suite in F" and "Pour une Fête de Printemps."

The G minor symphony was written for the fiftieth anniversary of the Boston Symphony orchestra, was first played by that group, and was revived in Boston in October, 1937. Outside of Boston it has hardly been known at all in America. Yesterday's performance indicated that this neglect is peculiarly unwaranted. The symphony is fertile in important musical ideas strongly put together, and instinct with deep feeling. The slow movement and the scherzo are especially happy, the one for its eloquent rise to a sweeping melodic climax at the end and the other for its pungent use of sharp cross rhythms. The harmonic style of the whole symphony is conventional enough not to outrage auditors whose ears are sensitive to excesses of dissonance, yet it is fresh, individual, and masculine.

Miss Kaufman approached the rare and exquisite "Shéhérazade" songs with humanizing warmth, and projected their musical meaning with clarity.

The orchestra faced all its music squarely and realistically, and if all the subtlest nuances did not quite come out, one must admit that the players had a tremendous amount of difficult music to learn in a single week.

ENGAGEMENTS

Waterbury, Conn., May 1.—[Special.]—Hiram Lister Kilborn of Waterbury has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Lois Hall Kilborn, to William Torres of Chicago, formerly of Waterbury. Miss Kilborn attended St. Margaret's school here and is a member of the Waterbury Junior league. Mr. Torres, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Armand Torres, attended Dartmouth college and Columbia university.

Mrs. Samuel Whipple Gehr of Evanston announces the engagement of her daughter, Eleanor Bostock, to Frank L. Gibson, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ross C. Gibson of Chicago. Both Miss Gehr and Mr. Gibson were graduated from Monmouth college and Mr. Gibson received his degree in law from the University of Chicago.

Paulist Choir Gives Angelic Tone to Songs

BY EDWARD BARRY.

The Paulist Choristers of Chicago, whose history runs back thirty-four years and whose exploits include successful tours of the United States, Canada, and Europe, sang their annual program in Orchestra hall yesterday. The concert was intended partly to mark the tenth anniversary of Father Eugene F. O'Malley as director of the choir. He sang as a boy under Father Finn, founder of the Paulist choristers.

During his decade as the organization's head Father O'Malley has made no compromise with the second rate. In execution and in choice of music yesterday's program was vowed to the purest artistic ideals.

In the sacred music of Bach and of the western and eastern churches the disembodied tone of the boy sopranos [who compose more than half of the choir's strength of a hundred or more] produced an especially fitting effect. The sound is light, full, and angelic all at the same time, if you can imagine such a satisfactory combination of qualities.

For secular music Father O'Malley went as far back as Di Lasso, Dowland, and Carey [sixteenth and seventeenth centuries], came as far forward as Felix Borowski [contemporary Chicagoan]. The program was salted and peppered with soloists, two boy sopranos [John Lynch and Billy Watson] among them.

The blend of boys' and men's voices produces a tone which boasts both luster and solidity. This basic material the director has bent to musical uses marked by great restraint. There is never an unctuous piece of phrasing, never a purely theatrical effect.

Aside from improving its diction [there were some songs—and not the complex polyphonic ones, either—in which it was almost impossible to make out the words] the choir might work toward greater freedom and a more flowing style. There is a frequent impression of tenseness.

The Bach "Planets, Stars, and Airs of Space" was sung as a memorial tribute to Frank M. Dunford, a chorister, and Henry P. Duggan, a member of the board of directors, both of whom died within the last year.

A huge audience applauded the choir, its director, and the soloists.

TIMING—THE CRUX OF SQUEEZE PLAYS.

[Copyright: 1938: By Ely Culbertson.]

By all odds, the most difficult feature of squeeze plays is timing. And it is ignorance on that point that has kept the ranks of squeeze masters as thin as it is. Consider the two apparently similar, but actually different, methods of playing the following hand:

West, dealer.
North-South vulnerable.

NORTH
♠K 4 2
♥K 4 3
♣9 8 5 4 2

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	3 diam'ds	4 no trump
5 hearts	Double	Pass	5 no trump
Pass	6 no tr'p	Pass	Pass
Pass

East's three diamond bid obviously was an attempted "nuisance bid," and indeed it did make matters rather difficult for North-South. South selected his four no trump jump overcall as the strongest bid he dared make. West felt that his nonvulnerability made a sacrifice bid at hearts attractive. But, even though North doubled this, South was afraid that there was a laydown slam in the hand and went out for it. North, with two kings, accepted South's strong invitation. Obviously six clubs would have been easy, but South shied off that contract because he felt that the opponents' bidding had indicated that a defensive cross-ruff might develop, i. e., East might ruff an opening heart lead and West might ruff a diamond return.

West opened his singleton diamond. East played the queen and declarer won. He cashed the ace and king of clubs, then entered dummy with the club nine, and led a diamond toward the jack-ten. East was not so accommodating as to put up his king, however, and from that point declarer struggled in vain for the twelfth trick. No squeeze could be developed, and the slam contract was down one.

Now let us note the result of a very simple change in the timing. Let us make East a gracious present of the first trick. His return would make no difference and, therefore, let us assume it would be the heart jack. We win with the ace and, as before, cash the ace, king of clubs, then enter dummy with the club nine to finesse in diamonds. Our ten holds. We then cash the rest of the clubs, at which point we are reduced to five cards, the A-5 of spades, the 6 of hearts, and A-J of diamonds. West holds the J-10-7 of spades and the Q-10 of hearts. Dummy has its three spades intact, and the K-4 of hearts. East properly has kept the Q-9-8 of spades and the K-9 of diamonds. We now cash the diamond ace and cause West acute discomfort. He cannot let go a heart because then dummy's K-4 would become good, hence must reduce to the J-10 of spades. Thereupon we let go dummy's four of hearts. East, of course, follows suit in diamonds. Now we lead a heart to the king and it is East's turn to sweat. If he lets go the diamond king, we return to our spade ace and cash the diamond jack; if he lets go the spade eight we lead to the spade ace, lead the five to the king, and cash the four spot for the winning trick.

Obviously this terrific difference results merely from ducking the first diamond.

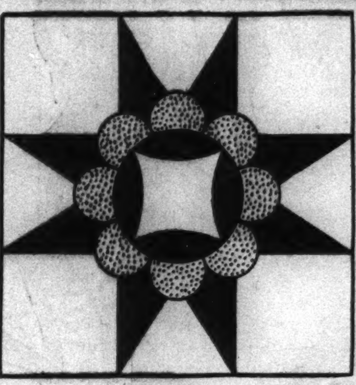
Star Tulip Is Reminiscent of an Old Pattern



STAR TULIP.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"Star Tulip" is a variation of the old Dutch pattern "Full Blown Tulip," and more simple to execute than the design from which it was adapted. The applique block illustrated today is done in orange and yellow against a white background, instead of the riotous colors incorporated in the original coverlet.

Purplish red, yellow, orange, green, and brown, all homespun and home dyed was the combination selected by the Pennsylvania Dutchwoman who sewed and quilted the first spread. "Star Tulip" measures 16 inches square and the applique blocks are set together in an alternate arrangement with plain blocks and surrounded by a 6 inch white border and ½ inch bias binding.

For a limited period Nancy Cabot offers 10 quilt patterns of her own choice at a price of 10 cents for the group (12 cents by mail). Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower.

Easy to Reduce at 50; Simply Start Walking

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

A correspondent asks for exercises for women in their fifties—exercises that will not produce the flabbiness that some reducing treatments leave and will not be too strenuous. Well, there is one exercise that you can do until you're 100 which has all the virtues.

Yes, it is walking! But just try to get women to pass up the street car or bus to go a mile which they could do on their feet just as well. Here, of course, too, if you're out of step for years, you will begin by setting your goal at one mile, increasing to two and three. And the daily practice will keep your figure for you and will burn up a lot of avoirdupois by the consumption of good, fresh air. You must have the correct shoes to walk in, of course.

Then, without danger, you women can go in for the simple stretching exercise if you are in good health and not recently emerged from an operation. In fact, unless you are in top-hole health, we suggest you do no exercise unless you have your doctor's approval. Ordinarily, however, you can get down on the floor and stretch yourself from head to toe, stretch your arms wide, your legs long, your torso from waist up. You can do this stretching work before you hop out of bed to get into the trick of it. But it is more effectively done on the floor. It's more businesslike.

And you can eat more lightly as you go along. This won't harm you. Simply reduce your intake by one-third, say, eating what you are accustomed to if that is agreeing with you. And when the older woman is reducing she must go in for throat and chin hardening with consistent daily massage. Follow with an ice rub and you will come through without the flabby skin and throat.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

There's a new red lipstick out now that is one of the best shades we've seen in a long time—a glorious, vibrant red that does exciting things for the average face.

There is a whole makeup keyed to this exciting true red lipstick. The rouge is either cream or compact; take your choice. It's a slick shade, but don't use too much—a good rule to follow with any shade.

The powder to wear with this is a honey. It's one of those shades that's close to a healthy, average skin tone. This powder should be a swell tint for nine out of ten women. If you wish you can have a foundation lotion in the shade that does right by the powder and lipstick, too.

This foundation lotion, by the way, is a summer delight. It's cool against the skin, films it delicately, and is practically invisible and never feels heavy on the face. But it does insure the kind of makeup that stays fresh for hours.

All of these new makeup aids are keyed to harmonize. But you can obtain the items singly. In this you'll find a particularly moist lipstick for those who want it as well as one of the average good texture.

Musical Show Received with Gusty Acclaim

"YOU NEVER KNOW."

A musical comedy with Clifton Webb, Lupe Velez, and Libby Holman as stars. Score by Cole Porter and Robert Katscher; lyrics by Cole Porter. Given in the Grand Opera house May 1, 1938, under the management of John Shubert.

THE CAST:

Gaston	Clifton Webb
Baron de Romer	Rex O'Malley
Avril	April
Ida Courtney	Toby Wing
George	George Dobbs
Maria	Lupe Velez
Paulette	Jacqueline Dahlia
Mme. Baltin	Libby Holman
M. Henri Baltin	Charles Kemper
The Comptroleur	Ray Dennis and others.

BY CHARLES COLLINS.

Chicago's first nighters, whose hunger for musical shows has been denied for half a year, received "You Never Know," Cole Porter's latest piece of lyric sophistication, with gusty enthusiasm at the Grand Opera house yesterday evening. This was a première that recalled pre-depression conditions in attendance and audience response; every one seemed to be in a homecoming mood. Applause for returning favorites, such as Clifton Webb and Libby Holman, and for movie recruits, such as Lupe Velez and Toby Wing, came in the customary salvos.

This entertainment is musical comedy of the intimate type, which uses its small but educated group of choristers as characters and which tells a story with a legitimate plot. It is not so intimate, however, that it can be called a small affair, for the cast contains thirty players, and the stage settings reveal five fairly lively places in the formerly merry city of Paris. Its trappings are bright expressions of the modern spirit in decoration; its songs are witty in the current double-rhyming fashion, and its mood is "civilized." The latter word is put in quotation marks to suggest that "You Never Know" deals, in an airy and amusing way, with the opportunities for adultery among the upper classes.

Clifton Webb, whose sense of worldliness is so acute that he never fails to mention Noel Coward in his dialog, is the chief comedian in this fable of bachelor intrigue, and Lupe Velez, new to the Chicago stage, although familiar to film patrons, is the playgirl of the plot. Mr. Webb's line of conduct in song-and-dance shows is well known, and here he deports himself more or less as usual, except that he appears as a gentleman's gentleman instead of the real thing. But Señorita Velez, "in person," is a novelty, and deserves discussion.

She represents [acts is too strong a word] a maid on her night out, masquerading as a high-born lady and keeping a rendezvous with an alleged baron, who is, in fact, that noble fellow's ambitious valet. She is as pretty as the camera has proclaimed her; she has a gleaming smile, a roguish eye, and a general air of blitheness and tomboy gayety. She radiates good nature and high spirits.

Lupe's voice is on the hoarse side, both in speech and in song, and she has much to learn about the arts of entertainment, but the heartiness of her personality conquers her flaws of technique. About 10 p. m. she breaks loose with a series of brief burlesques of motion picture stars which are effective strokes of unkind caricature. Her victims include Katharine Hepburn, Shirley Temple, Dolores Del Rio, and Gloria Swanson. This is mimicry with a meat ax, but it causes the audience to rejoice.

Libby Holman's assignments on the program are secondary, but they permit her to sing two of the score's principal numbers in her famous moaning style—"You Never Know" and "One Step Ahead of Love." Incidentally, all of the songs are unstaled by the radio and will remain in that virgin condition until the show ends its stage career.

Toby Wing figures in the proceedings as a Parisian cocotte with plenty to say on the subject of her boudoir exploits. Rey O'Malley is excellent as the philandering baron who has Clifton Webb as his valet.

Miss Charlotte Chandler Will Wed Tomorrow

BY JUDITH CASS.

MR. AND MRS. BUCKINGHAM CHANDLER of Winnetka have departed for New York to attend the wedding tomorrow of Mr. Chandler's daughter, Charlotte, to Milton Roburtson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roburtson of New York.

The wedding will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Beekman Hill church, with the Rev. Talbot Russell officiating. There will be no reception after the wedding in order to allow guests, most of whom will be from out of town, to entrain for home.

No previous announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Chandler to Mr. Roburtson, although Miss Chandler told her family when she visited here at Eastertime that she and the young man were engaged. Their wedding plans were advanced suddenly.

Miss Chandler's mother, Mrs. Frank Bostrom, and Dr. Bostrom have gone to New York from their home in New Orleans for the wedding, and Mrs. Paul Scott Hansen, the former Betty Coit, a stepsister of Miss Chandler, will be there, and so will another stepsister, Miss Celia Coit, who is a student at Vassar. Dr. and Mrs. Hansen were married in March and are living in Boston.

Miss Chandler, who has been living in New York for the last year, is a grandniece of the famed London merchant, Harry Gordon Selfridge. She was introduced to society at a supper-dance at the Indian Hill club in the fall of 1934.

Young Mr. Roburtson is a writer, now connected with Bellevue hospital.

The newlyweds will depart on a honeymoon to an unannounced destination.

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

There's something intensely appealing about this dip into the lives of six showgirls.

The action starts on a New Year's eve. Their show is closing. The six plan a reunion party a year from that night. . . .

During the ensuing twelve months a great deal happens. One girl goes to prison. One meets tragic death. One, engaged to an absconder—well—I really shouldn't go on and on like this, for if I do I'll spoil a good picture for you.

Episodes are cleverly strung together, as you'll realize when you note that six separate boy-meets-girl yarns are deftly woven into one film fabric.

The heroines are all intelligently and interestingly portrayed. You'll like Claire Trevor best, I think, as the wholesome, mothering one of the six. The male rôles are well taken. Direction was able and staging, photography, dialog, etc., are splendid.

Item: Claire Trevor, you know, has been mentioned as a possible candidate for Academy award because of her consistently fine supporting performances. Here's hoping that one day she gets what, most assuredly, she has coming to her.

See you tomorrow.

Looking at Hollywood by Ed Sullivan

The Week's Wash

Hollywood, Cal., May 1.—Big excitement of the Hollywood week-end was that now famous $340,000 poker game at Long Beach, Cal., in which a wealthy Britisher, Harry T. Clifton, holding two pairs at poker, lost $150,000 to Lew Brice, with three sevens. Tommy Guinan, Jack Reynolds, and George Lewis dropped out of the game when Clifton's pair of jacks showed, and the final card disposed of a $340,000 pot in checks and I. O. U.'s. Britisher Clifton stopped payment of his checks, and his attorneys will hale the other players into Superior court on Friday, alleging that Brice misrepresented himself as a wealthy man. The papers report that Clifton has been bombarded with letters from all sections of the country since the story broke, so you'll pardon my imagining the contents of the letters.

Dear Mr. Clifton:

You are new to this country and there are several opportunities which have not been brought to your attention, money-in-the-bank propositions which should appeal to a man of your daring, vigor, and experimental mind. I refer to the Brooklyn bridge, which I am about to sell. Any one, Mr. Clifton, in control of Brooklyn bridge will have the vast and rich borough of Brooklyn at his mercy and the passport visa privilege alone will recoup the price of your investment. Or you could have the Queen Mary tow it back to England and cut it up into cricket wickets. I am prepared to sell the Brooklyn bridge for $150,000, and if the bus service does not break down I will be at your side on Friday. Do not make a move until you see me.

JOSHUA DOAKES.

Dear Old Boy:

You probably do not remember me, but we met in a revolving door upon your arrival in this country, and I've often thought of you since then here in Pittsburgh, where I have my motion picture studios. Anticipating your question, I will answer it: The advantage of locating my studios here is twofold, Mr. Clifton. In the first place, I am closer by 2,700 miles to the New York and European market than M.-G.-M. or Monogram. In the second place, I have my choice of the Alleghany, Monongahela, Susquehanna, and Delaware rivers for my marine spectacles, of which I am very fond. Also, I have John Lewis, Senator Guffey, and Marshall Goldberg at hand for my newsreel shots I am about to produce my most ambitious motion picture, a night club melodrama which will be filmed in an airplane flying upside down above Pittsburgh, and I have inside information that this will win the academy award. While I do not need outside capital I do feel that to promote Anglo-American good will you should be permitted to share in this. Wire $50,000, or I will come and get it.

GERALD INGOT.

Dear Mr. Clifton:

You have heard, undoubtedly, of the giant redwood trees of California, which have been in our family for generations. I am called east suddenly by Dean Lewis Lawes to deliver a valedictory address at my old alma mater, and find myself short of a cap and gown, so must sell immediately. Please leave $50,000 in your hotel safe and I will pick it, I mean I will pick it up tonight.

Hesitantly yours,

OSCAR PRATTFALL.

Harry T. Clifton, Los Angeles, Cal.:

Wire immediately $76,117,10. Prompt action on your part can secure clear title to Harvard university, mortgage on which is being foreclosed secretly. Wire me care of Joe's Klassy Billiard room, where I have a suite behind the eight ball. RONALD CAROM.

Dear Cliffie:

Papers say one of the men in your little game claimed he had presented south wing to Johns Hopkins hospital. This is impossible, as I own the south wing and am just selling it. Send $100 immediately to clinch deal, and I will take balance of $100,000 in notes. DR. ULYSSES ALLERGIC.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL.

"Now tell me, has the later will been found?" inquired Mrs. Vickery briskly to her cousin's widow.

She was one of those large, abrupt women who are commonly supposed to hide a heart of gold under a rugged exterior. They may therefore "speak their minds," ride roughshod over milder persons and still retain with no pain to themselves the reputation of being a good sort.

Her cousin, Robert Sandal, after living for years as though bankruptcy were just around the corner, had left a small fortune, so it was said, a piece of duplicity which had been much debated by the family to its remotest branches, a condemnation from which his widow was not excluded.

The rumored size of his estate soared with every repetition of the story, and when it was learned that the only will discovered had been made at the time of his marriage and left everything to his wife, Elizabeth's guilt was felt by her detractors to be clearly established.

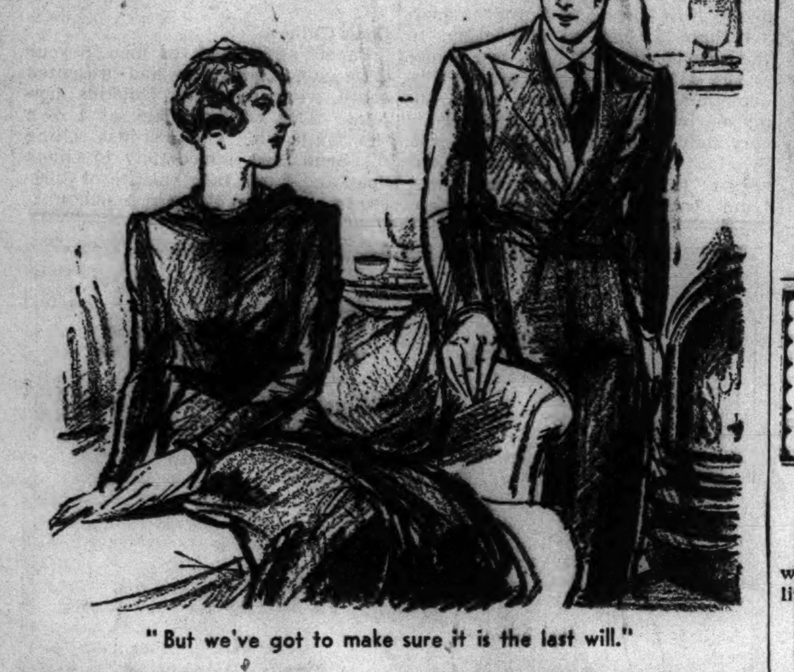
Logically a later will to the same purpose would have served these busybodies better, but logic is rarely invoked where a will is concerned for some reason. Even quite virtuous people are liable to lose their heads on these occasions, moved perhaps by some prehistoric predatory instinct to share the loot.

No loot should have been in question here, since Robert Sandal had wife and children for whom to provide, but hope is free and there was always the possibility that a later will might disclose a legacy for this one or that.

Mrs. Vickery had been away at the time of her cousin's sudden death three months ago. Returning to hear these rumors, she had gone promptly to see Elizabeth ostensibly to offer sympathy, in truth to sift the matter to the bottom. Hence her question, with many others, "Has the later will been found?"

"O, no," said Elizabeth Sandal, faintly astonished.

She had seen little of Mrs. Vickery during recent years, for there had been no money for entertaining in her slender household budget and she had had little leisure for it. She was 45 and already the days of her youth and early marriage, when she had been happy, carefree, and well dressed, seemed sometimes a fantastic dream. She had faced what countless other post-war women had had to face, drudgery and self-denial, believing it necessary, and making the best of it for the sake of her children.



"But we've got to make sure it is the last will."

If she had been monstrously used that old will made long ago had obscured the truth perhaps, by reminding her of the man she had married rather than the difficult and irascible creature he had become and the happiness of having the means at last to give Oliver and Dorothea so much that had been denied them left her no room for personal repining.

Mrs. Vickery now proceeded to disturb this serenity.

"But how very strange!" she exclaimed. "Have you looked everywhere? Have you searched the house?"

"Well, no," admitted her victim. "Robert would never have kept his business papers in the house. He was far too meticulous."

"Does a meticulous man ignore his own children and fail to provide for them?" Mrs. Vickery inquired sharply. She could not believe it of Robert, she had known him too well. Elizabeth could take it from her that the will would be found tucked away somewhere and it was her duty to find it. The law required it, justice required it, decency to her children required it, and a great deal more to the same effect.

Elizabeth Sandal emerged rather shaken from this welter of gratuitous advice. She could dismiss the impertinence of her visitor and the suggestion that Robert had left a will tucked away somewhere was merely fantastic in one who had docketed bills and letters and receipts and raised Cain if any member of the household did not rigidly follow his example but in her mention of the children Mrs. Vickery had touched a vulnerable spot so that what had been a barely realized shadow now became a threatening cloud.

Was it possible that Oliver and Dorothea were not satisfied about the will, could not see that what was hers, was theirs equally as a matter of course?

She remembered that the brief old document found at her bank where it had been lying since Robert went to the front in 1915, had seemed to them highly ridiculous and sentimental.

"To my beloved wife."

"But it is as old as the hills," said Oliver. "He must have forgotten its existence. There will be another somewhere."

"Well, darling, if not, this one is legal and no one is likely to embarrass you by publishing it in the newspapers," she had pointed out to him dryly.

"I daresay not, mother, but we've got to make sure it is the last will, you know. We can't just take the first one that comes to hand," her son had declared.

She had thought how like Robert he was in such matters, exact, impatient of compromise, but now she was less sure it had been only that.

All this talk about the will among the relatives was perhaps inevitable, but how had they heard of it, unless from the children? It was easy to assure herself that it was quite unimportant, but a sense of trouble persisted and with it the conviction that this was part of a wider issue, a vague dissatisfaction which she had refused to recognize. Now that she was gloriously free to think only of them and what she could do for them, wasn't there something lacking in their response?

"But they have been splendid," her heart cried out. "I am expecting too much. If they seem casual, it doesn't mean anything, it is just the fashion of their generation."

Dorothea and Oliver Sandal had taken charge, at their father's death with what they believed to be every consideration for their mother and some personal inconvenience. They had arranged the funeral, notified friends and relatives, and ordered mourning though omitting to wear it themselves, considering it a hideous and sentimental custom which ought to be abolished for the public good.

Oliver and Dorothea were capable, popular, good looking, busy young people, each with a career of sorts and a world of interest outside their home. As soon as the probable size of the estate became known, Dorothea engaged two well trained maids in place of the single handed incompetent then in residence, and Oliver had the telephone installed for his mother's further convenience and perhaps his own.

It was wonderful to be free of anxiety about ways and means again, to have leisure and new clothes and a well run house, but though mentally she might dwell upon this happiness, her physical response was painful in the extreme. She could neither sleep at night nor be still by day. The shock of Robert's death and the too sudden release from the necessity to do anything at all after years of doing rather too much had brought her to the verge of a breakdown, as retirement will sometimes kill a man who has long looked forward to it.

TO EACH OTHER'S ARMS.

Karen went to see John Fleming at a time when she knew his nephew would not be at home. The old man listened, chuckling, and said, "You little devil, you mean to get him if you can, don't you?"

"Yes," she told him. "You're wishing me luck, aren't you?"

He nodded. "If I were younger I wouldn't."

"That's a nice compliment," she said, dimpling. She rose to go and shook hands. "You'll be sure to phone me."

"Yes, I don't like the tarnation things, but Gord had to have one put in. Sure, I'll help you steal a good man's freedom from him."

"To get him something better, we both hope," she amended.

The telephone call came next day. Karen got in her car and drove down till she could see the main road. A man on horseback jogged along it. She picked him up with field glasses. The man was Gordon Stone.

Her car passed him five minutes later. Around a bend in the road, three hundred yards in front of him, she stopped, let as much air out of the front tire as she could, and jabbed a knife into the rubber side wall.

When Gordon reached the scene three minutes later she was hauling tools out of the tool box on the running board. Already she had donned her coveralls.

She said, as once before she had done eons ago: "Please, I can't seem to manage this. If you wouldn't mind helping me, sir——"

Gordon took off the tire and replaced it with a spare.

"Awfully good of you to help me," she said. "This happened once before, didn't it? I suppose you think I do it on purpose."

"Not exactly," he smiled. "But I'm glad to be of service."

"My name is Karen Gilbert," she mentioned.

"Not news," he said. "We've met before, you know."

"So we have, but I thought you had forgotten it." Her brave eyes stabbed straight at him.

"I've been busy," he answered awkwardly.

"So I hear." Straight and slender, she faced him gallantly, chin up. He did not know how her heart was hammering against her ribs. "I did make this puncture on purpose. With a knife. I wanted to ask you a question. Will you marry me?"

Struck dumb, he stared at her, a vision of gracious young loveliness, to him the most desirable woman in the world. The blood in his veins pounded. A warm glow flooded his body. He clamped down on desire with an iron will.

"I can't," he said hoarsely.

"Why can't you?" she demanded, and did not wait for an answer. "If I'm wrong—if you don't love me—it will be kind of you to get on your horse and ride away . . . for always. But if you do care for me—O, please stay."

Her voice was so low it was almost a murmur. Every fiber in him yearned for her. She had torn down his defenses. It would be cruelly humiliating to leave her now without telling the truth.

"God knows I love you," he cried, his voice rough with feeling. "But I can't marry you because I have been a branded felon. Your friends——"

She interrupted, her whole being quick with vibrant life. "My friends! They would like you as they do me; if they didn't they would not be my friends. All my life I shall be an unhappy woman if I am not your wife. I have never loved a man before. I'll never love another. Don't let silly pride stand between us if you love me. Everybody knows you were innocent. Isn't that enough?"

He said, "Our children, if we had any, would know their father had been a convict. Wouldn't that make you unhappy?"

"They would know their father was a strong man who had fought a good fight against a terrible injustice. They would be proud of him, as I am." She held out her hands in a gesture tender and giving. "O Gordon, you mustn't fight against fate. You are my mate. We both know it. I'll never let you go."

Into his harsh face came an expression she had never seen before. Love broke the lines as a spring thaw does the river ice.

"I give up," he said. "We'll belong to each other forever and ever."

And so at last they came after trouble and heartache to each other's arms.

Peter Grosscup Moon [Martha Carr], for whom Miss Nicolson was a bridesmaid, for her own wedding date already had been set, although no formal announcement of her engagement had been made. Young Mr. Abernathy did not come to Chicago to see his fiancée in the rôle of a bridesmaid because their wedding is taking place so soon that he will want to take more time off from business then to come here a few days early for the prenuptial entertaining.

Miss Nicolson's elder sister, Mrs. Orson Welles, is coming from New York for the wedding, but she will not bring with her her infant daughter, who has been named Christopher. Mr. Welles will come, too, if he is not playing in George Bernard Shaw's "Heartbreak House," the new play in the Mercury theater répertoire, in which he opened Friday night.

Miss Nicolson, a debutante of the 1936 season, is a graduate of the University School for Girls. Mr. Abernathy is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He and his bride will live in Kansas City.

Needlework Exhibit in Lake Forest Today.

The Lake Forest women who are on the board of the Alice Home hospital conduct a shop, the Trading Post, for the benefit of the hospital, and each month one of them gives a party to collect rummage to be sold at the post. This is Mrs. Richard H. Mabbatt's month to raise stock for the shop, and she is planning a two day exhibit today and tomorrow of needlework done by some of Lake Forest's most talented needlewomen.

Mrs. Mabbatt is opening her home for the exhibit, which will be held in the afternoons. The admission fee will be gifts for the Trading Post. About 60 articles will be displayed in the living room and library, among them several rugs, stools and chairs, firescreens, and other items. An unusual exhibit is the Japanese lady embroidered in silk by Mrs. Henry Isham, who now is working on a Japanese man to go with her. Several pairs of mules will be shown, but Mrs. John P. Bent has entered a pair of needlework shoes. Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy has loaned a pair of chairs, and Mrs. William A. P. Pullman is sending a rug, fire screen, and stool. Others who are contributing to the exhibit include Mrs. Frank Hixon, Mrs. George A. Richardson, Mrs. Edward J. Bermingham, Mrs. Kent Clow, Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. John Andrews King, Mrs. Edward D. Shumway, Mrs. Gilbert E. Porter III., Mrs. Charles Haffner Jr., Mrs. Kent Chandler, and Mrs. Albert B. Dick Jr.

Mrs. Coleman is president of the hospital board. Some of the members are Mrs. Lester Armour, Mrs. John P. Kellogg, Mrs. Edward K. Welles, Mrs. Ralph H. Poole, Mrs. Stephen Y. Hord, Mrs. Albert D. Farwell, Mrs. Farwell Winston, and Mrs. Walter S. Brewster.

Mrs. Charles Kittle Off to Derby Tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles Kittle of the Drake is leaving tomorrow for Louisville, Ky., where she formerly lived, to visit friends and to attend the Derby. Miss Kittle has taken a little house on the Albert Pardridge estate in Wheaton for the summer and will move into it early in June. Her son, Chuck, returns on June 15 from Andover. He is on Andover's golf team, and undoubtedly will take his place among the best of the Chicago Golf club's juniors this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Fentress, who have been staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress, since they returned from New York, are moving back into their Glencoe home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeds Mitchell plan to go to their summer home on Nantucket Island the middle of June.

Jean Thackery to Wed Thomas D. Hicks Saturday.

The wedding of Miss Jean Thackery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winfield Thackery Jr., to Thomas D. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. John Hicks of Kenilworth, will take place next Saturday at the Barrington Hills Country club, with a reception following at the club.

Mrs. John Marshall Ling will be matron of honor for Miss Thackery, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Samuel Mahon of Ottumwa, Ia., Mrs. Richard Fency, Miss Ruth Kniep, Mrs. Howard J. White Jr., and Miss Marion Bopp. Hunter Hicks will be best man for his brother and the ushers will be John Hicks, another brother of the bridegroom; Thomas W. Thackery III., brother of the bride; Mr. Ling, Edward Cullen, Robert Terhune of Peoria, and Lionel O'Keeffe of Boston, Mass.

After a month's wedding trip to England, France, and Switzerland Mr. Hicks and his bride will live in Evanston. Robert E. Kenyon Jr., a cousin of the bride, will play the organ for the wedding.

Business Men's Orchestra Gives Concert This Evening.

The Chicago Business Men's orchestra will give a concert at 8:15 this evening in Orchestra hall. George Dasch will conduct, and Sonia Sharnova, contralto, will be the soloist.

The Musicians Club of Women, formerly the Amateur Musical Club of Chicago, will give its spring luncheon at noon today at the Blackstone hotel. William M. McGovern of Northwestern university will speak on "Behind the Scenes in Eastern Asia."

The fifth annual luncheon meeting of the Woman's College Board of Chicago will be held at 12:30 o'clock today in the banquet hall of the Chicago Athletic association. Miss Helen Monchow, of Mount Holyoke college, and president of the board, will preside. Dr. Aaron J. Brumbaugh will discuss "Choosing a College Wisely."

The annual luncheon meeting of the Lake Shore League of Women Voters will be held at 12:30 o'clock today at the Fortnightly club. Prof. James Weber Linn will speak.

The recently organized west suburban auxiliary of the Chicago Maternity center will hold its first annual business meeting today at the home of Mrs. Edward H. Pennebaker in La Grange. The auxiliary is planning a bridge and garden party to be held in June at the home of Mrs. George F. Christians in River Forest.

Today's Features

ON W-G-N.

Attilio Baggiore.

A streamlined version of the opera "Martha" on Henry Weber's Pageant of Melody and a three way broadcast describing the opening of the annual American Red Cross convention, with a message from President Roosevelt, headline the W-G-N and Mutual network broadcasts today. The President's message will be heard at 1:30 p. m. From Washington the broadcast will swing to Ottawa, Canada, where Lord Tweedsmuir will speak, and then to San Francisco, where the speaker will be Norman H. Davis, chairman of the American Red Cross.

The 45 minute production of the opera "Martha" will be presented from W-G-N's audience studio at 9:30 p. m., and will feature Attilio Baggiore as Lionel, Kathryn Witwer as Martha, Mark Love as Plunkett, Elizabeth Brown as Nancy, and the W-G-N Concert orchestra and choral group.

Don Pedro will return to W-G-N with his "Magic Violin" at 11:15 a. m. He will be heard every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at the same hour.

June Baker's Home Management program will be heard at 1:15 p. m. today only, instead of her usual time, 1:30 p. m.

Other features:
8 a. m.—Everyday Words, five minutes of correct English.
10:30—Painted Dreams.
10:45—Stella Dallas.

I really don't know why I should bother to write about potato salads, since most women would rather play around with the potatoes, eggs, and salad dressing, according to their own pleasure than follow a recipe. Perhaps it's because many cooks like to look at potato salad recipes to see whether or not they contain some "different ingredient" to compare the list with the things they like to mix into their own combinations.

There are many bad potato salads, but these are the result of underseasoning or use of stale potatoes more often than not. Select the ingredients you prefer, but use the tasting test to arrive at the proper seasonings, and always use freshly cooked potatoes.

If the potatoes are mixed with seasonings while still warm, they will absorb the flavors thoroughly and the salad is likely to be a very good one.

Picnic Potato Salad for Fifty.

15 pounds potatoes
1 pint French dressing
1 quart cut celery
⅓ cup chopped parsley
1 onion, chopped fine
1 dozen hard cooked eggs, diced
1¼ quarts boiled dressing
Salt, pepper

Wash potatoes and cook with skins on. Peel and dice in half inch cubes. Pour the French dressing over the warm potatoes and let stand for several hours. Add celery and remaining ingredients, using only half the boiled dressing. Save the remainder to top individual portions of salad. Mix salad lightly, season with salt and pepper to taste, and chill. The amounts given here will make salad enough for fifty servings from a No. 10 dipper.

Potato and Radish Salad.
[Serves eight.]

4 new potatoes, boiled in jackets
1 small onion, minced
½ teaspoon celery seed
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup chili sauce
¾ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon vinegar
3 bunches radishes, sliced
1½ cups diced celery

Peel and dice potatoes and add seasonings while they are still warm. Use more dressing if needed. Chill and add radishes and celery just before serving. Serve in lettuce lined salad bowl.

Potato, Chives, and Apple Salad.
[Serves four.]

1½ cups cooked diced potatoes
½ cup celery, cut fine
1 apple, diced
1½ tablespoons chopped pimiento
½ tablespoon chopped chives
French dressing, salt, pepper

Combine ingredients, chill, and serve in lettuce cups.

Potato and Bacon Salad.
[Serves six.]

4 cups diced warm potatoes
6 slices crisp bacon, crumbled
6 stuffed olives, chopped
1 pimiento, chopped
2 tablespoons chopped green onion or chives
½ cup French dressing

Combine well and chill. It may be necessary to add a little salt and pepper to the finished salad if the potatoes weren't salted when cooked.

Potato and Sardine Salad.
[Serves five.]

2 cups diced warm potatoes
8 sardines, flaked
1 small onion, minced
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons chopped dill pickle
French dressing to moisten

Combine ingredients and chill. Add salt and pepper if needed.

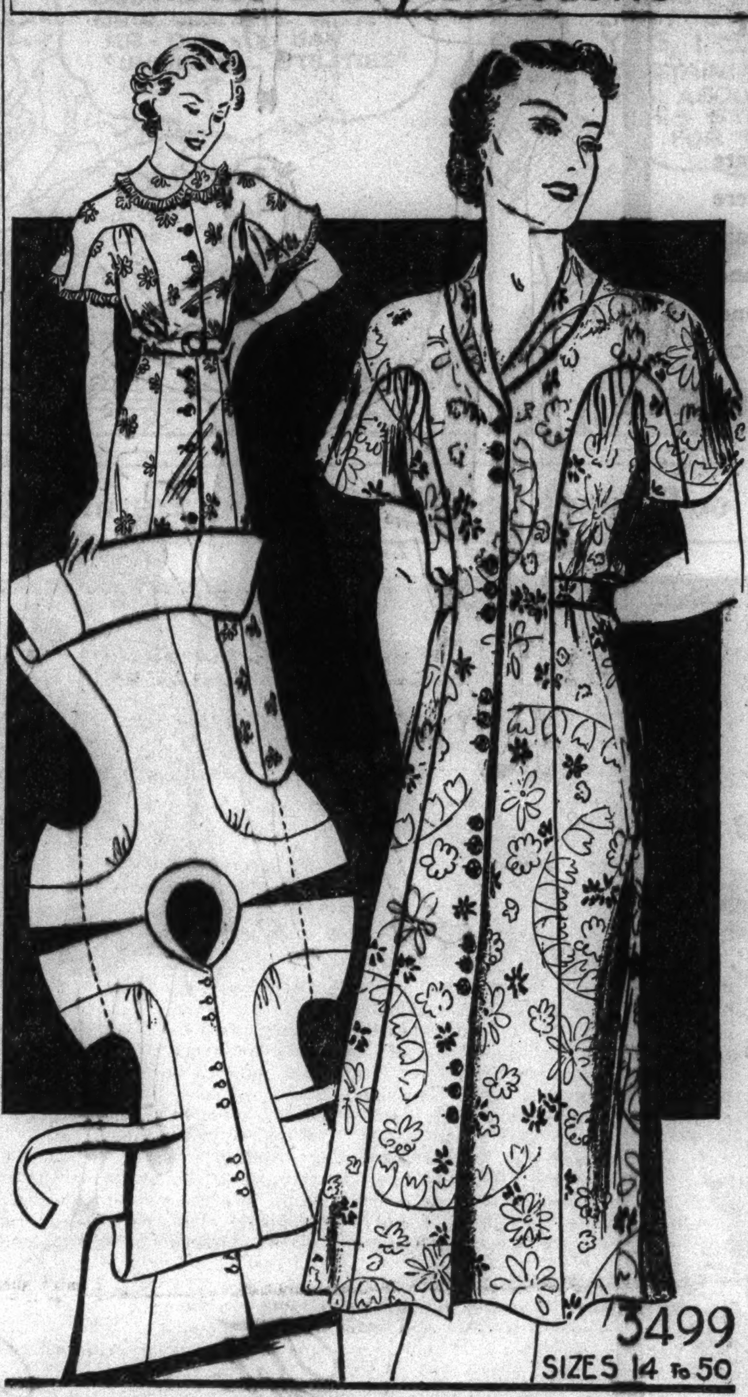
Flatters Every Silhouette



WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

Here's a slim, coatlike dress that flatters any figure. It may be worn all day around the home and is pretty enough to be suitable for hostessing informally during the summer. All the cottons, both plain and printed, make this a house dress of which to be proud. If you make it of silk, you will have a delightful informal frock for social wear.

The neckline may be high and round, decked out with a collar, or it may be a V with a rolled collar. Paneling down both back and front assure an air of slenderness. The sleeves are cut in one with the shoulder, making for easy sewing as well as comfort. The belt may extend only from the side seams, or it may encircle the waist completely. Buttons, you will notice, play a prominent rôle.

The cut of this practical and pretty dress allows you to fit it perfectly to the figure with a minimum of trouble.

Style No. 3499 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, and 20 years, and 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, and 50 inches bust measurement. Size 36 requires four and one-quarter yards of 39 inch material.

News for the Housewife

If you are looking for something new, beautiful, and different—a gift for a friend or a present for your own home—consider one of the charming new bowls that have just been introduced to Chicago. They are quite large, like salad bowls, and when you see them you think they are of hand-blown glass, for they have a delightful, uneven, hand-crafted appearance.

But they are not glass at all, but a new material that closely resembles it that is light as a feather and that won't break or crack. These bowls would be lovely filled with garden flowers or they may be used for salads.

They are available in a delectable azure blue, in white, and in amber.

Fathers Show Interest in the Care of Child

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

Maybe you don't think fathers are interested in reading what is being printed these days about children—about understanding them and getting on a footing with them that is more than the "good provider" one, that is more than the dutiful or disciplinarian one.

If you don't think so you'd be sur- in the subject. It is evident in the letters I receive from mothers and in the conversation one hears.

An acquaintance tells me why he's sending his boy to camp, another discusses in detail his boy's reactions to a summer's experience with a group, a man without children analyzes most cleverly the ways of his nieces and nephews, and the whyfores; a man of wealth and affairs dwells upon the importance of a man's having time for his young sons, another forgets his cocktail as he discusses his little daughter and something he has read, and still another deplores the false modesty of his parents that made him get all his sex information, of sorts, from outside his home and determines that his children shall have no such experience. Yes, fathers are in on this whole subject.

Let me wind up today with one proof of that fact in connection with an article which appeared in this column embodying aims for parents to live by:

"Dear Mrs. Bevans: I enjoyed so very much the 'Mothers and Fathers' Litany' which appeared in today's paper. May I have two copies? My husband's comment on reading it was, 'A fellow should put this on the mirror and read it every morning.' Hence two copies."

Specially printed for permanent reference, the "Mothers' and Fathers' Litany" is obtainable on request. Please send no envelope in this case, but postage only. Address Mrs. Gladys Bevans, the Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Ill.

Urgent Plea for Furniture.

Mr. S., on the near west side, is urgently in need of furniture, including a large crib, table and chairs, kitchen utensils and dishes. He and his wife and three small children have just been evicted from furnished rooms and they are now living in an almost empty flat. Because he is unable to pay for gas, he would appreciate having a kerosene stove. Unemployed and on relief, he has a possibility of work in the early future. A friend who owns a truck will arrange transportation.

THE DAILY RATTLE
IT'S BABY'S
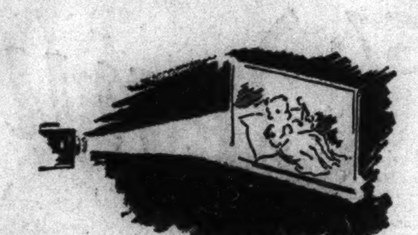
WEEK

But for us it's one of a long succession, all given to making a better world for "wee sma' lads and lassies" and a much simpler one for their mothers.



Movies about babies and their general care are to be shown each day throughout National Baby Week at 2 o'clock in the Layette Shop, Third Floor.

Bathing the new born baby with modern equipment is one of the interest-packed subjects of our first Baby Week movie.

How the baby's bed is properly made up, is another demonstration movie, for mothers, that's of major importance to babies.

EUROPEAN BOXING CHAMPIONS START FOR CHICAGO

STARS OF SIX NATIONS WILL SAIL WEDNESDAY

Four Germans in Title Lineup.

BY ARCH WARD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

COLOGNE, Germany, May 1.—The ten greatest amateur boxers in Europe today were rolling across western Germany en route to Paris on the first leg of their 5,000 mile journey to Chicago, where on May 18 they will fight Chicago's Golden Gloves champions in the Stadium. The party left Friederichstrasse station, Berlin, at 8:30 this morning and is due in Paris tonight. There the fighters will work out until they sail on the Queen Mary from Cherbourg on Wednesday. Their two days in Paris will give them opportunity to recover from minor cuts and bruises incurred in the European finals in Berlin Friday night.

Tandberg Is Left Behind.

There was one change in personnel as the group left Berlin this morning. Olle Tandberg of Sweden, who lost a close decision to Herbert Runge of Germany in the heavyweight contest, became ill of a stomach disorder yesterday and decided not to make the trip. He had been invited to accompany the squad as an alternate.

His place was given to Miholy Bondi, Hungarian bantamweight, who was defeated by Ulderico Sergo of Italy, one of the best all around fighters in international boxing history.

The eight boys who will appear in the Chicago Stadium in championship competition are Guido Nardecchia, Italian flyweight; Sergo, Italian bantamweight; John Saunder, Irish featherweight; Herbert Nurnberg, German lightweight; Antoni Kolczynski, Polish welterweight; Adolf Baumgarten, German middleweight; Richard Vogt, German light heavyweight, and Herbert Runge, German heavyweight.

Two Are Alternates.

Olli Lehtinen, Finnish flyweight, and Bondi of Hungary, bantamweight, are substitutes and will take part in preliminary bouts.

Six nations, Germany, Italy, Ireland, Poland, Finland, and Hungary are represented on the squad.

The committee from the International Boxing federation, consisting of Oscar Soderlund, Sweden; Dr. Franz Metzner, Germany; Arthur Kankovszky, Hungary, and Count Gerardo Leonardi, Italy, has charge of the team. It looked for a few hours yesterday as if Kolczynski, the Polish welterweight, would be unable to leave Berlin with his mates. The French consulate in Berlin refused to grant a visa without authority from Warsaw. Kolczynski lives in Poznan and Warsaw refused to visa his passport, insisting that he obtain it from Poznan. By this time the Poznan office had closed for the day, but after some fierce yelping by Cunard officials, the French consul in Berlin consented to waive technicalities and issued the visa.

He'll Be Ready to Fight.

Kolczynski was somewhat weakened by the experience, but he will have plenty of time to recuperate. He is unable to carry on a conversation with other members of the team as he is the only Pole in the party and speaks and reads only Polish.

Officials of the International federation were happy to learn Adolf Baumgarten had obtained a furlough from the army to accompany the team. Baumgarten, who won the German middleweight championship in Frankfort three weeks ago, made a surprisingly good showing in the finals Friday night when he gave Italy's highly regarded Bruno Zorzenone a thorough beating. Zorzenone was almost out on his feet when the bout ended.

Europe is sending to Chicago a stronger squad than it did a year ago, when it came away with a 4 to 4 draw.

SITTIN' PRETTY!

Thousands of amateur fight fans have purchased their tickets for the seventh international bouts between Chicago's Golden Gloves champions and the champions of Europe in the Stadium the night of May 18. They wouldn't miss this show for anything.

If you'd like to join the fortunate, it's not too late. Seats are now on sale in the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower. Mail orders should be addressed to Golden Gloves ticket manager, Tribune Tower, Chicago. Make check or money order payable to Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc. The prices:

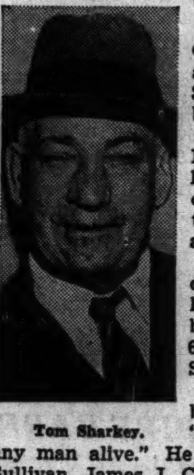
TOM SHARKEY GOES OVER HILL TO POORHOUSE

San Francisco, Cal., May 1.—(AP)—Tom Sharkey, one of the famed figures of earlier day boxing and once possessor of a fortune of $250,000, today became an inmate of the Laguna Honda home—San Francisco's haven for the aged, infirm, and destitute.



Tom Sharkey.

Sharkey still carries his head high, but he's broke. He'll be 65 years old next September.

Sharkey once boasted he "wasn't afraid of any man alive." He fought John L. Sullivan, James J. Corbett, James J. Jeffries, Bob Fitzsimmons, and Kid McCoy, among others.

His last match was a six round no decision bout with Jack Monroe in 1904 in Philadelphia.

In 1896 Sharkey boxed a three round draw with the late John L. Sullivan. The same year he fought what was called a four round draw with Jim Corbett and won on a sixth round foul from Robert Fitzsimmons.

Old accounts of the fights say Sharkey was beating Corbett in the exhibition bout when the latter's seconds jumped into the ring. His two most notable battles were with Jeffries. Jeffries won a 20 round decision in San Francisco in 1898 and a 25 round verdict the following year in New York.

MISS RAWLS SETS MARK IN KEEPING TWO SWIM TITLES

Indianapolis, Ind., May 1.—(AP)—Katherine Rawls of the Miami Beach [Fla.] Swimming club had to break a national record and tie another to retain her titles in the 300 yard individual medley and the 100 yard breast stroke in the women's national swimming championships here tonight.

Miss Rawls, pushed hard by Helene Rains, 13 year old youngster from the Women's Swimming association of New York, swam the medley in 4:03.2, breaking Miss Rains' mark of 4:04 set March 1.

In the 100 yard breast stroke Harriet Vance of the Peoria [Ill.] Country club forced Miss Rawls to tie her own national mark of 1:18.5 to win.

NEDAYR WILL SKIP DERBY FOR PREAKNESS RACE

Baltimore, Md., May 1—(AP)—Charles McLennan, race secretary at Pimlico, announced today Nedayr, second choice for the Kentucky Derby in the winter books, would be shipped here for the Preakness instead of to Louisville. The Pimlico meeting will open tomorrow.

McLennan's announcement said the W. S. Kilmer horse would arrive here Tuesday, making it virtually certain Nedayr would not run in the Derby next Saturday.

Notre Dame Tennis Team Shuts Out Detroit, 7 to 0

Notre Dame, Ind., May 1.—[Special.]—Notre Dame blanked the University of Detroit in tennis today, 7 to 0, losing only one set. It was Notre Dame's first victory in three starts. The Irish face Chicago here tomorrow. Summary:

Fay [N. D.] defeated Kelly [D.], 6-0, 6-0; Kilrain [N. D.] defeated O'Grady [D.], 6-1, 6-1; Gregory [N. D.] defeated Grow [D.], 6-2, 6-2; Rodgers [N. D.], defeated Motschall [D.], 6-0, 6-0; Wolf [N. AURORA TRACK STARTS RACING SEASON TODAY

Inaugural Handicap Tops 8 Event Program.

Opening Day

Meeting—Sixth year under the management of Fox Valley Jocky club.

Dates—May 2 through May 28 [24 days].

Post time—First race 2:15 p. m. and every 25 minutes thereafter.

Auto routes—Ogden avenue, Roosevelt road or North avenue west to Fox River valley; track located two miles north of Aurora.

Train service—Burlington railroad and Chicago, Aurora and Elgin.

Chicago's six month turf season will open this afternoon with an eight race program, topped by the Fox Valley Inaugural handicap, at the Aurora track. Fifteen sprinters from the original list of twenty-three nominations have been named overnight for the six furlong event which carries a prize of $1,500.

The twenty-four day meeting, which ends with the $12,000 added Illinois Derby on May 28, will be followed by turf programs at Lincoln Fields May 30 to June 25; Arlington Park, June 27 to July 30; Washington Park, Aug. 1 to Sept. 3; Hawthorne, Sept. 5 to Oct. 8, and Sportsman's Park, Oct. 10 to Oct. 31.

Racing Secretary Dick Leigh's first program at Aurora shapes up as a strong one and indicates that the racing will be the best ever offered there.

Black River Favorite.

In the Inaugural, the field is topped by Miss Dolphin, recent winner of the Claiborne handicap at Keeneland, Transmutable, holder of the track record at five and a half furlongs, and Black River, owned by Mrs. Rose Sullivan of Chicago, which rules as the overnight favorite at 3 to 1.

Optimism for the meeting and for the entire Chicago racing season is evident in the Aurora management's plans for the meeting. The purse distribution of $140,000 is a record for the Fox Valley track. The new totalisator, which dominates the plant, is set to handle more betting than any previous Aurora meeting.

The road from highway to parking lots has been asphalted and additional space has been provided so that 10,000 cars can be accommodated.

Tote Standard Equipment.

More than 900 thoroughbreds are on hand for the opening of the season. Included are many of handicap, allowance and high priced claiming event rating. By Illinois Derby day, such leading establishments as Milky Way farms and Calumet farms are expected to be represented.

The totalisator board is now standard equipment for all Illinois tracks. Many racegoers have yet to be introduced to the mechanical marvel, which posts accurate odds on each starter almost instantaneously. The prices are available before the race is run.

Open house was held yesterday afternoon. More than 4,000 visited the track and inspected the new totalisator. An exhibition race was run over a three-eighth mile course to give the crowd a chance to "buy" mutuels tickets and watch the totalisator in operation.

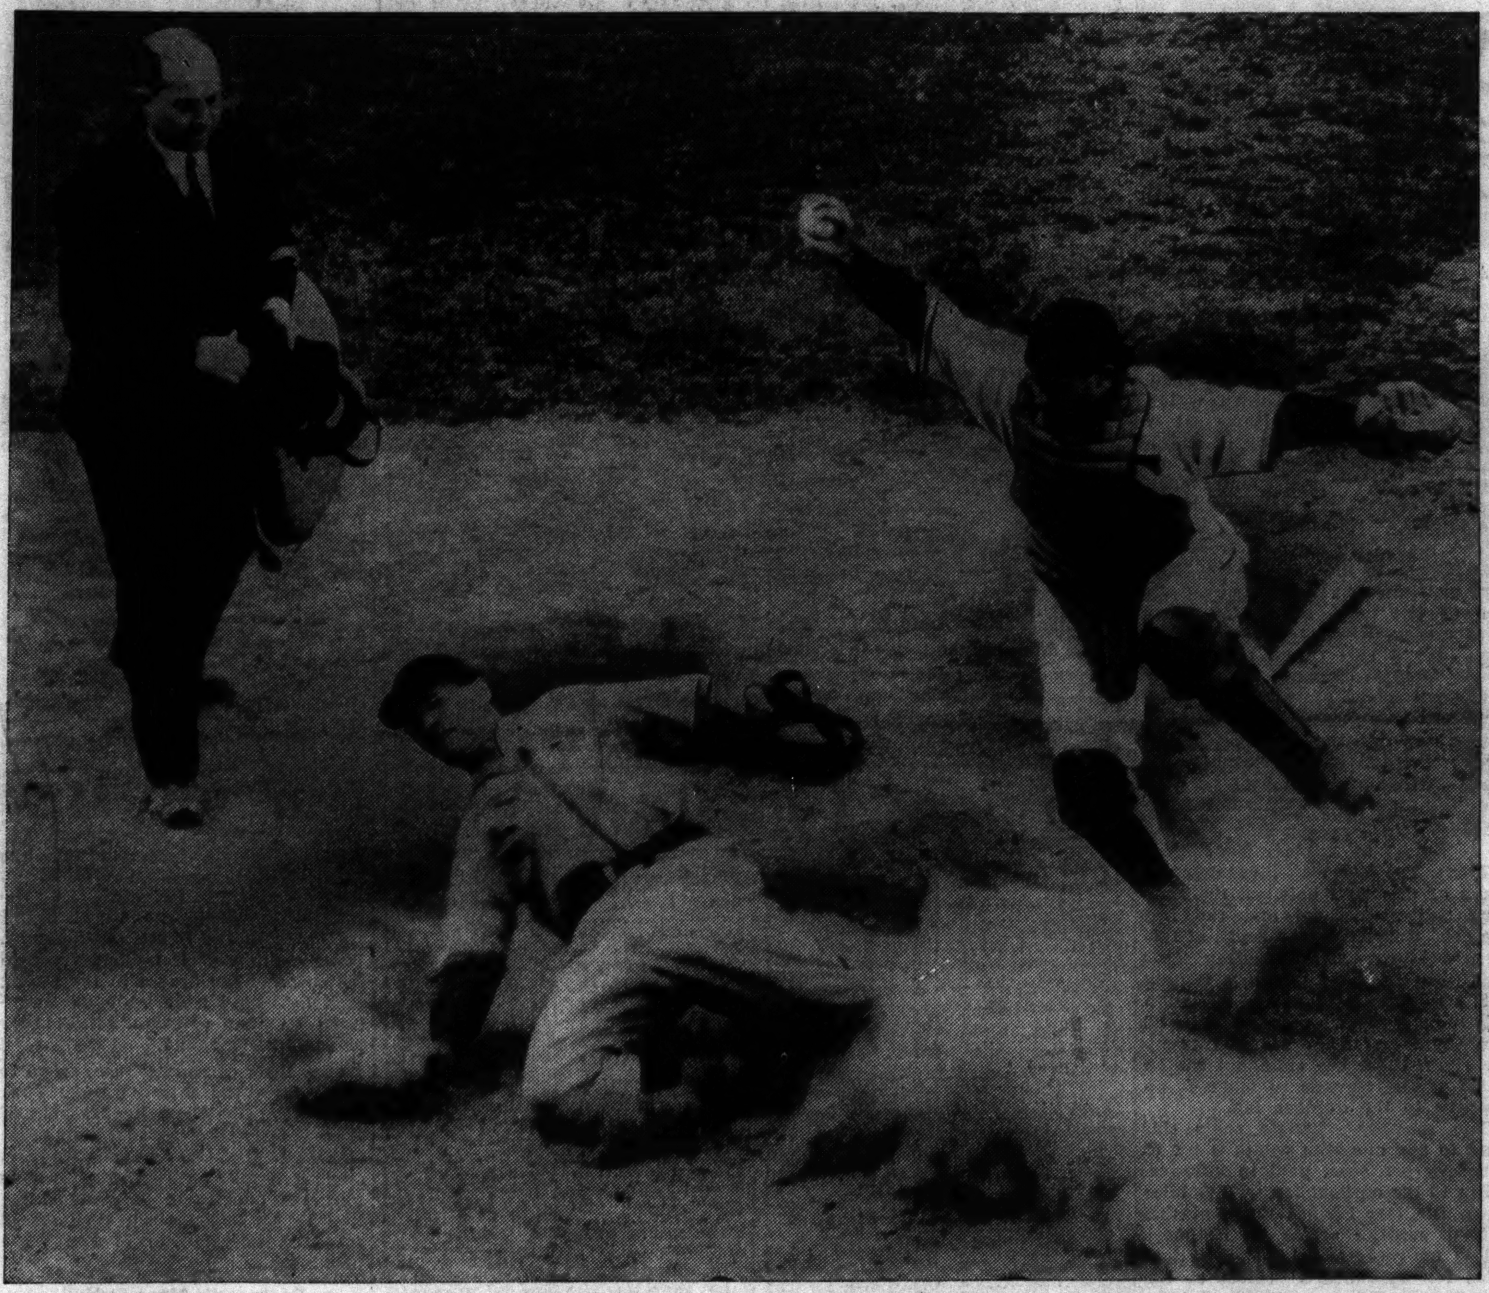
A Snappy Sox Play Which Came Too Late



Billy Sullivan, Browns' catcher, is tagged out by Catcher Luke Sewell of the White Sox as he attempts to slide across the plate in the ninth inning of yesterday's game in Comiskey park. Sewell has taken a throw from Joe Kuhel to complete a double play. The umpire is Bill McGowan. St. Louis won, 7 to 5. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Stagehand Loses Ground as Kentucky Derby Favorite

BY FRENCH LANE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Louisville, Ky., May 1. — Odds against Stagehand to win the Kentucky Derby next Saturday afternoon are going up. The prices against Fighting Fox and Bull Lea are going down, and there has been a spectacular plunge on William du Pont's Dauber.

That's the Derby betting situation in a nutshell except that Herbert G. Woolf's Lawrin also is losing popularity and Hal Price Headley's Menow picked up additional backers this morning when the report got out that Jocky Sonny Workman will come west to ride the Kentucky colt.

The plungers and sentimental betters are endeavoring to get an earful of the latest dope concerning the wagering. And they've heard enough today to befuddle them completely. It appeared doubtful tonight if Stagehand still will parade to the post as the favorite. Odds against him went to 3 to 1 today while those against Fighting Fox and Bull Lea dropped from 6 to 1 to 4 to 1.

Fighting Fox, owned by William Woodward, will be shipped from New York to the Derby scene tomorrow, it was announced in New York today.

Some wagers have been made that Bull Lea will wind up as the post time favorite. Other bets have been made that Fighting Fox will, within the next few days, occupy that post of honor.

All this, however, depends a great deal on whether Chicago plungers will outwager the heavy players from New York in the final speculation. Chicagoans, of course, will go to Warren Wright's colt Bull Lea. New Yorkers will string with Fighting Fox.

Come Up by Similar Routes.

Bull Lea and Fighting Fox have come up to the Derby struggle in much the same manner. Neither raced during the winter. In New York Fighting Fox won his first start of the year easily. It was a dash of six furlongs. Then he came along yesterday to win the rich Wood Memorial handicap just as handily.

Bull Lea ran away from Menow and other rivals in his first start at the Keeneland track in Lexington. This was a race at a mile and a sixteenth. Then he came along again to beat convincingly the same Menow and other rivals in the Blue Grass

Western State Meets Michigan Nine Tomorrow

Kalamazoo, Mich., May 1. — [Special.]—Western State Teachers' baseball team will open its drive for the state collegiate title Tuesday against Michigan here.

Browns Rally in 9th; Turn Back Sox, 7-5

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The White Sox led the Browns, 5 to 4, in the seventh inning, immediately after they had made their third hit off Buck Newsom in yesterday's contest in Comiskey park, but were denied victory. The Browns tied the score in the eighth and added a pair in the ninth to take the decision, 7 to 5.

Until things went haywire late in the late innings it appeared that Mike Kreevich would emerge a hero by virtue of a homer which he knocked with one on in the seventh to put the Sox ahead. But things didn't seem to go right in any way during the last two innings, either for the Sox defense or offense.

An Error Aids Browns.

The Browns got Thornton Lee out of the way in the eighth, but could do no better than tie the score, though they had the bases loaded when Clint Brown came to the rescue, his seventh appearance in eleven games. In the ninth, however, Henry Steinbacher zigzagged back and forth under Beau Bell's fly and let it get away for a three base error. Bell scored and so did Kress, following his single and a double by Bill Sullivan.

It was a tough one to lose in the light of all the luck the Sox had enjoyed earlier, but it was a legitimate St. Louis victory from the mathematicians' point of view.

Browns Get a Couple.

The Browns made fourteen hits and the Sox made only five. The Sox made two errors and the Browns one. Newsom, though he did not linger to get credit for his fourth victory of the year, fanned six, and Julio Bo-

LAZZERI STARTS ROUT OF DAVIS WITH HOME RUN

Jack Russell Stars in Relief Role.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

St. Louis, Mo. May 1.—The Cubs today plucked more feathers from the Red Birds, who, when times were good, preferred to speak of themselves as the Gas House Gang. After the feather pulling had been completed, Charley Grimm's Chicagoans were in possession of a 6 to 5 triumph. Two alumni members of the American league stood out as the big entertainers of 19,814 customers, who seemingly enjoyed seeing misery heaped on their athletes.

The first of the two American league graduates to reveal his talents was Tony Lazzeri, the former Yankee. He touched off the initial explosion of the afternoon by drilling a home run into the bleachers with two on bases. That one shot gave the Cubs a lead which they never relinquished, mainly because Jack Russell, the other American league castoff, came through with a brilliant rescue performance when the Cardinals had Larry [Lefty] French hanging on the ropes.

Cards Get to French.

The Cubs operated without sentiment. They started against Curt Davis, who was one of them until the recent Dizzy Dean deal. Davis was the victim of Lazzeri's homer. In the fifth he got it again, three more scoring before Guy Bush, also a Cub exile, could restore calm. After that there were a couple other Cardinal pitchers who were good enough to hold the Cubs to one hit in the four concluding innings.

The elimination of French occurred in the fourth inning when the Cardinals suddenly opened up with four hits which netted two runs. Russell came to the rescue with one out and two on base, and completed the inning with the Cubs still holding a one run lead. Then after getting well in front as the result of the three run fifth, Russell tottered in the sixth, surrendering three runs. But in the last three innings, the enemy gleaned only one base hit.

After a perfect first inning Davis got himself into difficulties when Demaree opened the second with a single into short center. Marty grounded to short and Gutteridge was in such a hurry to consummate a double play that he overlooked the matter of picking up the ball. Before the fans had finished giving the hapless Gutteridge the horse laugh, Galan bunted his two mates up a notch. Then Lazzeri, seeing a 3 and 2 pitch coming up, clouted it into the left field seats for three runs.

Gutteridge Holds One.

Davis was threatened again in the third, but this time Gutteridge failed to err, so the rally didn't materialize. Hack opened the inning with a single to center. Herman then popped to J. Brown. Gutteridge actually threw out Collins and Demaree flied to Bucher. Lazzeri was back at the plate with bat in hand in the fourth, but this time Davis refused to tempt the power of the ex-Yankee. Tony was given a pass with two out and O'Dea followed with a pop foul to J. Brown.

French's performance ceased to be perfect when J. Brown singled to right to start the home fourth. Bucher also singled to right. J. Brown raced to third on the hit, but didn't stop there. Demaree's throw bounced past Hack and J. Brown

DAY TO BATTLE ONE PETE CARA IN MARIGOLD RING

It's Davey's First Chicago Appearance of Year.

Davey Day, Illinois' leading lightweight, will make his first Chicago appearance of the year in a ten round bout with Pete Cara of New York in Marigold Gardens, Broadway and Grace street, tonight. It will be his first start in Marigold since Dec. 6 when he pounded out a ten round decision over Johnny Morro, also of New York.

Davey defeated Charley Gomer in the New York Hippodrome March 2 and conquered Tommy Speigal in Pittsburgh March 28.

Cara is making his first appearance in this section, so little is known of his ability. He is managed by Jimmy Bronson, one of Gene Tunney's seconds when Tunney successfully defended the heavyweight championship against Jack Dempsey in Soldiers' field eleven years ago.

Willie Joyce, Gary lightweight, and Frankie Agnes will meet in a return match of five rounds in the semiwindup. Joyce won their previous meeting in the north side club April 4.

Lou Laurie, Cleveland, O., 120 pounder, will be after his seventh triumph in eight starts in a four round preliminary with Eddie Shapiro. Laurie's earlier victims include Young Sparky, whom he beat in Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 11; Jesse Levels, Cleveland, Nov. 17; Pat O'Brien, April 11, and Johnny Fairchild, April 25, in Chicago.

Eddie Maleski, Catholic Youth organization welterweight, is paired with Sam Terry, and Phil Saeli, north side junior welterweight, with Frank La Porte.

Rudy Kay will wrestle Farmer Mack in a one hour match topping this evening's mat show in White City, 63d street and South Park avenue. Joe Corbett and Ole Olson will be rivals, as will Phil Malley and Fred Grubmier, Tony Moreno and Phil Gruber, and Buck O'Neill and Paul Durocher.

Four of the best coaches in town will serve as seconds at the amateur boxing show in St. Hilary auditorium, Bryn Mawr and California avenues, tomorrow. They are Joe Henift of the 124th Field Artillery armory, Danny Spunt, Franklin Park; Art Kassner, Northwest gymnasium, and Jack Biggerstaff, Madison Athletic club. Johnny Coulon, former bantamweight champion, will appear along with several of his protégés, including Bob Wiley, Jake Lebovitz, and Le Roy Peterson.

Jerry Lavan is to appear at this afternoon's meeting of the Illinois boxing commission to make application for a bout between Harry Thomas and Nate Mann in Mills stadium May 18.

Jack Fargo, Winnetka heavyweight, will open drills in Trafton's gymnasium today for his ten round bout with Max Marek of the C. Y. O. in Rainbo Fronton May 13. . . . Larry Amadee, trainer of John Henry Lewis, left yesterday to supervise workouts for the light-heavyweight titleholder's nontitle contest with Dominic Ceccarelli in Baltimore, Md., Thursday.

Six Weight Records Set in A. A. U. Meet

Six Central A. A. U. weight lifting records were set in the second and concluding day of the annual meet at the Mid-City W. L. C. yesterday. The German-American club won the team championship with twenty-eight points.

Tony Petroline of the Englewood Y. M. C. A. bettered three of his own marks in the light heavyweight division. He boosted the two-arm press five pounds to 230; the clean and jerk ten points to 280, and the three-lift total fifteen pounds to 740.

In this event Jim Thompson and Walter Brandt of Aurora were second and third, respectively, with totals of 645 and 605.

Morrie Newman of the Chicago W. L. C. increased the snatch mark five pounds to 170 and the three-lift total to 545, ten pounds better than the old mark, which he held.

Henry Kohler and Douglas Hunter of the German-American club, were second and third, respectively, with total lifts of 480 and 470 pounds.

In the 118 pound class Bob Naylor of Aurora had a three-lift total of 470 pounds, which raised his own mark ten pounds. Walter and Otto Sering, Chicago W. L. C., with 395 and 390, were second and third.

The 148 pound division was led by Bob Schaeffer, German-American, with 580. A teammate, Henry Stiglich, hoisted 575 and Ed Hogan of the Englewood Y. M. C. A. was third with 570.

American Giants Take Two from Barons, 5-0, 6-1

Birmingham, Ala., May 1.—[Special.]—The Chicago American Giants won a doubleheader from the Birmingham Black Barons, 5 to 0 and 6 to 1, today. Trent held the Barons to three hits in the first game and Cornelius won the second contest.

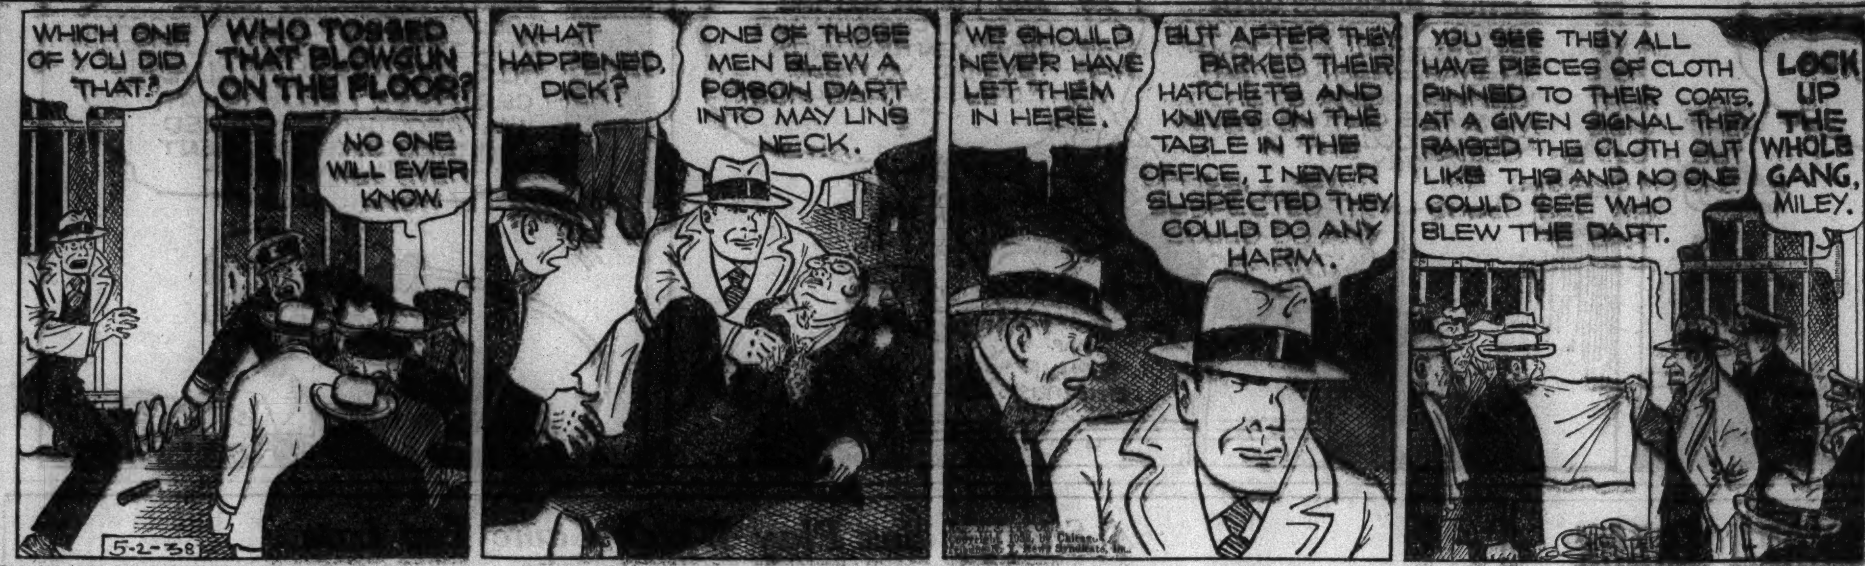
DICK TRACY—Poison Dart



WHICH ONE OF YOU DID THAT?
WHO TOSSED THAT BLOWGUN ON THE FLOOR?
NO ONE WILL EVER KNOW.
WHAT HAPPENED, DICK?
ONE OF THOSE MEN BLEW A POISON DART INTO MAY LIN'S NECK.
WE SHOULD NEVER HAVE LET THEM IN HERE.
BUT AFTER THEY PARKED THEIR HATCHETS AND KNIVES ON THE TABLE IN THE OFFICE, I NEVER SUSPECTED THEY COULD DO ANY HARM.
YOU SEE THEY ALL HAVE PIECES OF CLOTH PINNED TO THEIR COATS. AT A GIVEN SIGNAL THEY RAISED THE CLOTH OUT LIKE THIS AND NO ONE COULD SEE WHO BLEW THE DART.
LOCK UP THE WHOLE GANG, MILEY.

River-Canals District Holds Outdoor Thrills

BY BOB BECKER.

After the Des Plaines river makes a big loop between the towns of Riverside and Lyons and then heads southwest it meets two famous canals. One is the modern sanitary district canal and the other is the old abandoned Illinois and Michigan waterway that used to be a busy artery into Chicago. All three of these waterways travel along together toward Lemont, Lockport and Joliet, the sanitary district canal being in the middle.

The land that extends from the Des Plaines to the edge of the Sanitary district canal is in some respects one of the most interesting areas within easy driving distance of the loop. It's a sort of no man's land where families of many nationalities till small plots of ground, where squatters settle down and must be driven out by the authorities and where there is an atmosphere of isolation that is out of keeping with the busy auto roads only a few miles away.

Suited to Outdoor Fan.

There are several thousands of acres of this land between the sanitary and ship canal and the Des Plaines. Sometimes the depth of this strip reaches 1,200 and even 2,000 feet. But in many places it is only a few hundred feet wide. Although this area is not beautifully timbered like the forest preserves farther up the river, there are enough trees on much of the acreage to make it attractive to the outdoor fan.

The sanitary districts rents this land to any one who wants it for $5 per acre per year, paid in advance.

But to the outdoor fan who paddles down the Des Plaines much of this rented acreage seems to be more suited for recreational purposes than it is for agriculture. [Most of the people now living on the land farm plots of ground of varying sizes.]

State Makes Improvements.

As narrow as the strip is between the waterways, there are opportunities for hiking, for Boy Scout projects, for bird study and other outdoor sports including canoeing on the Des Plaines, which in coming years will be a cleaner river. And already Nature has healed many of the scars left by the construction of the canal in the upper part of the valley. Trees and shrubs have grown wherever there is soil enough to support such vegetation.

Small parcels of this land between the Des Plaines and the canal already have been improved by the state for recreational purposes. At the Willow Springs road a state park of about 200 acres has been made, roads rebuilt, markers put up and even little bridges thrown across the old Illinois and Michigan canal. Although some of this area between the waterways is too rocky to produce a pleasing growth of trees, there are many acres between the Lawndale avenue bridge below Riverside and Lockport which could be utilized for recreational purposes.

GUEST'S TEAM IS BEATEN IN POLO WARMUP

Westbury, N. Y., May 1.—[Special.]—With Godfrey and Terence Preece scoring all but two of their goals, the Reds beat the Whites, 8 to 7, on Preece field today in a tuneup contest for the forthcoming outdoor polo tournament season. Terence was the high scorer with four goals, while Godfrey made two.

The contest was marked by the first outdoor appearance this year of Winston Guest, whose Optimists recently won the open and senior indoor title in Chicago. Guest, G. S. Smith, and John Schiff played on the losing side.

Stagehand Is Losing Favor in Derby Odds

stakes which to Kentuckians is every bit as important as the Wood Memorial.

So it is no wonder that Bull Lea and Fighting Fox are crowding Stagehand as far as the public's fickle fancy is concerned.

There is one fellow, however, who is more calm today than at any time since Stagehand arrived in Kentucky. He is Earl Sande, Stagehand's trainer.

Counts on Stretch Run.

He's confident that Stagehand will run the last quarter of the Derby mile and a quarter in 24 seconds. It will be remembered that he ran the last quarter of the Santa Anita handicap in less than that. If Sande is correct, then Stagehand will mow down his opponents regardless of where he is running when the field rounds the last bend and starts to come down the home stretch.

Dauber's Derby stock went up when he arrived today from William du Pont Jr.'s farm in Delaware. He's the colt that gave Stagehand such a stiff argument in the Santa Anita Derby. Some claim that if he had received his share of the breaks in the racing luck he would have whipped Stagehand on that occasion. Still, they paid off on Stagehand.

Only three candidates were asked to go in for drills this morning. They were Gov. Chandler, Redbreast, and Menow. Gov. Chandler's training move was impressive. Over a cuppy track he stepped a mile in 1:40 3-5 after running the quarter in 24 seconds, the half in 48, and the six furlongs in 1:14 1-5. He was full of run when he finished.

Redbreast's Move Is Dull.

Redbreast's training move was dull. He went a slow mile in 1:48. Menow went three-eighths in :37 1-5.

In Kentucky they call Gov. Chandler the "poor man's horse." His Lexington owner is not exactly a pauper, but he hasn't quite as much money as Mrs. Payne Whitney, Warren Wright, Maxwell Howard, William du Pont, Hal Price Headley, and the others who own the leading candidates for the $50,000 race.

But Gov. Chandler will get to the post. He's named for Kentucky's chief executive, who is in the midst of a political battle for a seat in the United States senate. The governor announced today that his namesake will start even if he has to pay the $500 starting fee himself.

OAK BROOK POLO CLUB BIDS FOR TWO TOURNEYS

The Oak Brook Polo club has bid for two of the year's major outdoor events, the national intercircuit and twelve goal tournaments.

Paul Butler and other Oak Brook officials said yesterday the club stands a good chance of getting the two tournaments for its seven field polo plant at York road and 22d street. Cleveland and Detroit also want the two events.

In addition to Oak Brook, plans call for polo each week-end this summer at Fort Sheridan, Leona Farm, and possibly the Olympia Fields Country club.

Mills Divide Pair of Games with Madison

The Chicago Mills divided a Tri-State league double-header with the Madison Blues in the Mills stadium yesterday, the Blues winning the opener, 3 to 0, and the Mills the second game, 4 to 1.

Lefty Blatz and Butch Krueger divided the pitching for Madison in the first game, allowing the Mills only three hits. Eldon MacLean, formerly with the Washington Senators, pitched for the Mills in the second game, yielding three hits.

ROUND ONE—AND GRIMES LOSES IT TO UMPIRE BARR

New York, May 1.—(AP)—Burleigh Grimes, the Brooklyn Dodgers' manager, had his first run-in of the season with an umpire today.

George Barr, umpiring at the plate, tossed him out of the game with the Giants in the sixth inning, during an argument that turned into a burlesque as the entire Dodger squad came out of the dugout and milled around. One of them threw several pieces of equipment into the air and a catcher's mask struck the veteran Jesse Haines. He had to be helped back to the bench.

The row started while Mel Ott was at bat in the sixth. While he was talking to Catcher Paul Chervinko, Fred Frankhouse, Dodger pitcher, tried to sneak a quick strike over, but Barr refused to allow it, claiming neither he nor Ott was ready.

Grimes charged up out of the dugout, but his outburst was met by Barr's thumb pointing to the nearest exit.

Grimes was ejected eight times up to Sept. 4 last season, and had to pay various fines of $25 pinned on him by National League President Ford Frick.

MacQUINN WINS INDOOR AUTO RACING TITLE

Harry MacQuinn of Indianapolis won the 1937-'38 midwest indoor auto racing championship in the 124th field artillery armory last night. He won the 100 lap feature race for the third consecutive meet in 22 minutes and 36 seconds.

Ted Duncan of Chicago finished second, Ted Tetterton of Waukegan third, Marshall Lewis of Los Angeles, fourth, and Harry Lewis of Chicago, fifth.

M. Lewis was runnerup to MacQuinn for the season's title. The next three places went to Duke Nalon, Hartsfeld, and Shorty Sorenson, in that order. Sorenson won the title last year.

SPARTAS DEFEAT SCHLITZ, 5-3, IN CLOSING PERIOD

Retain Lead in Intercity League Competition.

The Sparta soccer team showed sufficient of its national championship ability to defeat the Schlitz Brewers of Milwaukee, 5 to 3, in Sparta stadium yesterday. The victory enabled the Spartas to retain their lead in the Intercity Professional league.

It wasn't a completely enjoyable afternoon for the Chicagoans, however. They took a 2 to 0 lead at the 13 minute mark of the first period on goals by MacDermott and Vlcek, but Schultze and Smith, the latter making two goals, sent the Milwaukee team in front with only two minutes of the first period left to play. Lang, a Spartan, responded with a shot that made the score 3 to 3 at the half.

In the second period Sparta improved its play and won on goals by Fraser and Lang. Lineups:

TRIBUNE SCHOOL MODEL FOR OTHER CLASSES IN GOLF

You May Take Lessons Starting May 10.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

The sixth annual free golf school of THE TRIBUNE, which opens on the four courses of the Chicago park district Tuesday evening, May 10, was the forerunner of the several systems of group instruction now in use throughout the country, and the model for many of them.

When the school was first suggested in 1933 there were any number of skeptics who thought the idea of attempting to teach the fundamentals of a game to thousands of men, women, and children was too unwieldy and cumbersome a project. These unbelievers in the idea of mass education admitted the growing interest in the game at that time, but could not visualize the methods by which it might be scientifically developed.

That inaugural year of 1933, and the amazing response which brought out more than 17,000 potential golfers to take the free lessons, was more than sufficient to convince the doubters. By comparison with the present method of instruction used in the school, that first year plan was somewhat rough around the edges, but it has been smoothed down in five years to a program as simple as it can be made, and the game's sages have long since admitted that the simpler the game can be made to the novice, the swifter and more certain his ultimate progress will be.

Generous Coöperation.

Much of the success of the school to date can be attributed to the coöperation of the Chicago park district and the Illinois section of the Professional Golfers' association. The Illinois section of the P. G. A., one of the prime movers in the theory and practice of group instruction, has been the school's most enthusiastic supporter from its inception. The park district in 1936 offered the use of its courses when it became necessary to make the school accessible to golfers unable to reach outlying courses, and it has extended every aid to make the school a greater success each year.

This 1938 school, like its predecessors, bars none, regardless of his or her ability. The only qualifications a student requires are a golf club and his or her presence at the course most conveniently reached. There is no charge for instruction, which will be given by P. G. A. members, men who have made a life work of advancing the cause of golf and who have donated their services to the school.

The plan of the school is a simple one. The course consists of four lessons. The first of these will be given May 10, one week from tomorrow night. This will be followed by the second lesson Thursday night, May 12; the third Tuesday night, May 17, and the fourth and final regular lesson Thursday night, May 19. All classes will begin promptly at 7 p. m., and all will be conducted for men, women, boys, and girls combined.

Brightest Pupils to Be Selected.

Following the completion of the fourth lesson the P. G. A. member who is the headmaster at each course will join with his associate professors in picking the brightest pupil in each division—men's, women's, boys', and girls'—and those ranked second to them. This will constitute a final graduating class of thirty-two of the ablest students from the four courses.

These thirty-two will then gather Sunday afternoon, May 22, for the commencement exercises of the 1938 school. A jury of leading professionals, members of the Illinois P. G. A., will then sit in judgment upon the swings of these thirty-two finalists. Each man, woman, boy, and girl adjudged to have the best form will then be awarded a set of clubs and a golf bag presented by THE TRIBUNE. The remaining twenty-eight contestants will be given a dozen golf balls each.

Golfers who plan to take part in the school will be advised of further developments daily in THE TRIBUNE from now on until the opening of the classes.

The school will be held on the same four courses as last year—Diversey in Lincoln park; Jackson park, Marquette park, and Columbus park.

Giants Roll On; Beat Dodgers for 10 in Row

New York, May 1. — (AP) — The Giants stretched their winning streak to ten straight games today by beating the Dodgers, 7 to 6, before the National league's largest crowd of the spring, 40,248.

Featured by Johnny McCarthy's fourth homer of the year, with two on, the Giants put on a five run rally in the second inning and then, after the Dodgers had tied the score, they pushed over another run in the eighth to make it five in a row over the Dodgers.

Dolph Camilli did his best to aid the Dodgers' cause, but his two triples, driving in three runs, weren't enough.

Diz Dean Accepts His Gifts, but Not in Front of Fans

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

St. Louis, Mo., May 1.—Diz Dean thinks Sam Breadon, his former employer, is an old meanie. Admirers of Diz came out to the park today with a wagonload of flowers and a wrist watch. They planned on meeting Diz at the plate before the game and making the customary formal presentation. Probably because he suspected it would start the fans to booing him because he sold Dean, the president of the Cardinals wouldn't consent to the ceremony. So the flowers and the watch were given to Diz in the privacy of the clubhouse.

Dean still insists that it is his legs that are bothering him, not his arm. But he was running around in the outfield before the game and didn't do any throwing. He hasn't altered his promise to be ready to pitch Tuesday if called on.

The effort to smoke up a feud between Ducky Medwick, the Cardinals' slugger, and Dean seems to have fallen flat. Ducky terms it a lot of nonsense and says he has more important things than Dean on his mind. Diz says he's not mad at anybody.

President Breadon kept Dean away from the plate before the game but Diz got there eventually. When Tony Lazzeri hit his three run homer in the second inning the first guy to dash out from the Cub dugout to shake the ex-Yankee's hand was Diz.

The Cubs will conclude their stay here tomorrow and then go home to battle the eastern clubs. Bill Lee will pitch the final and his opponent will be Lon Warneke.

Lazzeri and Cubs Defeat Cardinals, 6-5

scored on the error, Bucher taking second. A wild pitch put him on third. Slaughter beat out a bunt, but the best Medwick could produce was a tap to French which resulted in the retirement of Bucher between third and home. Mize singled to right to score Slaughter and also knock French out of the picture. Russell cleaned up the situation without delay.

Hack Smacks One.

Russell opened the three run fifth with an infield single and sprinted around to the plate on Hack's triple to right center. Hack sauntered home on Herman's single to right. Collins spanked a double against the right field screen and Davis was excused. Rescuer Bush coaxed Demaree into popping out, but Marty wasn't handled that easily. He punched a single into right, Herman scoring and Collins stopping at third. A pass to Galan loaded the bases, but none of the three fellows got home because Lazzeri grounded into a double play.

Four hits off Russell were involved in the maneuver which netted the Cardinals three runs, one short of a tie, in the sixth. With one out Medwick singled to center. Mize did the same. Pepper Martin ripped off a double to right center, Medwick scoring. Gutteridge caromed a single off Hack's glove, Mize scoring and Martin riding into third on one of his inimitable belly slides. Martin scored on Owen's force of Gutteridge on a tap to Herman. Then Padgett batted for McGee, the third Card pitcher, but was easily disposed of on a poke in front of the plate.

One for the Book.

One of those freak happenings in which two men take a part in the handling of a fly ball kept the Cubs from slipping over a run against Johnson in the seventh. Herman led off with a single to right and went to second on a passed ball, which also was the third strike for Collins. Demaree faded on a fly to Medwick. Marty lifted a popup over short left. Gutteridge went back to get it and Medwick, knowing that the Gutteridge brand of fielding carries no guarantee, stood close by to await developments. The ball popped out of the Gutteridge hand, but Ducky snatched it before it hit the ground.

The only hit surrendered by Russell in the last three innings forced him to show what he had in reserve. It was a single by Medwick to start the eighth. Mize then flied to Galan, Herman tossed out Martin, and Marty took care of Gutteridge's fly.

Bob Sall Breaks Three Automobile Records

Hohokus, N. J., May 1.—(AP)—Bob Sall, Paterson veteran, made a clean sweep of the 1938 inaugural American Automobile association automobile races today, breaking three records on the Hohokus half mile dirt track. Sall won the three mile match race in 2:46.25, the five mile qualifying test in 4:39.38, and the fifteen mile feature in 14:38.95, all bettering previous performances on the local track.

Yanks Get Five Hits; Senators Triumph, 4-3

Washington, D. C., May 1.—(AP)—Elon Hogsett held the Yankees to five hits today and the Senators beat the world champions, 4 to 3, before 32,000. Joe Di Maggio—returning to the lineup after being injured in an outfield collision yesterday—led the Yankees with a home run in the sixth and a single. Joe Gordon, Yankee second baseman who also was hurt in the collision, watched the game from a box.

Lefty Gomez, pitching for New York, yielded eight hits.

ATHLETICS, 8; RED SOX, 6.

Boston, Mass., May 1.—(AP)—Though Jimmy Foxx crashed two home runs, four Boston pitchers couldn't hold Philadelphia in check today and the Athletics won, 8 to 6, before 17,200.

Two were on when Foxx made his first homer in the first, but the bases were empty when he made the second. Foxx made both homers off Luther Thomas, who went seven innings and was credited with the victory. Jim Bagby Jr. was the losing pitcher.

White Sox Get Gabler from Bees by Waiver

Vice President Harry Grabiner yesterday announced that the White Sox had obtained Pitcher Frank Gabler from the Boston Bees on waivers. Gabler, who referred to himself as the Great Gabbo while with the Giants, has been quieter with the Bees. He won four and lost seven for them last season.

Frank Gabler.

Johnny Whitehead, Sox pitcher who was kept at home while his team was in Detroit last week, has recovered from a throat infection and departed with his team on the eastern trip last night. If he improves en route, he may pitch tomorrow's opener with the Athletics. If Big John isn't ready, Merritt Cain will be given his third chance to win or lose a game. He has wilted after two starts, but another has been the pitcher of record both times.

The Sox will arrive in Philadelphia today in time to get an afternoon view of the Liberty bell and Rodin's "The Thinker." They are scheduled to reach the Quaker city at 1:46 p. m.

Coach Jimmy Austin, who worked with the Sox only during the spring training season in 1936 and 1937, that he might remain near his wife, ill in the Austin home in Laguna Beach, Cal., left for home yesterday on receiving word that Mrs. Austin had suffered a relapse.

CHICAGOANS LEAD THREE EVENTS IN ILLINOIS BOWLING

Peoria, Ill., May 1.—[Special.]—Chicago bowlers shook up the standings in the 41st annual Illinois state bowling tournament here over the week-end, taking top positions in three of four events.

The Kubina Undertakers of Chicago, with 3,001, lead the five man; F. Goonan and J. Small of Chicago top the doubles with 1,334; Joe Sherman of La Salle leads the single with 696, and John Small of Chicago leads the all-events with 1,934.

Six five man teams topped the 2,900 mark early today. Hamms Beers, Waukegan, are second to the Morticians with 2,955; Samuelsons Arcades, Chicago, are third with 2,934; Beich Candy, Chicago, fourth with 2,927, and Bob Mills Tavern, Waukegan, last year's champions, fifth with 2,911.

J. Janis and M. Milkau, Chicago, are second in the two man with 1,248 and H. Dinkelman, Chicago, is second in the singles with 678. Dinkelman had games of 202, 232, and 244.

Tobin, Blackhawk Scout, Dies in Kingston, Ont.

KINGSTON, Ont., May 1.—(AP)—Fred Tobin, scout for the Chicago Blackhawks, died here today after a long illness. The body was sent to Tobin's home at Ottawa. He played amateur hocky at Ottawa and Kingston as a goal tender, helping the Kingston intermediates reach the Ontario Hocky association finals in 1920 and 1921. A brother, Bill Tobin, is vice president of the Blackhawks.

Browns Rally in Ninth; Turn Back Sox, 7-5

netti, the winner, whiffed Gee Walker with one on in the ninth.

Two Brownie runs romped home after two were out in the first inning. Mills opened the game with a single to center and advanced on West's sacrifice. Clift walked, but Bell flied to Walker. McQuinn doubled to the score board in left center, scoring Mills and Clift.

Newsom seemed in some sort of a panic in the first inning, but got the side out before the Sox were able to tie the score. Hayes led off with a single, then Kreevich walked on four pitches. The pair advanced on Steinbacher's sacrifice, but Walker tapped to Clift and Hayes was out at the plate, Clift to Sullivan. Kuhel walked, filling the bases, and Owen walked, forcing Kreevich across the plate. Berger tapped to Kress, who stepped on second to force Owen.

Buck Is Really Good.

Lee was unruffled and unscathed by Newsom's double in the second and Clift's leadoff single in the third. In the Sox halves of these innings, Newsom was having a big time for himself. After Sewell had grounded out in the second, Lee and Hayes struck out. In the third Kreevich fanned, Steinbacher fouled to Clift, and Walker whiffed.

The Browns got runners on first and third with one out in the fourth inning, but the second Sox double play nipped them. With one down, Sullivan beat out a bunt and reached third while Heffner was getting to first on Hayes' fumble. Newsom then hit into a double play, Hayes to Berger to Kuhel.

The Sox tied the score without the aid of a hit during Newsom's second brainstorm in the fourth inning. Buck walked Kuhel and Owen and they advanced on Berger's sacrifice. Kuhel scored the tying run and Owen reached third on Sewell's fly to Bell. Lee tapped to Newsom, who tagged him out.

The Sox's second hit drove in their third run and put Chicago ahead, 3 to 2, in the fifth. With one out, Kreevich drew Newsom's sixth pass and stole second. Steinbacher fanned, but Walker singled to center, scoring Kreevich. Kuhel flied to Mills.

Two runs in the first of the seventh put the Browns ahead, 4 to 3. With one down Mills singled to center and reached second on West's single off Hayes' glove. Clift dumped a single on right foul line, Mills scoring the tying run and West reaching third. Bell's hot grounder bounded off Berger's chest and was picked up by Hayes on second, forcing Clift. West scored on the play. McQuinn popped to Hayes.

Good Old Mike.

The third Sox hit drove in their fourth and fifth runs and put them ahead in the home seventh. After Lee had flied out Hayes reached second on Clift's overthrow, whereupon Kreevich drove a homer into the left field stands, scoring behind Hayes. Steinbacher scratched an infield single for the fourth Chicago hit. Walker and Kuhel supplied easy outs.

The Browns tied the score and had the bases full in the eighth when Brown came in to halt things. Kress led off with a double and reached third on Sullivan's sacrifice. Heffner fanned to become Lee's only strikeout victim. Hughes batted for Newsom and singled to right, scoring Kress with the tying run. Hughes stole second. Mills was passed. West beat out an infield single and the bases were loaded. Brown came in and Steinbacher made a fine running catch of Clift's fly near the right field foul line.

That's Leaving Them On.

The Sox loaded the bases with one out against Bonetti in the home eighth, but couldn't break the tie. Owen walked and advanced on Berger's sacrifice. Sewell was given an intentional pass and Brown also walked, filling the bases. Radcliff batted for Hayes, who had pulled a charley horse, and Rip hit into a double play, McQuinn to Sullivan to McQuinn.

The game fell apart in the Brown ninth with Steinbacher's three base error on Bell's fly. Bell scored the winning run on McQuinn's fly to center. Kress singled and stopped at third on Sullivan's double. Heffner was passed, filling the bases. Bonetti bounced into an odd double play. While the bounce was in the air, Kress scored and while Brown was throwing out Bonetti, Sullivan tried to follow Kress across the plate, but was doubled on Kuhel's throw to Sewell. The Sox did nothing in their ninth.

NEW RECREATION SPOTS IN PARKS COST 6½ MILLION

25 Pct. Increase in Use Expected This Year.

Due to the expenditure of almost 6½ million dollars of Chicago park district and Works Progress administration funds last year on new recreation facilities, attendance at park district recreation centers is expected to increase about 25 per cent this year. That prediction was made yesterday by V. K. Brown, chief of the recreation division of the Chicago park district.

Records of the recreation division show that 47,411,136 attendances were recorded at all park events, both indoor and outdoor, last year. Brown expects the number to increase to about 60,000,000 in 1938.

WPA work in the park last year cost $16,050,908. That sum includes funds provided for road paving, landscaping, rehabilitation of park buildings, swimming pool repairs, tennis courts, beach improvements, pedestrian subways, and general improvements to small parks.

40 Per Cent for Recreation.

Robert J. Dunham, president of the park board, estimates that about 40 per cent of the expenditure was for work directly affecting recreational activities. "I don't think we can list landscaping or road construction as providing recreational facilities," he explained.

Of the total amount spent $2,640,767 was for small parks improvements and rehabilitation and $387,556 for tennis courts. "Those two projects will do more to increase recreational facilities than any other," according to Brown. He explained that by rehabilitating ninety-one small park buildings new rooms were put to use and space provided for park handcraft classes.

"We have added tennis courts and resurfaced most of the old clay courts with a hard surface, similar to asphalt. The new surface permits the courts to be used earlier in the season and will give more people an opportunity to play," he said.

Swimming Pools Rebuilt.

All indoor and outdoor pools in the park district have been rebuilt and several new ones built. In Jackson park WPA workers changed a nine hole golf course into baseball and indoor diamonds, a running track, and picnic grounds. "The golf course only served about 300 people a day. The new playing field will benefit about 2,000," Brown said.

In Madden park, 3800 South Rhodes avenue, in a colored neighborhood, WPA workers converted an old apartment building into a park district recreational center.

Since WPA was inaugurated in 1935, $44,448,478 of park and federal funds have been spent on park district projects. Last fall Dunham obtained WPA approval of a new program costing $2,549,000. Those projects now under construction include improvements to Lake Shore drive.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

(Map on back page.)

AAA Corn Zones

May 1, 1938.

MAP makers of the AAA followed county lines in dividing corn growers of the United States into two classes for the purpose of administering the crop control features of the new farm law. The first class includes those farmers living inside the controled area where corn planting is to be greatly reduced by those who expect to receive government checks. The second class includes those farmers living outside the restricted area where there are no specified corn acreage allotments from the government.

The final classification of counties resulted in adding some counties to the corn control zone, while others were taken out and placed in the unrestricted territory. map of the two zones appears on the back page of this issue. Sullivan county, Missouri and Wyandott county, Kansas, are the only uncontroled counties inside the controled area.

In writing the law, congressmen used the power granted them under the interstate and foreign commerce clause of the constitution and found what they believe to be authority for controling the production of corn in commercial counties. A commercial county is arbitrarily defined in the law as one in which the average yearly production of corn is 450 bushels or more per farm and four bushels or more for each acre of farm land in the county.

Burden on Control Region.

Corn is raised in all of the forty-eight states. The restricted corn area is limited to 566 counties covering all of Illinois and Iowa and parts of ten other states. The burden of cutting down the acreage of corn under orders of the secretary of agriculture falls on farmers inside the corn control region.

Around the rim of the restricted zone there are farmers inside who are cutting down their corn acreage to avoid being forced to store corn under the marketing quota section of the law, while neighbors on adjoining farms, but across the county line, are allowed to increase corn acreage above normal. Every extra bushel of corn produced in the unrestricted zone will help to offset the reduced production on restricted farms.

Within the last few days farmers living near the border line have sat on their planter seats and exchanged views with neighbors in the uncontroled territory concerning the different ways the government's plan affects them. These fence line chats have brought out the significance of the AAA plan of placing corn growers in the two classes.

There are more acres of corn grown outside than inside the restricted area. Official figures show that the average acreage of corn grown annually over a period of ten years in the unrestricted zone was 53,418,229 acres, while in the restricted area only 49,205,242 acres were grown. The government has asked farmers to reduce the total to 40,491,279 acres in the restricted zone this year, while outside this zone farmers are at liberty to increase their acrerge.

Figures on Production.

The total production of corn in the 566 controled counties last year was 1,638,000,000 bushels, or 625 million bushels more than were produced outside the controled area.

In trying to decide whether or not they wished to turn their farms over to be run under the government plan farmers must first find out which area or class they are in. If too much corn is produced this year, farmers inside the area will be subject to marketing quotas this fall. No matter how much corn is raised in the unrestricted zone—although it will contribute to the total that may make necessary the storing of corn—farmers in that area will not be required to store and seal corn. They can sell the corn or feed it, while farmers in the restricted area will be forced to pay a penalty of 15 cents a bushel for marketing or feeding stored corn or corn to be withheld from the market under orders of the secretary of agriculture.

FOUR TO RISK LIVES TO MEASURE, MAP ICY ALASKAN PEAKS

Cambridge, Mass., May 1.—(AP)—Bradford Washburn Jr., Harvard geographer and explorer, left today to pass the next two months risking his life on the icy slopes of an Alaskan mountain range. He and three companions will take the risks in order to stay only two hours at an altitude of 13,250 feet atop Mount St. Agnes making maps, taking ranges with surveying instruments, and photographs of the surrounding terrain with a panoramic camera.

From this material maps will be completed which will reduce the vast unmapped area of this portion of the North American wilds.

The remainder of the two months, Washburn said, will be occupied in reaching the peak, equally as important to the explorers.

Already in Valdez, Alaska, making preliminary preparations for the expedition are Norman Dyhrenfurth and Peter Gabriel, Swiss skiers, and Norman Bright, Sunnyvale, Cal., athlete.

CATHOLICS WARN AGAINST FOREIGN POLITICAL IDEAS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., May 1.—[Special.]—Two Catholic archbishops warned today against the injection of foreign political philosophies into the American social order. They are Archbishop Samuel A. Stritch of Milwaukee, who preached at the pontifical high mass that opened the first National Catholic Social Action conference here and Archbishop John T. McNicholas of Cincinnati, who made the principal address at the first of two great mass meetings to be conducted in the four days of the conference.

"It will be the endeavor of all here," said Archbishop Stritch, "to outline the Christian attitude towards modern problems in light of Christian truths and Christian morals, with the coöperation of experts in the economic field and leaders in society.

"We need no importation of political or economic systems based on irreligion or anti-religious philosophies. Not less democracy, but more is our ambition."

ITALIAN PLANE CRASHES; 19 DIE, 1 AN AMERICAN

ROME, May 1.—(AP)—Nineteen persons, including the Albanian minister to Rome and a woman identified as an American, perished in the crash of a Rome-bound Italian airliner yesterday. The woman's name was given as Helen Lindheim, 33 years old. Her residence was not learned. The Albanian minister was Djafer Villa.

The passengers were returning from Tirana, Albania, where they attended the wedding last Wednesday of King Ahmed Zog and the former Countess Geraldine Apponyi of Hungary or witnessed attendant ceremonies. Five of the victims were members of the crew.

[At New York City Norvin Rudolph Lindheim, architect for the Palestine exhibit at the 1939 World's Fair, expressed fear that the American woman killed was his wife.

THOUSANDS SEE NORTH AVE. FIRE; DAMAGE $30,000

Billows of smoke yesterday drew several thousand spectators to a fire which destroyed the one story brick building housing an S. S. Kresge & Co. merchandise store at 540 North avenue. Trafic along busy North avenue and at the triple intersection with Ogden and Larrabee avenues was tied up for an hour.

Hampered by a steel door, barred windows, and the dense smoke, firemen under Marshal Michael J. Corrigan had a difficult time reaching the blaze, which started in the rear. Damage was estimated at $30,000. Fireman Alvin Guger of truck company No. 3 was overcome by smoke as he worked in the basement and was taken to the Henrotin hospital for treatment.

Boasts About Dynamite; Seized; Find 3 Sticks

A boast that he had nine sticks of dynamite in his home was followed by the arrest last night of Julius Solomon, 42 years old, a relief client in Half Day, in Lake county. He was locked up in the county jail at Waukegan. Chief Ray Lesch of Wheeling was hunting for Solomon on a charge of beating John Liebel, 62, of Wheeling, who is armless. He found him boasting about the dynamite in a tavern. Deputy sherifs went to Solomon's home and found three sticks of the explosive.

WAS COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Miss B. Green, Box 361, Davis, Okla., writes: "For three years my face was covered with large pimples caused by an external condition. I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them for three weeks I was greatly relieved; and now my skin is as smooth as a baby's." For FREE sample, write to Cuticura, Dept. 85, Malden, Mass.

NEW FURNITURE DISPLAYED AT SPRING SHOWS

New designs in furniture will be on display today when the annual spring furniture markets open in the Furniture Mart and the Merchandise Mart. Styles this year are more graceful and have fewer adornments.

The furniture designers have borrowed many colors from women's dress patterns. The new colors will include Hawaii and seafoam greens, majolica pink, damask and yachting blues, aquamist and dusty rose.

The sleek lines of the race horse have been incorporated in designs for table and chair legs.

PICKS THE WRONG CORNER FOR FAKE HOLDUP; COP ON IT

Steve Tzanshaus, 19 years old, 3032 Emerald avenue, a messenger boy, had an idea yesterday. He reported to Maxwell street police that a bandit robbed him of $200 at Roosevelt road and Blue Island avenue. His story seemed legitimate until Policeman Joseph Lenert heard about it.

Lenert happened to be at the intersection at the very moment Tzanshaus said the holdup took place, and the policeman hadn't seen anything like it. He questioned the messenger, who admitted that he had hidden the money in his car.

'PRIMING' HELD FUTILE IF TRADE FETTERS REMAIN

Program Offered by Manufacturers.

New York, May 1.—(AP)—The National Association of Manufacturers asserted today federal pump priming to stimulate business would be futile "unless it is accompanied by governmental policies that will permit business to accept the priming and go forward."

"Pouring public funds into pump priming projects, no matter how freely," said a statement prepared by the association's board of directors, "cannot provide permanent jobs and economic stability if private enterprise is not encouraged simultaneously to proceed and expand.

"Work to Be Done."

"On the other hand, if all possible encouragement is given to private enterprise, then little, if any, pump priming will be necessary.

"There is work to be done that will take up the slack in our employment once the fetters which prevent business and industry from planning for the future are loosened."

The association's board proposed a seven point program for revival of business activity. It included:

"Declaration by the federal government that it will not proceed in competition with private utilities.

Ask Change in Wagner Act.

"Revision of the Wagner act so as to make it a workable instrument for curtailing labor disputes.

"Prompt solution of the underlying railroad problem.

"Avoidance of new federal reform legislation that will result in a fresh period of uncertainty at a time when the nation should be concentrating upon making jobs."

NIGHTMARE OF REPORTS

The task of making a mass of government reports has become a nightmare to the average business man and keeps him so busy he is greatly handicapped in looking for business, the Illinois Manufacturers' association said in a statement issued yesterday.

Ten years ago, it said, one company filed 250 reports to various governmental units each year, but now it is required to file 8,500. Another, the association declared, had to hire nine new employés and install thousands of dollars' worth of machinery to handle social security reports alone.

Trade Leaders Meet Today to Analyze Ills

Washington, D. C., May 1.—[Special.]—A program to combat the recession and to "promote national progress through the traditional business system" will be advanced by representatives of nearly 1,000,000 American business men, large and small, who will meet for four days at the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the chamber of commerce of the United States, which opens here tomorrow.

Winthrop W. Aldrich.

Coming at a time when the administration has been calling upon small business men and great industrialists for suggestions on how to proceed, the decision of the chamber to offer a concrete program was regarded as a challenge to administration leaders.

President to Be Absent.

President Roosevelt, who chose the week of the meeting to leave on his southern trip, has said he was "looking for the specific step which will bring closer coöperation between business and government and which will encourage them to take the initiative to stabilize industry."

Most of the chamber's speakers will be business executives, such as Winthrop W. Aldrich, chairman of the Chase National bank of New York; Lenox R. Lohr, president of the National Broadcasting company; Francis E. Frothingham, president of the Investment Bankers' Association of America, and Thomas J. Watson of New York, president of the International Chamber of Commerce.

Will Discuss Spending.

Aldrich, who has been one of the outspoken critics of the administration, also will speak tomorrow night at the annual dinner of the International Chamber of Commerce. He will discuss government spending.

An innovation at the United States chamber's meeting tomorrow will be the calling upon representative business men from various parts of the country to state their views of the present situation and the business outlook.

The 2,500 delegates to the meeting will represent 1,500 trade associations and local chambers of commerce.

Chief among the subjects to be discussed will be the burden of taxation on business and employment; public spending and the new "pump priming" program versus private spending in jobmaking enterprises; unemployment and labor relations.

Average Daily Closing Prices of 30 Leading Industrial Stocks on the New York Stock Exchange

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, May 1.—[Special.]—The closing week of April brought no encouragement to those who follow the stock market. Share prices contracted further and investors could glean little good news from the economic situation or from the negatively reassuring developments at Washington. Leading stocks lost from fractions to more than 5 points on the week.

Business in the brokerage houses dragged throughout the week, average sales for the five full sessions being about 468,000 shares, far below the amount necessary for the brokers to show a profit.

Prices Above Month's Lows.

Not since the week that ended March 26 has the market turned in a poorer performance. Prices, however, as measured by the averages, are still above the low marks touched earlier in the month.

While business news carried no signs of a break in the depression, financial men continued to rivet their attention on Washington. The shelving of the wages and hours bill helped sentiment somewhat, with stocks moving forward Friday, only to weaken again Saturday.

Indices Point Downward.

Meanwhile, the majority of the business indices which traders usually consult in charting their investment course dropped to lower levels. Freight car loadings declined, as did steel mill operations, scrap steel prices, electrical output, motor production, commercial bank borrowings, and retail trade.

Most of the quarterly earnings statements made public during the week showed sharply reduced income as compared with the same quarter a year ago. Presidents at annual meetings stressed the dark outlook.

Differences in Credit Service.

The commercial bank, the finance company, and the credit insurance company perform functions similar to those of factors in some instances. Methods, however, differ.

Where commercial banks are engaged principally in making loans on general credit, the factor does not lend, but buys accounts outright, and has no recourse to the client, regardless of the client's credit standing.

Finance companies are, on the whole, concerned with a different class of trade from factors. Such companies deal mostly in automobile financing, financing of instalment selling, or personal finance business. The factor, on the other hand, finances manufacturing and wholesaling companies.

Even in cases where the finance company does enter the "factor field" the methods differ. The factor relieves the client of the collection burden, but the finance company makes no collections. The client acts as collecting agent and turns over the proceeds to the finance company.

Credit insurance companies deal chiefly with credit problems and are little concerned with collections. The client of a credit insurance company must assume a certain "normal loss," must usually be a co-insurer for part of the loss, and must check his own credits. The factor's client is relieved of any credit loss, has his credits checked for him, and is not concerned with bookkeeping and collections.

Grand Trunk Western Buys Two Diesel Switch Engines

Purchase of two Diesel switching locomotives from the Electro-Motive corporation, General Motors subsidiary at La Grange, Ill., was announced yesterday by C. G. Bowker, vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Western railroad. The locomotives, powered by 600 horsepower, eight cylinder Diesel engines, will be used at the Brush Street terminal, Detroit, Mich. Each locomotive weighs 100 tons.

Business Wary of Beating Gun, Says N.Y. Bank

New York, May 1.—(AP)—Noting that industry in April showed "no material improvement," the National City Bank of New York said today business is more concerned with reducing stocks of unsold goods and tightening operating efficiency than with "beating the gun on a hypothetical price rise."

The bank said in its monthly business survey that the immediate effect of the recent credit expansion steps in Washington, D. C., interpreted as potentially inflationary in the long run, has been "limited."

The bank added:

"Evidently business men, if more hopeful for fall, are not counting upon early or rapid improvement and are indisposed to anticipate it in the markets.

"With April gone, they are impressed by the fact that seasonal influences are against an upturn between now and August."

The chief hope for improvement in the second half of the year, the bank said, lies in textile and other industries producing goods for the average consumer where progress in inventory reduction has been made.

CONTINENTAL OIL PROFITS TUMBLE FROM YEAR AGO

Frisco Has $7,930,109 Loss in Year.

The Continental Oil company, with headquarters at Ponca City, Okla., yesterday reported net profit of $1,805,197 for the first three months of 1938, compared with $3,691,193 for the same period last year. The earnings were equivalent to 38 cents a share, compared with 79 cents in the first quarter of 1937.

The company's report said the decrease in earnings was caused by lower crude oil production resulting from drastic proration restrictions, lower prices from sales of refined products, and higher costs.

The St. Louis-San Francisco [Frisco] Railway company ended 1937 with a deficit of $7,930,109, it was disclosed yesterday in the annual report to the trustees. Net operating revenue amounted to $8,024,591 and only $4,911,063 remained for the payment of $12,841,172 interest due on fixed charge obligations.

Anaconda Wire and Cable.

The Anaconda Wire and Cable company, subsidiary of Anaconda Copper Mining company, yesterday reported a first quarter net loss of $309,790. This compared with net income in the first three months of 1937 of $907,254, or $2.15 a capital share.

Consolidated net income of United Gas corporation showed an increase for the year 1937, in spite of a drop in the final quarter, the company's annual report disclosed. Net for the year amounted to $11,305,473, equal after preferred dividend requirements to 25 cents a common share, compared with $10,922,406, or 20 cents a share, in 1936. Profit in the fourth 1937 quarter declined to $1,871,028, against $2,124,379 in the December, 1936, quarter.

Good Outlook of Wheat Crop Cuts Exports

Prospects of a near record American winter wheat crop being harvested this year and recent highly beneficial rains in the northwest which have given the spring sown grain an excellent start dominated the action of the world wheat market the last week.

Government "pump priming" apparently fell flat as a price making factor in wheat, as all deliveries of futures on the Chicago Board of Trade sold below 80 cents a bushel last week, the first time this has occurred since May, 1934.

Foreigners Hesitate to Buy.

Although the wheat crop has still to face the crucial period of its growth, the American and foreign trade is said to believe that a large yield will be obtained this season, which with the prospect of 200,000,000 bushels of old crop grain being carried over into the 1938-'39 season, has increased bearish sentiment to such an extent foreigners are not inclined to buy cash grain freely. They believe they will be able to purchase at a lower price level.

Export demand for American corn is unabated and is expected to continue active for some time. The foreign demand is regarded as the backbone of the market.

STEEL OUTPUT WAVERS; LACKS SPUR OF BUYING

Little Indication of Upturn Is Seen.

Steel buying and production "have struck a balance at practically one-third capacity" and there is little to indicate that an upward movement will take place soon, the magazine Steel said yesterday. It reported that ingot production rates in various centers fluctuated last week, the net result of changed schedules being a decline estimated at ½ point to 32 per cent of theoretical capacity.

The Chicago district schedule rose 3 points to its highest mark for this year at 33.5 per cent, but the Pittsburgh rate was 3 points lower at 26 per cent, offsetting the Chicago gain.

Higher at Wheeling.

Operations were higher at Wheeling, Cleveland, and at points in New England, but declined in eastern Pennsylvania, Youngstown, Buffalo, and Cincinnati. Rates were steady at Birmingham, St. Louis, and Detroit.

Discussing the outloook, Steel said April buying was slightly less than in March, "seasonal increases not being sufficient to push the market off dead center."

"Private enterprise," it said, "accounts for little present activity, state and municipal improvements, with some federal work, providing most of the tonnage."

Scrap Markets Weak.

Weakness in scrap markets continued last week in the east, and reductions of 50 cents at Pittsburgh and 25 to 50 cents in eastern Pennsylvania were made. The Chicago prices held steady, but buying is practically at a standstill in all districts. Steel's scrap composite price declined 29 cents to $11.71 a ton, the lowest point since August, 1935, and a loss of $2.04 since Jan. 1.

Answer: Procter & Gamble Co., a $1?7,300,000 concern, is the nation's largest producer of soap, glycerin, and foodstuffs made from vegetable oils. Its line of soaps include some of the best known brands and its line of edible products include shortenings, confectioner's butter, margarine oils, and salad oils.

Best known among Procter & Gamble products are "Ivory" soap and "Crisco," a shortening and a cooking fat. Household soaps provide the greater part of the soap business, but industry and laundry soaps also are sold in large quantities.

The costs of raw materials wield an important influence on profits of the company. Tallow, caustic soda, cottonseed oil, and coconut oil are among the principal ingredients. A subsidiary, the Buckeye Cotton Oil company, produces about one-third of the cottonseed oil, and copra, from which coconut oil is made, is crushed in the company's own plants. Principal source of copra is the Philippine Islands.

Profits turned downward in the summer of 1937 after showing sharp increases in 1936 and early 1937. Net income for the quarter ended March 31, third quarter of the current fiscal year, was $2,800,859, or 40 cents a common share, compared with $8,198,490, or $1.26 a share, in the corresponding 1937 period. In the six months ending Dec. 31, 1937, net income slumped to $9,384,686, or $1.40 a share, from $13,359,766, or $2.03 a share, in the corresponding period a year earlier. The earnings record in recent years follows:

1937........	$218,874,362	$26,803,340	$4.08
1936........	170,361,164	16,138,368	2.39
1935........	148,152,504	15,120,324	2.22
1934........	104,462,761	14,366,816	2.11
1933........	94,211,928	10,808,415	1.52

Procter & Gamble has outstanding approximately 22,500 shares of $100 par 8 per cent preferred, 169,517 shares of $100 par 5 per cent preferred, and 6,325,087 shares of no par common. The company has an unbroken dividend record extending back to 1891. Payments in 1937 totaled $2.75 a share. A 50 cent payment was made Feb. 15.

The preferred shares are regarded as high grade and the common as fairly good grade. High costs of raw materials through the first half of 1937 and business depression since that time have cut heavily into profits. As the largest operator in its field, the company can be expected to benefit from any recovery in business.

APPALACHIAN POWER COMPANY

REDEMPTION NOTICE

To the Holders of First Mortgage Five Per Cent Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, due June 1, 1941, of APPALACHIAN POWER COMPANY

Notice Is Hereby Given that pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Deed dated June 1, 1911, made by Appalachian Power Company to Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank, as Trustee, and the provisions of the above mentioned bonds Appalachian Electric Power Company as successor corporation to Appalachian Power Company has exercised its option to redeem and will pay and redeem on June 1, 1938, all of said outstanding First Mortgage Five Per Cent. Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, due June 1, 1941, at the principal amount thereof and accrued interest to June 1, 1938, together with a premium of 5% of the principal amount thereof, being the redemption price specified in said Trust Deed and in the bonds.

Holders of bonds should present and surrender them for redemption and payment as aforesaid on or after June 1, 1938, at the Trust Department of Continental National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, No. 231 South La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, with the June 1, 1938, and subsequent coupons attached. Bonds registered as to principal should be accompanied by proper instruments of assignment, duly executed in blank. On and after June 1, 1938, said bonds shall cease to bear interest and the coupons if any, for interest maturing subsequent to said redemption date will be void.

Dated, April 29, 1938

HELP WANTED—MEN.

Salesmen.

WHAT KIND OF JOB ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?

Isn't a permanent position with good income and opportunity for advancement with a large company what you want? If you are a serious minded young man interested in your future and if you are 21 to 35 years of age and of neat appearance, Commonwealth Edison Company will consider you for a position in the Appliance Sales Department. If you meet with the above qualifications and you have the right attitude, previous experience is unnecessary. The electrical business is a growing business and men in it receive good percentage plus bonus. Apply Monday, Room 2300—105 West Adams-street. 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. only.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

Regardless of your present situation, it will be worthwhile to come in and talk this over!

We sincerely believe we have designed the best proposition in America for overcoming the "business recession."

We are a leading Chicago furniture company opening an entirely new dept., which presents a wonderful opportunity for men interested in direct selling.

For complete explanation of plan, including drawing account privilege, bonus, liberal percentage earnings, and compensation for short training period, call before 1 p. m. at most convenient store.

A NEW PROCESS DEVELOPED BY COMMUNITY MOTORS

Community Motors has developed a new process for reconditioning cars that is so new—so different—so changed as to revolutionize this industry.

No matter what your previous idea may have been about how a used car should look and run, you have a surprise in store for you when you see a "COMMUNITY RE-NEWED" car.

Space does not permit us to describe this new process to you, but one look at a "COMMUNITY RE-NEWED" car will tell you the complete story.

Before you buy any car, by all means see a "COMMUNITY RE-NEWED" car, as they cost no more and sometimes less than average automobiles.
